

TEXAS

By Miss L. A. Shaw

Dallas, Tex., Jan. 9.—Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Shaw, of Birmingham, Ala., spent the Christmas holidays with their parents, Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Shaw, and street. Dr. and Mrs. Shaw, after a successful stay in Birmingham for several years, are moving their drug store to St. Louis, Mo., where they will go into business again after a month's rest. * Miss Irene Postles and Miss Muse of Detroit, Mich., spent the holidays visiting Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Hallum, 2920 State street. * Maynard Jackson of Chicago, Ill., spent the holidays visiting his parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. S. Jackson, 919 Bogel street. * Miss Cavasser Satterwhite of Washington, D. C., who is teaching in Taft, Okla., visited Miss Frederica Chase on Christmas day. * Quite a number of social functions were held during the holidays. On Monday, Dec. 22, Mrs. Hallum received from 8 to 10. Tuesday afternoon Miss D. A. Caldwell on Boll street entertained. Wednesday morning Miss Frances Harris on Flora street served breakfast to a number of young ladies. Wednesday afternoon Miss Beatrice Burson, Munger avenue, gave a clothes pin doll party. Thursday morning Mrs. W. V. Manack of Clark street gave a german. Thursday afternoon Misses Boswell, Cooper, Mason and Williams entertained with a dance at the War Camp Community House. Friday afternoon Miss Lillian Tucker on Carroll avenue served a five course luncheon. Miss Tucker gave calendars with her own hand painting as souvenirs. Friday night Miss Frederica Chase gave a party. Saturday Miss Eva Weems of Flora street gave a card party from 3 to 5. Miss L. A. Shaw received at her home, 1717 Hall street, from 6 to 8. Mrs. C. J. Island, State street, entertained from 9 to 12. Monday night Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Smith received from 8:30 to 12. Tuesday night the Priscilla Art club entertained at the War Camp Community House. On Thursday, New Year's day, a party of twenty made a trip to Fort Worth, where they were delightfully entertained with a four course dinner at the home of Miss Edwards on Alston avenue. A dinner dance was had by the Kolonial club at Gilton hall. * Mrs. S. C. White of Roseland avenue received from 6 to 9. * Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Morgan, Thomas avenue, entertained from 9 to 1. * John A. Davis and Dwain Mason, two young men of Dallas who are studying law at Howard, were in the city for a few hours during the holidays, to visit parents and friends. On his way home Mr. Davis stopped in St. Louis with his friend, Walter Hill Jr., and was entertained by Dr. Hardeman and Mrs. W. S. Gordon of St. Louis.

Elizabeth Chapel, Oak Cliff

G. L. Boswell had charge of the Sunday school. At 11 a. m. the pastor, Rev. G. H. Harilee, D. D., preached an interesting sermon. Epworth league was held at 6:30. Rev. Hutchinson preached a good sermon at 7:30. The board meeting was held Monday night. Watch meeting was held Wednesday night. * All the friends of Miss Aurora Boswell will be pleased to hear of her marriage to V. L. Perry of Oklahoma. * Mrs. G. L. Boswell accompanied the body of Mrs. Annie Nelson to Anniston, Ala., for burial on last Thursday.

Macedonia Baptist Church

On Jan. 1 an emancipation celebration was held under the auspices of the Baptist Ministers' association of Dallas and vicinity. An appropriate program was rendered and Hon. Considen H. Jenkins of Kansas City, Kan., delivered an address on "The Marching Order." Rev. E. Arlington Wilson is pastor.

Church of God

A convention whose main object is to build a widows and orphan's home, for which land has already been purchased. Delegates were in the city from Arkansas, Tennessee, Louisiana,

Oklahoma and Texas. Twelve persons joined the church and two ministers were ordained, and three were baptized. The sisters raised $76.61 at their afternoon meeting on Sunday. Chief W. M. Christian preached at night. Public receipts, $269.87. Eugene Neely, reporter.

Salem Baptist

Attendance at Sunday school was large, as it was the last Sunday in the old year. 11 o'clock services were of old camp meeting style. Salem visited El Bethel in Oak Cliff in their struggle for a new church. At night Rev. Miles of Mt. Zion, Fort Worth, spoke for us. On Christmas day meeting was held at 5 a. m., when four persons joined and were baptized.

War Camp Community House

On Wednesday a community Christmas tree was held and loads of food and clothing were given out to the poor. Under the management of Madalline Hawkins and other ladies and gentlemen the work was well systematized and more than 100 families were provided for. At night the Y. M. B. L. held festivities. Friday night the Walters' Benevolent association, made up of the young men of the Adolphus, held a banquet. More than 200 were served. * Monday, Dec. 29, the High School Classical club entertained at the Community House.

Lincoln Manor

Rev. G. W. Washington of True Light Baptist church filled his pulpit and Rev. Bailey at Mt. Horeb was at his post. Rev. M. Mosely was on hand at the C. M. E. church. * Little Ben Anderson, son of Henry Anderson, was kicked by a horse owned by F. Burrell. He was sent to the Emergency hospital and later to the Baptist sanitarium, where he is resting very well at this writing. * We were surprised to learn of the death of Mrs. Jewel Hendricks, who died at the Baptist sanitarium Monday night, Dec. 22, of acute indigestion. * Mrs. Addie Williams and Mrs. Georgia Rodgers are ill. * Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jones, a fine girl on Dec. 12. Mother and daughter are doing fine. * A surprise party was given by the people of Lincoln Manor to Mr. and Mrs. Sam Jackson, father and mother of Jim Jefferson and Mrs. Mattie Lee, on Dec. 6. * Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McMiller entertained with a grand Christmas dinner in honor of their relatives and friends, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Hawthorne. * Get a copy of this paper from S. A. Hawthorne and leave all the Lincoln Manor news at his residence.

Y. M. C. A.

J. D. Rice, Y. M. C. A. secretary of the boys' work, makes an excellent report on his work for the year 1919, having a balance on hand for the year of $356.45. * Louis G. Gregory, lecturer of the Bahai movement, is in Dallas at this time and is holding meetings at different churches. * The Miss L. A. Shaw news agency had a Christmas tree for her newsboys, at which time presents were given each and the following received prizes for making the largest number of sales of papers and periodicals: Eugene Neely, first prize; Robert Purdy, second, and Edward Calhoun, third. * Send or mail all news items to the Miss L. A. Shaw news agency, 1717 Hall street, H. 495, and secure a copy of this paper at one of the news stands. The Miss L. A. Shaw news agency wishes to thank the public generally for its support during the past year and pledges itself to better and more efficient service during 1920.

Brenham, Texas, Jan. 9.—Miss Hatlie Jefferson was united in marriage to Milton Mills. There was a host of friends present to witness the occasion. Rev. Wm. Shelton officiated in the absence of Rev. S. W. Ellis. The bride received many beautiful and useful presents. * There was also a quiet wedding in Camptown on East Main street, the contracting parties being Nels Bradford and Miss Ett Moore, the daughter of A. W. Moore. *