

Photo Standalone 3 -- No Title

Chicago Daily Defender (Daily Edition) (1960-1973); Dec 9, 1964;
ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Chicago Defender
pg. 4

IT'S ABOUT THE ONEIDAS

Oscar Archiquette, of Oneida, Wis., (left) looks over copy of Oneida Hymnal held by Mrs. Ruth Abird, director of the Oneida Singers, while Clarence Stigall, member of the Baha'i local assembly of Chicago shares hymnal with the music director. The Oneida Singers sang at the Baha'i center during a special program featuring Archiquette, who spoke on the history of the Oneida Tribe. The audience included many Indians living in the Chicago area as well as members of the Baha'i community. Mrs. Bath McKenty, director of the Baha'i Information Service, spoke on the "Oneness of Mankind."

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.