

Baha'i House Marks Anniv.

World-traveling Baha'i teacher, Winston Evans, will be the speaker at the regular Sunday afternoon public lecture at the Baha'i House of Worship, April 27, at 3:45 p.m.

Evans' subject will be "The Lord of the New Age." This week marks the 106th anniversary of the declaration of Baha'u'llah to be the Messenger of God for this day in history. Evans' lecture will deal with the Baha'i concept of continuing revelation from God through the succession of divine prophets, the Lords of each age.

The recent meeting of the World Council of Churches in Uppsala, Sweden was attended by Evans at the Baha'i representative. He has appeared as lecturer about the Faith of Baha'u'llah at Universities throughout the United States, and in seminars with leading Christian theologians.

Following the program there will be an informal question and answer period when Evans will speak with inquirers in the Fireside Room. The public is invited to attend the regular program of devotions in the auditorium of the Baha'i House of Worship at 3 P.M. Sunday afternoon.
