Special Fetes Mark Negro History Week

In observance of Negro History Week, groups and organizations all over the city have scheduled programs while libraries and bookshops are displaying literary works by and about Negroes.

On Thursday at 8 p. m. at the North Avenue-Larrabee YMCA Dr. Arthur G. Falls, world traveler and student of Negro history, will talk on "Are Negroes Upset by the Hungarian Situation?"

The Bahai speaker at the meeting will be Thomas West.

POETRY DRAMATIZED

On Friday afternoon, Negro poetry will be dramatized at the Hall Branch Library. Presented by the Older Persons Group, the participants are members of Ethel Minns Lueus Dramatic school.

Featured in the cast will be Millicent M. Watkins, Joy Wright and Audrey Goodwin.

The Chicago Community of the Bahai World Faith will observe the celebration on Sunday with a public meeting and reception in the music hall of the Fine Arts Building, 410 S. Michigan ave.

Speakers will be Samuel B. Stratton of Dunbar Vocational school, and Miss Charlotte Linfoot of Wilmette, a member of the National Spiritual Assembly of the Bahais of the U. S.

Earle Render will be chairman. Music and refreshments will follow.

BAHAI CREED

Members in some 1600 Bahai communities are marking history week. A statement announcing the observance declared in part:

"We consider this occasion an opportunity to assist in promoting a fuller understanding of the significant contributions the Negro race has made to our civilization, as a part of the more inclusive Bahai ten year crusade for promoting the understanding of the oneness of mankind.

"Consciousness of the actual gains made by a race and appreciation of its abilities and achievements become more effective when supported by dynamic religious convictions, such as, all are the servants of one God.

NEW CYCLE

"Bahais have the further conviction that we are now living in a new cycle of human power in which the foundations for the unity of men and the drawing together of all races and classes will be established, destroying the curse of war and releasing human powers for the building of the finest civilization the world has yet known."

The House of Knowledge, 2306 S. Michigan ave., has collected an array of materials for churches, clubs, schools or home groups about Afro-Americans and Africans.

It also has the latest books by Langston Hughes and other top flight colored authors.
