

'Peace' Debate At Gary Church

GARY, Ind. — The First AME church, Twentieth and Massachusetts, was the scene of an interesting debate last Thursday night, sponsored by the Alaine Locke Literary society.

The subject of the debate was "Resolved That Negroes Should Sit at the Peace Table." The affirmative side was taken by Atty. Harry H. Schell and Grady Murdoch, while the negative was upheld by Dr. L. B. Johnson and Mrs. Theresa Patton. The judges were Atty. Milo Murray, Al Thomas of the Delaney project and Al Brown, Roosevelt school social science teacher. Mrs. Geneva Murray presided and Mrs. Sara Gray was timekeeper.

Music was provided by Miss Flaustina Fredericks, church organist. The debate was won by the negative side. The Alaine Locke Literary Society is sponsored by Charles H. Bonner, social science teacher of Roosevelt high school.
