

CINCINNATI NEWS

CINCINNATI, Ohio, June 9.—It is reported that news of the engagement of Attorney Elsie Austin, formerly of this city, to Attorney Richardson of Indianapolis, Ind., has reached this city; Miss Austin recently became a part of the law firm of Richardson and Austin. It is said that Miss Austin will continue her residence in Indianapolis.

The Chatter Bridge club has voted in three new members due to the anticipated absence of members from the city. The new members are Misses Agnes Elliott, Marietta Renfro and Mayme Knight.

Miss Elsie Oliver, who will graduate this June, will leave for her home in Louisville after which, it is reported, plans for a coming wedding will be announced; Miss Oliver is engaged to marry John Hope, son of Dr. Hope, president of Morehouse college.

The Modern Dames Bridge club met on Friday evening with Mrs. Marion Griffith on Park Ave. The winners of the lovely prizes were Miss Edna Buckner, Mrs. Dora Goodlet and Miss Adria Miles. Miss Cynthia Jackson was guest of the evening.

The Misses Lucy Belle and Jeannetta Braden have returned from Nashville, Tenn., where they were called to the bedside of their brother, Emrie Braden.

"Who'd a Tho't It," written and staged by members of the U. C. Singers Players, enjoyed much success when on Friday and Saturday of last week it was presented at Wilson Memorial auditorium.

Quite a few Cincinnatians attend the Mid-western collegiate relays at Wilberforce university Saturday.

Miss Laura Elfe was hostess to the last meeting of the Fireside Book club. In the absence of Dr. Watson Fowler the book report was made by Horace Hicks. Miss La Terria V. May gave the news items.

Misses Alice Ferguson, Alma Lowe and Mrs. Elizabeth Ferguson, all of Portsmouth, Ohio, spent Sunday here the guests of Mrs. Myrtle Hale.

Miss Maq Doe is able to be up again after several days illness.

"Just For Fun" met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Lillie Belle Gunn. An appetizing repast followed the awarding of prizes to Mesdames Pearl French and Bessie Robinson.

Mrs. Elizabeth Willams of Chicago was the week-end guest of Mrs. Elsie Hackney.

A "summer round-up" was conducted Monday at the Douglass Colony school. More than 50 pre-school age children were examined and profited by the health suggestions.

The first boat ride of the season was given on the Steamer Washington by the Working Men's association of Cincinnati on Monday evening.

Mrs. John Webb is convalescing at her home.

Miss Dorothy Chavis, formerly of Cincinnati, now living in the East, has been here visiting Miss Ann Estelle Mason for the past two weeks.

Charles Payne Jr. has been confined at his home due to illness.

The Ultra-Modern Dramatic club entertained with a bridge dance Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Mary Chinnault.

Mrs. Lillian Warren of Covington was hostess to the O. D. T.'s Tuesday; prizes were captured by Mrs. Irene Moore, Lula Cohen and consolation to Miss Essie Ramsey.

Three one-act plays were presented on Tuesday night at the Wilson Memorial auditorium sponsored by the class in play production. The second, "The Vanishing Princess," was presented by Race students among whom are Miss Marie Thomas, Horace Hicks and James Elder. Miss Leila Jackson directed.

Mrs. and Mrs. Richmond Tivis, her mother, Mrs. Luella Hughes, and her sister, Mrs. Arletha Moore, and Benny Scott drove to Lima, Ohio, Wednesday where they visited Mrs. Tivis' sister, Mrs. Oline Hughes and her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Upthegrove. Before returning to this city on Sunday night the party drove to Paulding, Ohio, where they spent some time with Mrs. Julia Williams, an aunt.

Kappa Alpha Psi met Wednesday evening at the Supreme Life building.

Mrs. J. A. Beauchamp of Memphis, Tenn., is spending several day in this city with her husband before going on to Kansas City.

The White Rose Social club was guest of James Hynes of Braxter Campbell Ct. on Wednesday evening.

Miss Dorothy Gross entertained at dinner on Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Dorothy Chavis. Covers were laid for eight.

Mrs. Receda Berry Payne, a domestic science teacher at Jackson school, chaperoned three of her cooking classes to attend the Kroger cooking school at Music hall.

The Nobility Seven met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Myra Brown Jones of Beresford Ave. after luncheon and the customary rounds of cards it was found that lady luck had favored the following: Mrs. Marion Griffith, Miss Amelda Scott, club members, and Mesdames Vera Brown and Eutha Payne; Misses Mary Chinnault, Grace Payne and Bernice Dale were guests; Mrs. Payne carried off guest honors.

Mrs. and Mrs. Howard Jones of Kerper Ave. are visiting in New York City.

"Twill Do Bridge club met with Miss Mary Jones.

Mrs. Gertrude Franklin was hostess to the L. M. I. Federated club Thursday at the home of Mrs. Grandison in O'Brienville; covers were laid for 14 at luncheon. Mrs. Sumpter rendered a musical number and Rev. Wilber Page spoke.

The fifth anniversary of the B. Y. C. (Best Yet club) was celebrated Thursday evening with a banquet given in honor of the parents of B. Y. C. members; covers were laid for 52 persons; short talks by the parents were followed by bridge, whist and dancing; the affair was held at the home of the Jamison's in Madisonville.

The Postal Employee's auxiliary met Friday at the home of Mrs. Bertha Jordon on Beecher St. for a business meeting.

Mrs. Rosa Frya Madison is still confined with an infected foot.

Modern Dames were entertained Friday at the home of Mrs. Irene Hicks, hostess; prizes were won by Miss Edna Buchner, first; Mrs. Dora Goodlet, second, and Mrs. Christina Crawford, third.

Miss Margaret Palmer had as visitors from Dayton, Ohio, Dr. and Mrs. Taylor and Misses Gladys Hickerson, Margaret Roe and Margarite Jefferson.

The Ivy Leaf of Wilberforce and the Ivy Leaf of Cincinnati were ushers on Friday night at the presentation of "Charm" by Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority at Wilson Memorial auditorium. Pre-Pons gave a midnight frolic at the Crystal dansant in compliment to A. K. A. after the play.

Mrs. Hazel Alexander of Indianapolis was the guest of Mrs. Mary Morning.

After the Pre-Pons dance Miss Ruth Alston gave a breakfast at her home in compliment to her week-end guests Misses Louise Elfe, Marie Jackson, Evelyn Lee, Ellen Frances Talbert and Dick Rogers, Leo Dabney, William Riles and Van Jenkins.

Mrs. Mary Graham Coats of Lincoln Ter. gave a benefit dinner at Washington Terrace hall Saturday for the benefit of the Pilgrim Baptist church of which she is a member.

Mrs. Blanche Belisinger entertained the U. C. Twelve and guests Saturday at the Louise Inn on Lincoln Ave. There were 12 tables of persons to enjoy this breakfast bridge party; guests, who were requested to wear cotton frocks, included Mrs. Ethel Callman, who won the award for wearing the prettiest frock; Mrs. Zenobia Russel, Miss Ruth Alston, Miss Beatrice Taylor and Mrs. Receda Payne. The guest award was captured by Mrs. Ethel Callman; club prizes were won by Mesdames Maude Hagan and La Verne Hays.

Delta Sigma Theta sorority met at Douglass Community house Saturday.

The 9:30 Bridge club was entertained Saturday by Miss Marie Winsom of Hotel Stehling.

Miss Jennie Austin entertained her guests from Indianapolis at a party at Cotton club, followed by a house party, Saturday night.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Johnson of Fredonia Ave. was christened Harold Leslie Sunday by Rev. T. D. Scott of Brown's Chapel A. M. E. church.

Mrs. Etta Graham, evangelist from Louisville, Ky., has been conducting services at Brown's Chapel A. M. E. church during the past week.

James Arcle, popular young Chicagoan, was here to spend Sunday with Miss Mary Copening, formerly of the Windy City.

Mrs. Elsie Hackney left Sunday for a visit in Millersburg, Ky.

Alpha Phi Alpha had a program and oratorical contest Sunday at Allen's Temple A. M. E. church.

Midnight Ramblers met Saturday night, guests of John Wrenn on W. Seventh St. Mrs. Humphry and Harry Washington were guests of the evening; prizes were awarded Mrs. Alma Shelton, Mrs. Louise Wrenn and consolation to Mrs. Julietta Donahue.

The Y. W. C. A. Girl Reserves had a mother and daughter's program on Sunday afternoon at Union Baptist church. A reception and tea followed the program.

On Saturday afternoon Miss Marlon Shivers gave a miscellaneous shower for Miss Elsie Oliver.

Mrs. Lenora Bradley left Sunday for Chicago to attend the World's Fair.

Miss Guendolun Banks, it is reported, is to be married to Hayward Smith of Louisville on June 10; it is said the couple plan to make their home in Louisville.

Jolly Jokers will give a farewell dance at the Manse hotel June 10 for Joe Bonner Jr., who will leave for camp with the National guards.

Valley News

The meeting of the Wyoming Home forum last Sunday at the home of Emmett Coleman was addressed by George B. Hayes of Cincinnati; there were some 20 members present.

The mother, daughter and father, son banquet at Mt. Zion Baptist church on Tuesday evening was a very enjoyable affair.

A breakfast was given Sunday at the Maple St. Christian church.

Tennis courts at the Lockland Y. M. C. A. are in excellent condition, all ready for use.

Eddie Roe Ray is confined at the branch hospital.

Miss Pauline Johnson graduated from Lincoln high school in Middlesborough, Ky., Tuesday; she is the niece of Mrs. Thelma Phillips.

The Spade, Heart, Diamond, Club, winners of the 1932 championship bridge trophy, conducted a bridge tournament Thursday at the Washington Terrace hall, Walnut Hills, to determine the 1933 championship; active workers for the affair were Mrs. Catherine Faulkner and Mrs. Thelma Phillips. The winners for 1933 is the Trouble T club with the "Twill Do club runner up, missing the championship score by only 100 points.

The annual father and son banquet at the Lockland "Y" was held Thursday evening; a unique program and an excellent menu were provided.

Onah Spencer, former columnist for the Social Register of Atlanta, Ga., and well-known in the valley, is author of the sensational song hit "Hoboes Can't Ride This Train," featured by Louis Armstrong's orchestra.

Civic Welfare Association

Mr. Beauchamp, a field worker for the National Boy Scout movement, has been in Cincinnati for several weeks in connection with organization of the movement among our boys. A total of 23 troops have been organized under the auspices of the Negro Civic Welfare association.

A number of baseball teams have been started by the Civic Welfare association and have been entered in the City Baseball league.

A sewing barter unit which was organized some weeks ago, is giving work to six women in making dresses for the unemployed. To date more than 300 dresses have been made by this group.