

THE BUCKEYE STATE

Cleveland, O., Oct. 19.—J. L. Jones, president of the Jones Remedy Co., has been re-elected president of the Baraca Bible Class of St. John's A. M. E. Sunday school. * Connellman Thomas W. Fleming and Attorney A. H. Martin, candidate for municipal judge, were the Race speakers at a mass meeting Tuesday evening at Ideal hall under the auspices of the Eleventh Ward Progressive Republican club. Sidney B. Thompson, street foreman, was chairman. Officers of club: Frank S. Morgan, president, R. S. Skinner, treasurer; Ernest L. Smith, secretary. * Miss L. E. Grayson, acting general secretary of the Phyllis Wheatley association, spent a few days at her home in Oberlin. She was the speaker at vesper services last Sunday. At tomorrow's services "Paul Lawrence Dunbar" will be the special topic, with Miss Belle Harris as principal speaker. Special music. * Tuesday evening the sewing and crocheting classes opened under most auspicious circumstances with Miss Emma Howell as teacher. * Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Slaughter have moved into their recently purchased residence on E. 43d street. Little Howard, Jr., is convalescent. * Superintendent Peyton W. Lemon of St. John's Sunday school presented members of the Sunday school who are to leave in a few days for Chillingham to join the new National Army, with beautiful morocco bound testimonials, Sunday. * Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Naves and family, who recently arrived from Guntersburg, Ala., have located at E. 114th street and Woodland avenue. * Mrs. S. A. Lane, Chicago, Ill., who has been guest of her uncle, H. A. Brown, Scoville, avenue, returned home Sunday. Those who entertained in her honor were Mrs. Otto Reddix and Mrs. James Offer. * The Optimistic club held its last meeting at Mrs. Edmunsen's, Scoville avenue. Mrs. Susie Jefferson, Cedar avenue, will be the hostess Wednesday. The annual banquet for charity will occur Nov. 7. W. Allison Sweeney, Chicago, will be the speaker of the evening. * Rev. Pezavla O'Connell will occupy his pulpit at Cory M. E. church tomorrow, after spending a pleasant vacation in southern Ohio and the east. Rev. John Rutledge, superintendent of the Ohio Anti-Saloon League addressed Cory Sunday school. Sunday. Miss Meccabee rendered several vocal selections. Mrs. Della Offer is the newly elected president of the Women's Home Missionary society. * The funeral of Mrs. William (Florence Birch) Matthews, popular member of St. Andrew's Episcopal church, was held Monday afternoon. Rev. W. B. Sutherland officiating. * Mr. and Mrs. James Offer spent their two weeks' vacation in Ypsilanti and Ann Arbor, Mich. At the latter place they were met by Miss Lola M. Fox, Chicago, Ill. * Miss Hazel Davison, a recent arrival from Elkhart, is stenographer in the joint offices of Connellman T. W. Fleming and Juriman C. Hudson, real estate dealer. * Richard Sissle has been appointed superintendent of Cory Sunday school and J. Nelson, assistant, vice J. L. Schaefer, resigned. * Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Ferguson moved into their new home, 3328 E. 128th street. * Mr. and Mrs. Peter Baker have purchased property on E. 157th street, Collingwood. * Miss J. H. Holmes arrived recently from Atlantic City, N. J., and is clerk in the Peoples' Pharmacy and stopping with Mrs. William Owens, E. 19th street. * At the recent meeting of the Federated Missionary Societies at Lane Memorial church Mrs. Louis Mason was elected president. * Messrs. Howell C. Taylor and Leroy Litcher were among the bridegrooms who departed with Co. D, Ninth Battalion, for Montgomery, Ala., Friday. They were married recently to Miss Reba Doctor and Miss Cecelia Manson, respectively. * A. L. Campbell, funeral artist, 3537 Central avenue, has moved his residence from Mt. Pleasant to the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Slaughter, E. 43d street. His partner, Otto Hamilton and wife are traveling agents for the Defender. * Miss L. Wiggins and Messrs. James B. Myers and Andrew Johnson attended the 75th anniversary and unveiling of the new organ of St. John Baptist church Philadelphia, Pa. Rev. A. R. Robinson, D. D., pastor. * Rufus Cline, clerk in Ernest P. Jackson's pharmacy, spent the weekend in Springfield, Ohio, attending to return for duty Monday. Wedding bells. * Patients of Jackson's pharmacy are wondering whether the cares of married life are beginning to prey upon Charles S. Carr since he has not been seen in that familiar vicinity for three weeks. A short time ago he fell victim to one of St. Louis' belles. * Wallace Bolen has been sick again with rheumatism. * James Starkey, inspector of sewers, improved slightly the past week. * Miss Tuttle Queen visited her mother, Mrs. Roberta Queen, Quincy avenue, returning to New York city last week, accompanied by Mrs. Chester Lottler, formerly Miss Crelia Hamlett, who visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hamlett, and sisters, Mrs. Annie Smith and Miss Malzarine Hamlett, E. 96th street, several weeks. * Friends of W. E. Askins, Central avenue, haberdasher, have at last "caught up" with his mysterious visits to Columbus. Since being drafted telegrams and long distance messages have been numerous. He admits he is liable to "jump off" in 24 hours' notice. Charles Harris has been asked to act as best man, it is said. * Oscar Blair, outer guard for Central High, made a fine showing Saturday with University School team. * Mrs. Butler Wilson, noted lecturer for the N. A. A. C. P., addressed the Women's Council at the Old Folks' Home, Saturday. She spoke at the Euclid Ave. congregational church (white) last week on "The Negro in War and in Peace." Mrs. Mary Church Terrell delivered an address Sunday afternoon at St. John's church on issues vital to the Race, under the auspices of the local branch of the N. A. A. C. P. Rev. H. C. Bailey, president. Mrs. Wilson also spoke. * Messdames William Smith and Ella White were elected delegates to the Cleveland Welfare Federation quarterly meeting representing the Women's Council. * The Williams Singers of Chicago appeared at the First M. E. church (white), Euclid avenue and E. 30th street, Monday evening. Henry Taylor, as manager. * Rev. J. S. Jackson, pastor of St. John's church, is spending his vacation in Springfield, Ohio, and Lexington, Ky. * Mrs. Adam Briscoe, E. 29th street, gave a delightful dinner Sunday in honor of her daughter, formerly Miss Lella M. Brandon, who was married last week to LeRoy Jones. Mrs. Mary Taylor was a special guest. * Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Hurley, East One Hundred and First street, have returned from Chicago, where they attended the world's baseball series. Mr. Hurley called on the Defender. * Mrs. Clara Thomas, East Ninetieth street, is visiting her son in Detroit. * Dr. L. S. Tarter, Bristol, Va., has located here, stopping with Dr. E. D. Webster until his goods arrive. * Cyril Dandridge and mother, Mrs. Florence Dandridge, have purchased a home on East One Hundred and First street. * Attorney Harry E. Davis, Dr. E. A. Dale and J. Walter Willis have the honor of being members of Mayor Davis' campaign committee of 150, composed of Cleveland's most prominent business and professional men.

Springfield, Ohio, Oct. 19.—Samuel Huffman has been commissioned a first lieutenant in the National army. * Company A of the Ninth battalion and the Cleveland company left for Montgomery, Ala., Friday evening. * Mrs. S. R. Hamlet and Miss Plessy Robinson were called to Richmond, Ky., on account of the death of their sister. * Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walters of Detroit, Mich., are the guests of relatives. * Henry Linden has invented a combination sled. * William Rogers, 26, died Saturday morning at the City hospital. The body was removed to the Ewing undertaking parlors. He lived at 1170 Rosedale avenue. William Rudd has returned from Chicago. * M. L. Peters, William Johnson, Thomas Laws and Charles Butler went to Columbus Sunday. * Mrs. Mary Turner, Cleveland, came to Springfield to attend the funeral of her brother, John Wise.

Newark, Ohio, Oct. 19.—The engagement of Miss Dora May Guy and Mr. Lloyd Hickman, St. Paul, Minn., is announced. Mr. Hickman is a former student of Dennison. Will leave shortly for France to take up Y. M. C. A. work. * The Misses Grace Rossin and Lillian Walker were guests of Mrs. B. E. White at Coschocton Sunday. * There was a supper given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jones on Central avenue Thursday evening for the benefit of A. M. E. church building fund. The Willing Workers' Society met at the home of Miss Beatie Logan on Buckingham street Tuesday night. * The engagement of Miss Gladys Bates and Mr. Satoris Cunningham was announced. Miss Bates is of Mt. Vernon. * Carl Green, Company B, 9th regiment, formerly I. N. G., sends letter of thanks to the boys from Montgomery, Ala., for the tobacco and presents they sent him and Samuel Weaver. * The Defender is a necessity. For the next edition leave order with Walter Nickerson, Auditorium theater.

Geneva, Ohio, Oct. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith, Munciesboro, Ill., have come to Geneva to live. * Thomas Mitchell was in Cleveland Friday. * Mrs. Ben Barten is better. * Miss Grace Gardner, New Castle, Pa., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Eliza Gordon. * Mrs. Edward Johnson is ill. * Mrs. Anna Fairfax and Mrs. Eliza Gordon were in Cleveland Sunday. * Mrs. Ada Williams attended church services in Painesville.

Lockland, Ohio, Oct. 19.—Mrs. Geo. Caplin, Vine street, was the guest of Mrs. Wm. Menfee Thursday. * The Triangle club was most delightfully entertained by Mrs. Georgia Ross, the guest of honor being Mrs. Ella Dickerson, Lexington. * Mrs. Henry Young is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Willie Chisholm, of New York. * Mrs. Ella Dickerson, Lexington, Ky., has returned home after having spent a month with her niece, Mrs. Henry Young. * Miss Carrie Tribble, Lexington, Ky., has returned home after visiting her sister, Mrs. James Palmer, Hartwell, Ohio. * Mrs. B. D. Raymond entertained the Lincoln Industrial club Monday. A luncheon was served and a program was rendered by Miss Edna Raymond, Mrs. Wm. Menfee and Mrs. Henry Johnson. * The Juvenile branch of the U. B. F.'s will observe Sunday, Oct. 28, as Children's day. * Mr. and Mrs. Golden Renfro, formerly of Walnut street, are now located in Walnut Hills, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Elmwood Place, Ohio, Oct. 19.—Rev. and Mrs. Danley, from Alabama, are domiciled in Elmwood Place. Rev. Danley was called to Fairmount Baptist church. * Mrs. Buckner has been very sick. * Mrs. C. P. Farlee visited her daughter, Mrs. Thelma Cornellison. * The First Baptist church had a "Home Coming" sermon Sunday, by their ex-pastor, John L. Francis, now officiating in Hamilton. * Mrs. Robert George, who has been ill, is better. * Captain McHenry, Rev. Fleming and Dr. Browne were the guests at supper with Mr. and Mrs. Matt Simms Wednesday evening. Captain McHenry is from Atlanta, Ga. * Mr. and Mrs. Orville Cornellison visited Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Simms Sunday. * Miss Ruth West is home after a vacation in Virginia. * Mr. and Mrs. John Moody were in the village Sunday. * Mr. Dillingham visited Mr. and Mrs. Bates last week. * Mr. and Mrs. Coleman, Wyoming, were in the village Friday.