

CINCINNATI NEWS

By MARION M. HUBBARD
4 Lincoln Terrace

CINCINNATI, Ohio, May 25. — On Wednesday afternoon, May 2, at 2:15 o'clock a tree planting program and memorial service for the late Councilman F. A. B. Hall was held on the lawn of Douglass school at Chapel St. and Alms Pl. The tree was planted by the class of 1934.

Having recuperated from a recent illness, Dr. Charles Horner of Newport, Ky., went to Chicago, Ill., to spend some time with his sisters there.

The O. D. T.'s met last with Mrs. Nona McDowell in Price Hill. Prizes were won by Mmes. Irene Moore, Elsie Hackney and Essie Ramsauer.

Mrs. Emma Horner, popular society matron of Greater Cincinnati, spent a most enjoyable Sunday as guest of Mrs. Margarite Ishy Duncan, Misses Althea Chapman and Dorothy Early on last Sunday afternoon.

Wednesday, May 2, funeral services were held at Holy Trinity Cathedral on W. Fifth St. for the late Robert McMahanaged, 26 years old, who passed out of this life suddenly, due to heart disease after a prolonged illness. Surviving are his mother, Mrs. Mary McMahan; three sisters, Mmes. Lenora Bradley, Laura Arnold and Helen Chinault, and two brothers, Fred and Orville, and other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Charles Horner of Newport is now residing at 938 Richmond St. in Cincinnati.

Mrs. Pearl Marie French went to the General hospital last Thursday.

The St. John lodge of the F. and A. M. met at the Masonic temple on W. Sixth St. Friday evening.

Dinner-Bridge Party

Saturday Mrs. Eugene Simms entertained at a dinner bridge party all the hostesses to her prenuptials whom she had not yet entertained. They were Mmes. Louise Minus, John Savage, Lumt Nichols, Daisy Hall, Laura Troy Knight, A. Lee Beaty, Helen Walker King and Miss Helen Greer.

Mrs. Lucille Deal was ill for several days.

On Wednesday Mrs. Ann Boyd was hostess to the Rose Marie Bridge club, whom she entertained at the home of Mrs. Mary Finlay. The escorts of the young women were guests of the evening. Prizes were won by Miss Beatrice Taylor, Mrs. Eugene Simms and Messrs. Gaines and Lawrence Finlay.

Le Bon Temps were Mrs. Marion M. Hubbard's guests on Wednesday evening. Mmes. Carlos Rodriguez and Francis Givens were also guests of the hostess. Prizes were won by Mmes. Irene Robbins, Pearl Marie French and Mrs. Francis Givens.

A bridge-dinner party honoring her house guest, Miss Elizabeth Mitchell, of Indianapolis, Ind., was given at her home on Beresford Ave. by Mrs. Lumt Nichols on Wednesday. The guests were Miss Marion Ritchie, first prize winner; Mrs. Margaret Bowen, second prize; Mrs. Myrtle Richardson, Virginia Kalfus, Margaret Williams, Martha Bishop, Camille Cole, Mayme Knight, Ann Davidson, Margaret Palmer, Mrs. Eugene Simms.

The Dorcus Relief society met at the home for aged Colored women on Lincoln Ave. on Thursday afternoon. Rev. C. Baker Pearle conducted the installation of officers.

Mrs. W. A. Collins and her daughter, Mildred, of Avondale, have returned home from Pittsburgh, Pa., where they attended the funeral services of a relative, who passed away at his home in Portfield Ave. after a brief illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Haword Hall entertained the Suburbanites last Friday evening. The club prizes were awarded Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howard, Mrs. R. B. Woodford. Guest award went to Mrs. Mae Duncan.

Jack Arnold, son of Rev. and Mrs. Frank Arnold, in Madisonville, is being commended for his excellent scholarship this year at the West Virginia Institute.

Webb Art club met at the Women's clubhouse on Chapel St. on last Friday.

Mrs. Elsie Hackney returned from Millersburg, Ky., on Friday afternoon, after a week's rest there.

Chatter Bridge club was guest Saturday of Miss Cynthia Jackson. A birthday handkerchief show was given for Mrs. Laura K. Turner. Prizes were awarded Mmes. Camille Cole, Henrietta Keith and Virginia Jones. Club prizes went to Attorney Elsie Austin and Helen Kerr.

Persons. Tuesday the party started their return motoring to Cleveland.

The Artists guild held a very interesting meeting last Monday evening. Among the Cincinnatians who spent Saturday in Louisville at the Kentucky Derby were Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. L. Jones and sons, Paul Jones and Dr. Kenneth Jones; Dr. and Mrs. N. C. Vaughn, Drs. L. L. Hubbard, L. R. Breedlove, L. E. Payne, Messrs. John Billings, John Clowers, Misses Mayme Shaw and Mary Margaret Fraternan.

William J. Palmer of Sedamsville is much improved.

Mrs. Alma Palmer of Madisonville has returned from a short stay in Pennsylvania.

Miss Margaret Palmer was hostess to the Omicron chapter A. K. A. luncheon-bridge at the Hotel Manse on Saturday.

Attend Derby

Mrs. Lenora Bradley and her house-guests here from Cleveland spent the week-end in Louisville attending the Kentucky Derby. The visitors were Miss Mable West, Mr. and Mrs. Leland French, Dr. Florence White, Miss Edna Long and Ralph Jewel. Returning here Sunday the party were guests Sunday evening of Miss Martha Williams and Mrs. Lenora Bradley at a buffet supper.

Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tate of Stanton Ave. entertained at an elaborate dinner party at her home. Covers were laid for 10 in the home of its secretary, Spaulding Dickerson, 6306 Chandler St., in Madisonville. At this meeting plans were launched to give a combined recital and art exhibition in the fall. Mrs. Loretta Mangrum, widely known organist of Union Baptist church, was admitted to membership in the guild.

Mrs. Catherine Bronston of Madisonville was hostess to the Non Parielles on Monday. Prizes for club members were won as follows: Mrs. Martha Seymour, Mrs. Alma Palmer and Mrs. Lula Anderson, consolation. Guests other than club members were Mrs. Ann Stewart, first prize winner; Mrs. Inez Leak, second, and Mrs. Gertrude Ingram, consolation, and Mrs. Areda Tolliver and Victorine Dickerson.

Mrs. Dent of Fredonia Ave. is confined at the Cincinnati General hospital.

The Olive Leaf society was entertained at the home of Mrs. Martha Kirkpatrick, hostess, on Monday evening.

Mrs. David D. Fuller is convalescing from a recent illness.

Brown's Chapel A. M. E. church Missionary society met at the church on Monday. Mrs. Bertha Frye was elected delegate to attend the convention in Columbus in June.

Tuesday Linwood Greene, husband of Mrs. Margaret Greene, of Weltner St., Madisonville, was seriously injured last week when he fell from a scaffold. He is now confined at the Bethesda hospital.

Mrs. Henrietta Harris is home from the hospital after several weeks confinement with scarlet fever.

Just for Fun club was entertained by Mrs. Ruby Embry on Tuesday night. Prizes were won by Mmes. Bessie Robinson, Lacy B. Braden and Mable Embry.

Mrs. Sarilda Clayburne of College Hill was hostess to the Lucky Seven on Wednesday.

Mrs. Esther Oxley, wife of Rev. Oxley of St. Andrew Episcopal church, is still very ill.

So Re Lite were guests Wednesday of Miss Rosa McIntee, who entertained at the Brown Chapel A. M. E. on Chapel St.

Wednesday Mrs. Luella Harris returned to Buffalo, N. Y., after a pleasant visit here.

Bertha Sparks is home from the Evangeline Booth hospital, where she underwent an operation.

Thursday morning the inmates of the home for aged women on Lincoln Ave. were escorted by Mmes. Bertha Frye and Lottie Morgan, trustees, and hiked over the Victory Blvd. at 5 a. m.

The White Rose Social club was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Shaeffer of Lockland on last Thursday evening.

It is reported that Mrs. Lumt Nichols had as house guest last week Mrs. Eva Nichols Wright of Washington. D. C., who attended the funeral of an aunt at Xenia, Ohio, and now had returned to Washington.

The employment committee met at the Y. W. on Thursday at 1 o'clock. Mrs. Nannie Saunders, chairman, presided.

Dr. Jennie D. Porter is confined at her home because of illness. It is reported.

The Wheel of Progress club was entertained at the Hotel Manse on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Annie J. Rankins.

Miss Hazel Jean Lucas is very ill at this writing, it is said.

Ball club of Kenyon Ave. Christian church was guest of Mrs. Nora Boston, 613 Richmond St., on Thursday.

Tom Ford is now well again and able to be back in his position.

"Defense Dance"

Mrs. Camille Cole, popular public school teacher, sponsored a "defense dance" Friday night at the Cotton Club for the benefit of the Scott Legal Fund for Anti-lynching at Hazard, Ky. Financially, much success is reported.

L. M. J. Federated club met Thursday at the clubhouse as guest of Mrs. Pearl Lane.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown have moved from Millersburg and now are making their home in Cincinnati on Gilbert Ave.

The Collegians sponsored a dance at Palm Grove Friday night.

Mrs. Francis Givens spent a most enjoyable week-end in Middlesborough, Ky., with her daughter, Dorothy.

Saturday night the Fireside Book club was guest of Mrs. Lillian Foster of Stanton Ave.

Miss Mae Doe, who has been ill during the past 10 days, is convalescing.

Blanche Calloway and her orchestra were featured at the Cotton Club on Saturday and Sunday nights.

Mrs. Estill Warren of Covington, Ky., spent Sunday with Mrs. Elsie Hackney at 3004 Gilbert Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Hunter Jr., son of Dr. Hunter of Lexington, Ky., were Sunday guests of Rev. and Mrs. Arnold in Madisonville.

The Postal Employees alliance met on Sunday at the Federated clubhouse.

All old persons, shut-ins, inmates of institutions housing the aged were carried to First Baptist church Mother's day, where they were treated to dinner and a program. The inmates of the county infirmary were each given a pound of sugar, candy and a slice of the club's anniversary cake. That is the eighth anniversary of the Mother's day activity of this organization. The old folks were furnished transportation.

Julia Rice club of Union Baptist church was hostess Sunday afternoon to a silver-tee at the Women's Federated clubhouse on Chapel St.

Tuesday evening the Southern Ohio Valley Dental association met with Dr. T. J. Banks, host, at his apartment in the Hotel Sterling.

On Mother's day, May 13, at 8 p. m. at Brown Chapel on Alms Pl., Helen Jones Hiles of the Ohio emergency school will present her pupils in recital. Two of the numbers on the program will be compositions of Mrs. Hiles. There will be two guest speakers, Evangelist Margaret Peak, a pupil, and Miss Miriam Walker, executive secretary of the committee on opportunities. Please be seated early.

Launch Membership Drive

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People launched its annual membership campaign with a mass meeting which will be held at Calvary M. E. church Sunday afternoon. The principal speaker will be LeRoy Bundy of Cleveland, Ohio. Mr. Bundy is a member of the city council of Cleveland and is chairman of the public utilities commission. Various civic and religious organizations co-operated in the drive. Miss Elsie Austin and William H. Lovelace served as co-chairmen of the effort. Judge T. H. Darby donated a loving cup which he presented to the representative of the organization which secures the largest number of members. Dates of the campaign were April 29 to May 13. T. N. Berry, president of the organization, stated that headquarters of the campaign were located at 413 W. Fifth St.

Organize Mothers Club

Following a meeting held Sunday afternoon, Mrs. Mary Wilson, president of the Ninth St. Y. M. C. A. ladies auxiliary, stated that mothers of the boys who belong to the Y. M. C. A. had formed a Mothers club, the purpose being to co-operate with the boys work staff in making the program of the department more effective. The officers of the club are Mrs. Carrie Humphrey, president; Mrs. Lucille Fisher, vice president; Mrs. Mattie O. Vinegar, secretary; Mrs. Martha Whiteside, treasurer.

The Fifth Sunday club of the Ninth St. Y. M. C. A. was the guest of Michael Robinson last Sunday afternoon. Following the meeting Dr. W. T. Nelson, chairman, called upon Attorney William B. Bush, who presented a carefully prepared statement in which he analyzed the Y. M. C. A. program, pointing out its strength and weaknesses. Copies of the address were given to each member. Further study of the subject will be made at the next meeting.

Boy Scouts

Through the kindness of Powell Crosley Jr., president of the Crosley Radio corporation of Cincinnati, the Boy Scouts of troop No. 315 sponsored by the St. John A. M. E. Zion church on Barr and Mound Sts. have again been invited to visit the studios of WLW, the Nation's Station. After inspecting the Crosley studios, the Scouts will also witness an actual broadcast of the Crosley Pollies, which will be broadcast Friday evening while the Scouts are in the main studio. Scoutmaster Leon Phillips urges every Scout of Troop No. 315 to attend. Monday evening the regular Scout meeting will be held in our main Scout hall in the St. John A. M. E. Zion church and on Friday the patrols will meet in the Brown Chapel A. M. E. church on Alms Pl.