EDITOR ABBOTT ADDRESSES LARGE ROCKFORD AUDIENCE

Rockford, Ill., March 2.—Editor Robert S. Abbott, editor and owner of the Chicago Defender, spoke in the Knights of Pythias hall Sunday under the auspices of the Rockford Association of Advancement of Colored People. Mr. Abbott spoke on "Education" and was greeted by a large audience. After the meeting he learned from B. F. Robinson, 1221 Benson street, that there will be lots of work opened to our people after May 1 in this city, but it will be for men, with trades, and with families who intend to come to stay. Mrs. J. M. Doshier, 219 South W. street, caters to 400 shopmen a day in her restaurant and is looking for a man with a wife who can cook.
