

PENNSYLVANIA

PHILADELPHIA NEWS

By J. H. GRAY
1017 Lombard St.
Phone Filbert 4489

Philadelphia, Oct. 31.—Miss Julia Jackson, who is teaching school in Milford, Del., spent the week-end at her home, 2631 Nicholas St. Raymond H. Johnson, the well-known trap drummer, left on Monday for Norfolk, Va., where he will play in the Palace theater. Ben Hardisty of 1833 N. 13th St. has added $500 worth of improvements to his barber shop. J. Reed of 1145 S. 20th St. is entertaining his niece, Mrs. Maggie Chase of Baltimore, Md. She is having a fine time. Miss Ruby Hulett of 1355 N. 20th St. is now a student at Skorer college, Harpers Ferry, W. Va. Walter Carroll of 10th St. near Diamond, who was pronounced intoxicated, required two wagon loads of police to arrest him. He was terrorizing the neighborhood by firing off his revolver. Registered at the Hudson Hotel: Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Roberts, Dover, Del.; N. Hicks, Lock Haven, Pa.; A. O. Mitchell, Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones, Jenkintown, Pa.; Mrs. R. H. Powell, Greenboro, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Wilmington, Del.; William Lewis, Swarthmore, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. James Jones, Newark, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. James H. Boyster, Newark, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. James Williams, Virginia, E. J. Jones, City; Sherman Smith, Cleveland, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. J. Miller, Virginia; John Beckman, Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Butler, Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ashby, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. M. E. Davis, Bordentown, N. J.; A. J. Denning, New York city; Mr. and Mrs. Simpson, New York; J. B. Brown, Baltimore, Md.; Edward Cole, Trenton, N. J.; R. R. Gray, Columbus, Ohio; H. Williams, Columbus, Ohio; Mrs. Henry Jones, Atlantic City, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson, Washington, D. C.; C. Anderson, Hockmont, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. William Jackson, New York, N. Y.; S. King, Washington, D. C.; Willie Johnson, Homestead, Pa.; James Brown, Homestead, Pa.; J. R. Lancaster, Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. George Benson, Wilmington, Del.; Booker Simmons, New York; L. Monroe, New York; Fritz Pollard, Chicago, Ill.; Herbert Joise, Norfolk, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnson, Schanville, Md.; William Johnson, Baltimore, Md. The second quarterly conference was held at the Metropolitan A. M. E. Zion church, 15th and Christian Sts., Dr. W. H. Wynn, pastor; Dr. M. L. Blackwell, presided. Every department is in better condition than ever before. The Rev. Dr. Aquilla Sayles, pastor of the great Providence Baptist church, Washington, D. C., spoke at Mount Moriah Baptist church, 19th and Addison Sts., on Sunday. Subject, "Let Every Friend of Truth and Virtue be a Friend." The engagement of Miss Effie Exner Wendell Cornish has been announced, the wedding to come off in the fall. Mr. Cornish is a successful real estate agent in West Philadelphia, and Miss Dover is a popular school teacher. Convention for amity between the white and Colored races in America under the auspices of the Bahai movement was held at Witherspoon building on Wednesday and Thursday evenings. This is a new cycle of human power. It is the hour of unity of the sons of men and of the drawing together of all races and all classes. Horace Holly of New York was chairman; music arranged by Carl Ditoni; Agnes L. Tierny spoke on "Interracial Amity a Basis for World Peace"; Leslie Pinkney Hill on "Progressive Negro Ideals"; Albert Vail of Chicago on "Scientific Proof of the Oneness of Mankind." On Thursday evening Z. M. Haddad, M. D. of Chicago, Ill., acted as chairman. Alain Leroy of Washington, D. C., spoke on "Negro Art and Culture." Judge John M. Patterson of this city also spoke, followed by Louis G. Gregory of Washington, D. C., who spoke on "Interracial Amity," he was then followed by Hooper Harris of New York, who made a short address. This makes the fourth in a series of interracial congresses arranged under the auspices of this movement. The first was held in 1921 at Washington, D. C.; the second at Springfield, Mass.; the third at New York city, the purpose being to awaken the people of America to the need of a clearer understanding of interracial problems and a deeper realization of their spiritual solution as set forth in the teachings of the world's greatest prophets and teachers. The attendance was large. Benjamin Hayden, 29 years old, of 19th St., near Christian, was stabbed twice in the stomach Monday by his wife, Anna, during an altercation in their home. Epsilon chapter, host to the 11th annual convales of Phi Beta Sigma Dec. 26 to 31. Epsilon Sigma men have had three local meetings recently at which plans that were made during the early part of this year for the entertainment and reception of the fraternity at its 11th annual convention in Philadelphia, are being satisfactorily completed. As planned, it is expected that the 1924 gathering will go down in the annals of the fraternity as one without precedent for its smoothness, its hospitality and its wealth of solid entertainment. F. S. Jackson, 200 Master St., is the editor. George Bivens, an old employee of the Union League, who has a 30-year record, presented his old-time friend, J. Jariatta Johnson, with a collapsible cane on Thursday evening of which Mr. Johnston is very proud. He was hurt in an automobile accident several months ago and finds in the cane a comfortable solace. Mrs. W. J. Harvey and son, William J. III, have returned home from Williamsport, where the young man displayed his mental abilities to a large audience. A large audience filled the capacity of Berean Presbyterian church, the Rev. Matthew Anderson, pastor, to help celebrate the 45th anniversary. Hon. Solomon Porter Hood, United States minister to Liberia, preached the sermon. He was assisted by the Rev. Robert Hunter, secretary of the Presbyterian board of relief. Dr. Anderson preached his first sermon in this city on Oct. 14, 1879. In the second story back room of Milton hall, 1914 Fairmount Ave., at what was then known as the Gloucester mission. At that time not more than 20 persons were at the services, of whom half were children. From this small beginning Dr. Anderson built up what is now the Berean church and manual training school, which together has property estimated as worth $200,000. Marriage licenses were issued last week to Raymond W. Harris, 1721 Christian St., and Louise Patterson, 602 N. 45th St.; Richard Miller, 4541 Sansom St., and Ann V. Brown, 4541 Sansom St.; William N. Reed, 4433 Sansom St., and Margaret P. Hisslap, 4721 Sansom St.; William A. Grimes, Bustleton, and Maud Cockell, Bustleton; Edward Jones, 3226 Alter St., and Gertrude Johnson, 1720 Alter St.; Aaron Wells, 2204 Kater St., and Essie Roberts, 1510 N. Woodstock St.; Russell W. Coles, 1827 N. 22d St., and Itheva D. Towns, 432 Dupont St.; Walter Sanders, 1936 Lombard St., and Lula Herd, 1934 Lombard St.; Joseph B. Hughes, 501 N. 13th St., and Eva M. Shelton, 1032 Jefferson St.; Noah S. Colbert, 1921 N. 19th St., and Hattie T. Ruffy, 1621 Jefferson St.; Warren E. Bradshaw, 1903 Mount Vernon St., and Violet F. Shrine, 645 N. 12th St.; Garfield Hamilton, 427 E. Rittenhouse St., and Emma Young, 37 Armat St.; Charles S. Martin, Hightown, N. J., and Anna Brown, Langhorne, Pa.; Edward A. Warwick, 338 N. 42d St., and Sallie C. Flood, 1629 Naudain St.; John N. Washington, 688 Brooklyn St., and Ella V. Collur, 670 Brooklyn St.; Percy Williams, Baltimore, Md., and Anna B. Hanna, Baltimore; Roosevelt Peterson, 1302 N. Wernock St., and Mattie Nash, 1524 N. Alden St.; John Butler, 1613 Poplar St., and Catherine Carey, 1613 Poplar St.; Sidney Dorsey, 2045 Catharine St., and Marie Moody, 1020 S. 17th St.; Mrs. Josie D. Heard, wife of Bishop William Henry Heard of the First Episcopal district of the A. M. E. church, died at her home, 1426 Rockland St., on Tuesday morning, after quite a long illness, compelled to have an operation, complications set in. She was a woman of rare talent and ability and was loved by all. Multitudes gathered from far and wide in mighty concourse, the great preachers of the church alike mingled with them in their unaffected sorrow, and with the beautiful service of the church to which she belonged. She was laid to her earthly rest in Eden cemetery. Bishop J. Albert Johnson had charge of the services. Judge Thompson in the United district court on Wednesday sentenced Jacob Harris to two years and six months in the federal penitentiary, Atlanta, Ga. Harris, who is a cafe entertainer in Lancaster, Pa., was convicted last month of selling dope to narcotic agents. Dr. Eli Tark of Petersburg, Va., was in town last week. Mrs. Bertha Barlow of 2343 Orkney St. has gone to Richmond county, Virginia, to visit her father, who is quite ill. Mrs. S. Jackson of 337 E. Rittenhouse St. is quite ill at her home. The Rev. Dr. Cardwell left on Monday for the Virginia Theological seminary at Richmond, Va. This is his third year. Miss L. B. Mansfield of Washington, Pa., is in the city visiting friends. Miss Washington is a student of the New England Conservatory of Music. Mrs. Alberta Glover is quite ill in the Woman's College hospital, 21st and S. College Ave. The Rev. J. W. Thompson, one of our oldest ministers in the city, had his pocket picked the other day of every cent he had. He was assisted on Sunday by the Rev. J. Duell and his congregation. A neat sum was realized. The Rev. Percetti, a converted Mohammedan, who has been called to a charge in Youngstown, Ohio, stopped over in the city a few days. Thomas Flood, who met with an accident at the Philadelphia navy yard several weeks ago is now able to get around, although he is still an inmate at the Navy hospital. The theological school, which is being conducted at Salem Baptist church, the Rev. J. B. Gardner, A. M. S. T. B., pastor, was opened on Monday night for the season. On Monday night the Rev. J. T. Goodall, pastor of Second Baptist church, Newtown, and wife celebrated their 15th wedding anniversary. They were the recipients of many nice presents. Mrs. Ellmore Taylor of Tonkers, N. Y., has returned to her home after spending a portion of her vacation in this city. J. Bernard Johnson, attorney-at-law, and family of Trenton, N. J., spent the week-end in the city. The Rev. William L. Burton died last week at the home of his parents, 1534 Warton St. The Rev. John W. Lee officiated at the funeral. A conference under the auspices of the legislative department of the National League of Colored Women was held on Sunday at Gibson's New Dunbar theater, and on Monday at the Y. W. C. A. The conference urged the advisability of voting the Republican ticket, and formed plans for the education of the electorate. A number of prominent women were present. Mrs. Mazie Mossell Griffin was temporary chairman. The Rev. Walker Brooks, 42 years pastor of the First Baptist church, Washington, D. C., preached a special sermon at the Baptist ministers' conference on Monday. Frank A. Peacock of 1620 Christian St. was married to Miss Alice D. Nelson, a popular hairdresser of Boston, Mass. The Rev. William H. Dabbs officiated. They will reside in this city. Mrs. L. B. France of Boston, Mass., is visiting friends in the city. Mrs. Francis Shaw, 65 years old, 1837 N. 25th St., was taken to the Jewish hospital on Monday in a critical condition after being struck by a trolley car at York Rd. and Lakeside Ave. Mrs. Fred Hawkins is very ill in the Samaritan hospital. Mrs. Spencer, a well known hairdresser of Chicago, Ill., was a guest of Mrs. Ida Brown, 1904 Brown St., last week. Miss Marguerite Macey of Darby, Pa., who was royally entertained at Bridgeton, N. J., by her many friends, has returned home. The Civic league of the 40th ward, 30th division of West Philadelphia, Mrs. Pearl L. Wright, president, held a successful community meeting at the Elmwood A. M. E. church last week. The Rev. W. A. Turner, pastor of St. Paul A. M. E. Z. church, has returned home from Williamsport, Pa. where he was attending the district conference. The district conference of the Philadelphia district of Philadelphia and Delaware conference M. P. E. church is now in session at St. Paul, M. P. E. church 1619 Catharine St. The Rev. George Hunter, pastor, Miss Phoebe Felts of New Jersey has been appointed secretary of the Belmont Center Y. W. C. A. Miss Felts has had ripe experience in the North and South.

PITTSBURGH, PA.

By RANDALL
2128 Wylie Ave

Mrs. Daisy McLeod Bethune, president of the National Association of Colored Women's club was the honor guest of Mrs. Daisy Lampkins last week. Mrs. Bethune addressed an audience at the Y. W. C. A., also several women's clubs. Mrs. Rose Nevins of 616 Perry St., who has been quite active in Templar auxiliary work, was tendered a surprise party by the members of Cyrene guild, E. K. T. crusader. She was presented with a valuable sword on behalf of the guild by the grand royal advisor, John P. Haydn. Other valuable presents were showered on her and a lunch followed. At a recent meeting of the Collegiate club permanent officers were duly installed as follows: Fred Randolph, president; Lee Cowan, vice-president; Roscoe Howard, secretary; James Coler, treasurer. The club's initial reception and prom will be held the night of Nov. 7 at the rest of Iron City Lodge of Elks at Center Ave. and Juneca St. A Halloween whist party was conducted Friday evening in the St. Benedict Roman Catholic church hall. A number of prizes were presented to winners. The American Woodmen Uniform Rank No. 3 held their first reception of the season at Arcade hall Friday evening. "Unity or Die" is the subject on which the Rev. J. C. Austin will lecture on at People's tabernacle next Sunday. Funeral services were held for Mrs. J. Ousley at the Central Baptist church recently. Mrs. Ousley leaves two sons to mourn her loss. The annual harvest home coming was held at Bethel from Sunday to Tuesday of this week. A record attendance paid tribute to mother Bethel. A sacred concert was staged at the Bethesda Presbyterian church, Frankstown Ave., near Lincoln Ave. The Rev. C. B. Allen, pastor. Those appearing were Miss Janice Stanton, soprano; Mrs. G. F. Jones, alto; Ruby Blakely, tenor; George Foster Jones, baritone and director. A club women's symposium in connection with the senior missionary circle was held at Emanuel Baptist church, Rankins, Pa., Sunday. Mrs. R. E. Payne, chairman, and Mrs. Estelle Turner, secretary.