

CINCINNATI NEWS

Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 25.—Last June Miss Elsie Austin graduated from high school at the early age of 16 years. This year she entered the University of Cincinnati and because of her extra credits in Spanish and French she received advanced standing. Miss Austin is the first girl to receive advance standing at the University of Cincinnati. Miss Austin has the distinction of being the first girl to elect the Phi Chi Omega society. She is also a member of the Pyramid club, an applicant to the Delta Sigma Theta sorority. As a reward for her good work her aunt, Miss Jennie Austin, has given her a scholarship. The Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity entertained in honor of the new students at the University of Cincinnati and the new teachers of Stow and Douglass schools. A large number were present and everybody enjoyed the same. The Delta Sigma Theta sorority entertained at the University of Cincinnati. Dr. Gordon Jackson, W. P. Oliver, and Lidert Lezana of Chicago, Messrs. Malone and Mitchell of St. Louis and Dr. L. A. Cornish will soon leave for Washington, D. C. The Wilberforce club made its first appearance in the city at Brown's chapel Sunday afternoon, rendering a delightful program. Mr. and Mrs. F. Tome have as their guest Mrs. Harry Thompson of Dayton, Ohio, who is receiving many social favors from their friends. F. E. Smith of Cincinnati has returned from Charleston, W. Va. where he went to pay the last tribute of respect to his sister, Mrs. Frankie C. Harris. Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Ellison, Thurman Ellison, Miss Julia Butler and Miss Elsie Blackburn spent Sunday in Indianapolis, Ind., with friends. Mrs. Julia Sanders of Pittsburgh spent three weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Richards of Foraker Ave. Mr. and Mrs. Miller of Lockland entertained at home. Dr. Gordon Jackson of Wilberforce university with a delightful luncheon Sunday afternoon. Miss Rebecca Ross is at home after spending five weeks in Lexington, Ky. Pinky Johnson of Georgetown, Ky., is visiting her son, James Johnson. Carnation Embroidery club No. 1 had a reception at Bethel church last Thursday. The Ideal Art club met with Mrs. S. Wilkerson of Cincinnati, Ohio. Mrs. Charles Howard, Miss Medley and Miss Richardson were guests. Miss Azalia Brown entertained at home last Saturday afternoon. Garrett Diggs was called to Dayton, Ohio, on account of his sister's illness. Miss Roxie Miller of Madisonville is attending school here. Mr. and Mrs. William McQueen and son are visiting in Cynthia, Ky. Mrs. Lizzie Mae Buckner of Detroit is visiting her husband, William Buckner. Miss Lula Robinson and Harry DePolo were married recently. Mr. and Mrs. Chattle Ross of Lexington are guests of Miss E. Livingston. Miss Eva Gaines has returned from Oakland, Calif., after graduating from Technical high school of that city. Mrs. R. A. Fowler of Kerper Ave. has returned from her visit to relatives and friends in Louisiana, Alabama, Georgia, Tennessee and Kentucky. Dr. Gordon Jackson returned to Chicago Wednesday. He and friends were guests of Mrs. Edith Miller, who entertained them elaborately Tuesday evening. The visitors present were Dr. Jackson, George Gilson, Dr. L. A. Cornish and Dr. P. O. Oliver of Chicago. Henry Higgins had as dinner guests Monday night at the Crescent club Dr. G. Jackson, Mr. Oliver, Dr. Lezana and W. P. Dainey. Everyone had an enjoyable time. The Orpheus Mixed quartet furnished an excellent program Sunday at the Y. M. C. A. branch at Lockland, Ohio. Mrs. Lillian Silieus, lyric soprano and soloist; Miss Mary Fairfax, contralto; Charles H. Kelly, tenor; Martin Van Roberts, bass; Prof. Charles E. Froiter, baritone; and Roy J. Adams, bass. Adams has been turned over his congregation to serve his ninth year. Mrs. Lucy E. White has moved to Foraker Ave. Among the multitude of social engagements given in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Cornish, who will leave this week to reside in Washington, none stands forth more brilliantly than the reception tendered them Sunday by the Misses Ray at Dr. Schooley's residence. Earl Steward post No. 127 paid a grand tribute to Dr. L. A. Cornish. Miss Clara Nestin and Miss Flowers of the Y. M. C. A. of Sandusky, N. Y., were guests.

Tuesday evening the membership committee, under direction of Miss Lila D. Rickman, chairman, launched the membership drive at a beautifully appointed luncheon. The house girls organized their club for the coming year and elected the following officers: President, Mrs. Eva Washington; vice president, Miss Laura Burrs; secretary, Mrs. Mabel McHugh; corresponding secretary, Miss Willie E. Brummitt; treasurer, Miss Minnie Hall; chairman, program committee, Mrs. M. B. Little. Twenty minutes of the club hour will be devoted to Bible study, using their textbook, "The Meaning of Prayer." Thirty minutes will be devoted to needlework.

What promises to be one of the outstanding fall activities of the West end branch will be the harvest home festival Nov. 6 and 7, sponsored by the industrial committee. Special programs are being arranged with prominent speakers of the business and industrial world for both evenings. These speakers will be supported by the best talent of the business and industrial world for both evenings. These speakers will be supported by the best talent of the business and industrial clubs. Several attractive booths with the ingathering of the harvest season will be on display. Fine arts, modes in dressmaking and millinery of today and yesterday will be elaborately featured. The colored industries of the city where colored women employ their talents on exhibition garments made by young women. B. H. Baker was the speaker Thursday evening at the citizenship meeting held under the community study committee. Mrs. Addie Richardson chairman. The group present was much interested and pledged themselves to register as large a number of women with whom they could get in touch. Out-of-town guests in the residence: Misses Glazer Allen and Verna Leonard of Galesburg, Ill. Out-of-town visitors to the building: Mrs. Nannie Arthur of Richmond, Ky., and Miss Anna Swenson of Cleveland, Ohio.

Monday, Oct. 13, the Earl Stewart post No. 128, the American Legion at their clubroom gave Dr. L. A. Cornish, who has been treasurer of the post for the past five years and one of its most members, a reception. A splendid musical program was rendered and a sumptuous repast served. The vast commander emblem was given him. Speeches were made by Commander J. H. Allen, Adjt. J. E. Lacey, Dr. R. E. Beamon and F. T. Layton. Dr. Cornish made a fitting reply.

Lewis Pettiford died at his home Saturday evening. The Woman's Culture club will give a Halloween social Thursday evening, Oct. 30, at the home of Mrs. Roy Kendall. Miss Ruth Guy is sick at her home, Madison Ave. Mrs. Ollie is sick at her home, Riverside Drive. Rev. E. L. Liggins after a successful year here, leaves Tuesday for conference. Joseph Gilmore gave a radio party last week. Philomathean club met with Mrs. R. C. French. Miss. Dorothy Friedlich of Middletown spent the week end here. Mr. and Mrs. Mell Friedlich and family have moved into their new home at W. Forest. Speaks of Springfield was a Pluon visitor last week. Mrs. Mary Ann Smith and her family spent the week end at the home of Mrs. J. W. Smith.

son, Ohio. Isaac Checks has returned from Kittery Point, Me., where he spent the summer. Mr. and Mrs. David H. Smith, of the Peck & Zander Co., are attending a conference. The Rev. Mr. Norris and William Mitchell spent a day at the institute in Springfield, Ohio. Mrs. Isabel Pecks and sister of Springfield spent a day with their mother, Mrs. Ida Davis. The pageant given by the B. Y. P. U. of Park Avenue church was very good. Mrs. John Rogers of Detroit, Mich., visited her mother last week.

MASSILLON, OHIO—The Young men's circle of the Friendship Baptist church presented their church a communion set. Miss Frances Higgins of 329 W. Tremont St. left Tuesday for Pittsburgh to spend several days with friends. Rev. Richardson and family of 205 N. West St. moved to Cleveland, where he takes his new charge. Mr. and Mrs. E. Tucker of Warwick St. have returned home after attending a family reunion in Xenia, Ohio. Mrs. Chapman and daughter of Newcomertown are now in Xenia here. Mrs. C. Call of N. Lincoln Ave. has returned home after a business trip to Cincinnati. Miss Wilma Hood has returned home after spending the summer on her vacation in Michigan. Mrs. Jack Robinson and children are visiting her husband in Oberlin, where he has been ill for sev-

Joseph C. Thomas of Columbus delivered a talk Friday night to a packed house at the Shiloh Baptist church. Oct. 17 Mr. and Mrs. Evans and his mother motored to Newcomerstown. The entertainment given by the Missionary society of the Shiloh Baptist church Monday night was successful. The society bestowed honors upon Mrs. Clara Acklin and Mrs. B. Ivory, who were faithful.

club met at the home of Mrs. Lelia Cannon, 1517 Kent St., Tuesday evening. After business a delicious lunch was served. The next club will meet at the home of Mrs. Clara Acklin, 205 W. South St., on the regular meeting day. Mrs. Birdie Barkley and Mrs. C. W. Weaver spent the evening with Mrs. Beulah J. Parker, where they held the first meeting of the True Blue society. Mrs. Jas. Meyers of N. Hill St., and Mary E. Bowman of N. West St., motored with Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay of N. Summit St. to Beloit and visited Mr. and Mrs. Towns. Mrs. E. Allen of 211 North St. have returned from the East. Mrs. Allen left for Pittsburgh to attend the Walls family reunion, where she met many friends and relatives. Miss Nettie Bell of Midland, Pa. is visiting her sister, Mrs. Harry Bonds of S. Erie St. Rev. W. Blackwell of Chicago, presiding elder, is here on business. He is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. I. V. Higgins of W. Tremont St. Rev. and Mrs. T. W. Mills are in Massillon this week on business. Rev. Mills was on the program Friday night at a mass meeting at Shiloh Baptist church. He made an interesting talk.

The Thursday afternoon club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Thursday by Mrs. William Brooks, Mrs. Veda Brown and Mrs. Clara Valentine. After a short business session an excellent program was rendered. After the program refreshments were served by the hostesses, assisted by Miss Ethel Dudley and Miss Pauline Farmer. Additional guests were Mrs. Anna Steinberger, Mrs. Virginia Jones, Miss Caroling, Mrs. Virginia Fulton, Mrs. Anne Wilson, Mrs. Susan Williams, Mrs. Stella Johnson, Mrs. Cyrena Dickerson, Mrs. Emma Guy, Mrs. F. Williams, Mrs. Petty Williams and Mrs. Forest Stanhope of Springfield, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilkes and daughter, Miss Malcolm Wilkes, spent last Sunday in Springfield at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Jordan, Sherman Hospital of Cleveland and a good time was had. Mrs. Fletcher, Misses Henrietta and Mary Johnson, Miss Frederica Brown of Columbus, Miss Phyllis Fletcher, Miss Christina Barrett, Miss Elizabeth Cleveland and Donald Barrett, Orville Brown, Norman Adams and Melwood Stanhope motored to St. Paris Sunday afternoon, where they spent the evening at the home of Mrs. Amanda Carey and Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox. They spent Sunday and Monday in Springfield and Franklin. While in Franklin they attended the funeral of Mrs. Frank Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pettiford of Muttonsville, Ind., motored to this city Saturday evening and spent Sunday with the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Gilson and family. Harold Jennings and Lester Monroe spent the week-end in Toledo. Mrs. Williams a party given by the Sorority Friday evening. Mrs. Bertha Tye of Chicago is visiting relatives in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dole and family and Mrs. Annabel Williams and sons spent Sunday in Bellefontaine with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whetsel and Mrs. Emma Bass. Miss Virginia Harrison spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Mallice Harrison. Miss Virginia Fletcher, Miss Phyllis Fletcher and Edwin Barrett, Miss Phyllis Fletcher, Miss Elizabeth Cleveland and Melwood Stanhope motored to Columbus Saturday afternoon. The Thursday Afternoon Federation club met at the home of Mrs. Kate Dudley. After the business session refreshments were served. Additional guests for the day were Mrs. Anna Steinberger, Mrs. Louise Hawkins, Mrs. Frances Williams, Mrs. B. Brown and Mrs. Williams. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Cleveland entertained the members of the C. C. club in a very pleasant way Friday afternoon at her home on E. Ward St., Mrs. Cleveland, assisted by her daughters, Harriet and Elizabeth, served delicious refreshments. Additional guests were Mrs. Joseph Scott, Mrs. Darling Strawther, Mrs. Gibson, Mrs. L. Sane, Mrs. W. Fletcher and Mrs. L. Dale, Mrs. W. John Clay and Mme. Taylor of Chicago. Mrs. Johnson of Springfield spent Tuesday evening in Springfield. Homer Slaughter and Casper Smith motored to Columbus last Saturday to take in the Purdue-Ohio football game. Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Green and children of Columbus spent Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Green. John Brown and Mr. Martin of Cleveland spent Sunday in Troy. Mrs. J. Williams, Mrs. William Andrews and Homer Slaughter, Mrs. Keren Hill met with a painful accident recently, but is now slowly improving. Kirk Williams is on the sick list. Mrs. Jesse Steward was a Saturday afternoon guest of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Cleveland.

Mrs. Goshaway Golins of Detroit is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Washington Armfield. Mrs. Sallie Clark entertained the Sunshine club in a delightful fashion Thursday evening. The Washington society, led by Rick and Bessie Burckett met at the home of Mrs. Hattie Waugh Wednesday afternoon. The C. C. club was entertained Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Isaac Adams. Mrs. John Brown left Sunday evening for Washington for an indefinite stay. She has accepted a clerical position in the war department. Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Adams will leave soon for Portsmouth to spend the winter with their daughter and her husband. Mrs. John Logan of Springfield and Mrs. Stella Rickman Davis of Cincinnati were here Friday on business. Thomas Wright of Springfield spent Friday evening in Dayton. Alfred Boyd and Miss Edith Chavis were called to Lima on account of the illness of Mrs. Rose Cook. Mrs. Susie Hall and daughters and son spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Armstead. Mrs. Watson Fletcher spent Saturday evening and Sunday in Xenia with friends. Wm. Jackson of Dayton was here Saturday evening. Mrs. Minnie Guy, Edgar Boyd and Henry Boyd attended the funeral of Mrs. Rose Cook in Lima. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Walker and Mrs. Tina Smith of Springfield saw the air races at Dayton Friday. Miss Virginia Harrison of Cincinnati spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. Mallice Harrison. Harold Deed of Kenton is visiting relatives. The following were sick last week: Miss Ethel Kennedy, Mrs. Robinson, William Stilgas, Mrs. Laura Lancaster and daughter Laura Evelyn, Miss Ida Louise Dale and Miss Gertrude Becks. Mrs. Josephine Barrett was called to the bedside of her husband, Charles Barrett, in Chicago. Ida Ramey and children of Springfield spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Golins and with her mother, Mrs. Beal and Miss Clarabel Golins. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald Hildward of Akron spent two weeks here with relatives.

The Canton Urban league will conduct a city-wide conference at the assembly-room of the Canton Chamber of Commerce Oct. 29. William Williams, executive secretary of the Newark N. J. Urban league; Nimrod B. Allen of the Columbus Urban league and H. Robinson of Cincinnati will be the out-of-town speakers. The committee in charge of the conference consists of the Rev. A. L. Wilson, Miss Augusta DuMont, Otis Gillespie, the Rev. A. E. Allen and George Ake. Local speakers include the following: Judges Bowman and Alva Deal, Safety Director Roberts, Miss Carrick of the city health department, Miss Ross of the juvenile courts and Mrs. Luthy of the Association of Women. Austin Andrews, who enrolled at Wilberforce university at the opening of the school term, has been forced to return to Canton on account of trouble with his eyes, due to overstrain. The Menelik Culture club met at the home of Mrs. Clara Adkins, 1001 S. Market St., Wednesday evening. Plans for the "rainbow dance" which will be given Nov. 25 were completed. The John Bunch Girl Reserves gave an afternoon Halloween party at the Community house Tuesday. The regular governing committees of the B. B. B. club for the following year were appointed: Program—Dr. M. R. Williams, chairman; Otis Gillespie, Albert Smith, Etta Dixon and C. C. Lilly. Social—Johnnie Johnson, chairman; Edward Blalock, G. W. Palmer, George Dandridge and DeWitt Cunningham. Membership—Fred Saunders, chairman; McKinley Shanks, Cleo Smallwood, Robert Hughes and Percy Richardson. Athletics—L. L. Ogden, chairman; Russell Hall and Owen Barnett. The following were elected to membership: Elmer Brice, Sydney Butts, Albert Smith, Roosevelt Weaver, Nathan Doyle, Donas Goins, U. S. Ellis and G. W. Palmer. The first program will be rendered Nov. 5. The Sunshine Girl Reserves gave a halloween party Wednesday afternoon. The Needlework guild committee met at the Community house Wednesday afternoon, with the following ladies present: Mesdames Clementine Evans, Caille Hoffman and Wilma Smith and Miss Stern. The Sem-Fidell club has outlined its program for the year. At the close of the first meeting of each month an outside speaker will appear before the organization.