

On Thursday evening Zeta Phi Beta sorority, which is made up of a group of popular young women of Greater Cincinnati, were sponsors of a benefit dance at the Cotton Club.

DeHart Hubbard returned from a two weeks' vacation recently.

Mesdames Mayme Johnson and Louisa Noel were responsible for a most enjoyable afternoon for Miss Mea Saunders, of Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Marie Black and Mrs. Florence Bowman were dinner guests of Mrs. Ida Morton, Thursday.

E. T. Atwell was here last week en route to Washington to attend the National Recreation conference.

Miss Mae Saunders returned to her home in Washington, D. C., Saturday after spending more than a month here.

The Artists Guild sponsored an art exhibit and musicale on Friday at Mt. Zion M. E. church.

There was an enjoyable bridge and whist party given by the Colored Women's Club at their club house on Friday.

Miss Montressa Faye Phillips, attractive niece of Dr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Phillips, has returned here from Chicago where she enjoyed a happy stay.

Mrs. Jennie Doll and Thos. Obanion were married last Wednesday at the St. Andrews' Episcopal church. The couple are at home to their friends at Mr. Obanion's home on Blair avenue in Evanston.

Mrs. Fred Warrnack, of Lincoln avenue, was hostess to a party of twelve persons on Monday night, a surprise party for bridge in compliment to her husband's birthday.

The Y. W. C. A. was the scene for a setting up conference on last Saturday. The speakers were Mrs. Lillian Foster, Miss Eva Bowles, Miss Ida Mae Rhodes and Mrs. Sallie Dunlap.

Saturday, Mrs. William Howard and Mrs. Gertrude Wrenn left for a weekend in Cleveland, Ohio, where they were called to the bed side of a cousin, Mrs. Alma Parker, who is very ill.

Le Bon Temps were guests of Mrs. Ora Hill of Orleanville on last Wednesday night. Guests other than the club members included Mesdames Sallie Cheumait, Julia McNorton, Dorra Goodlet, Ruby Embury, and Miss Cheumait. Prizes went to Mesdames Rowena Bell, Pearl French and Irene Robbins. Guest award was captured by Mrs. Julia McNorton.

At a mass meeting sponsored Wednesday evening by the League of Negro Rights and the International Labor Defense, Angelo Herndon, Mrs. Ida B. Norris and Richard B. Moore presented to the large audience at Stowe a plea for the defense of the Scottsboro boys.

Miss Lila Riekman, it is reported, is in Evansville, Ind., at the bedside of her niece, Mrs. Thomas, who is quite ill there.

Friday, Garland Hunter and William Bowen were hosts to the Young Men's Progressive club whom they entertained at the home of Mr. Bowen in Elmwood. After the business session a stag social followed supper.

The Bollean Art club was guest of Mrs. Gussie Bowen on Friday afternoon at her home in Elmwood. After the business meeting, the ladies indulged themselves in an enjoyable afternoon at cards. A tasty repast was served.

Thos. A. Monroe left Saturday for Fort Worth, Texas where he will take up his work.

The Women's Federated clubs sponsored a splendid benefit bridge whist at the club house on Friday evening.

Mrs. Jessie Slater Fillmore returned Saturday from a visit with relatives in the Windy City.

The Optimist club was beautifully entertained on Friday afternoon by Mrs. Cora Townsend hostess. Memorial services were held for the late Mrs. Elizabeth Ward, member who passed away after an operation. After the business session, Mrs. Marion M. Hubbard presented Peter J. McCarthy's qualifications for re-election for consideration of the ladies present; Attorney Theodore M. Berry was speaker of the evening.

Mrs. Clarke and her daughter Mrs. Estelle Wilson of Lincoln Ave. had as their dinner guest Saturday Mrs. Jessie Slater Fillmore, here from New York; houseguest of Mrs. Mailda Hayes.

Robert Duke of 849 Rockdale is out again after a long illness.

Mrs. William Steele of Rockdale Ave. has returned from New Jersey where she has spent quite a little time at the bedside attending her son who has been very ill there.

The Postal Alliance of Federal Employees met at the Federated club house on Sunday afternoon for a business meeting.

Sunday Mrs. Amanda Nelson and Mrs. Clark attended the A. M. E. conference at Dayton, O.

Alfred Hall, a deputy in the office of the Hamilton county sheriff was ill at his home.

The Suburbanites were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hall in Madisonville on last Saturday night. The prizes were awarded R. W. Woodford, Mrs. Phoebe Bullock. The consolation went to Samuel Bullock.

Miss Mable Hall is reported doing as well as is expected.

Midnight Ramblers were guests of Mrs. Beatrice Johnson on Saturday night. Prizes went to Mrs. Phoebe Bullock, Mervin Jackson and Samuel Bullock.

Miss Elsie Austin an attorney here and a most popular young lady is still quite ill confined at her home.

Y. W. C. A. News

The visitors that thronged the Y. W. C. A. on Sunday were delighted with the beauty and cleanliness of the entire building. The handsome tea table where friends lingered to chat shared honors with the artistic display in the assembly room by the Flower Lovers' Study club. The sitting-up conference on Saturday afternoon in the Mahogany Parlors brought together the enthusiastic and interested members of the Y. W. C. A. to discuss and work out plans for the year's activities. An intriguing play built around the life of the Race in Africa, on Southern plantations and in Harlem was presented creditably by the older Y girls on Friday.

Boy Scout News

William W. Collins, assistant Scoutmaster of Troop 215, announced that Sunday would mark the opening of the troop's fall and winter activities. The troop will spend the day at Camp Edgar Friedlander where the Scouts will take part in many out of door activities. A welner roast and pop corn pop is also scheduled and a colorful campaign program will be presented by members of the Panther Patrol.

Tuesday evening, Scout Robt. Green was presented a medal by Scout Executive E. K. Hardin. Scouts Charles Darden, Mack Crawford and Ralph Berelow also received prizes for efficiency. Due to many requests the Scout Review of Troop 315 will again be staged at the Browns Chapel A. M. E. church. For reservations phone AV 7403.

CINCINNATI NEWS

By MARION M. HUBBARD

4 Lincoln Terrace

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Oct. 26.—The dance given by the Five-Ten club Monday was enjoyed by many.

Mrs. Alma Palmer of Desmond street, Madisonville, was hostess to the Non Partelle bridge club Monday afternoon. After the usual rounds of cards and an enjoyable repast the following prize-winners were announced: Mrs. Phoebe Bullock, first prize; Mrs. Luka Anderson, second prize; and Mrs. Catherine Brown, the consolation.

The brother of Mrs. Moran, of Lincoln Terrace passed away Monday.

The regular business meeting of Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity was held at the Ninth Street branch Y. M. C. A., Monday night.

Mrs. Mailda Hayes' only sister, Mrs. Susie Dunlap Johnson, Leidenmeyer died suddenly in Chicago Saturday night. The remains were brought here for burial. Services were held at the Rankin funeral home Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Jessie Slater Fillmore, of New York City, came here to attend the funeral services of Mrs. Susie Dunlap Johnson Leidenmeyer.

M. C. Clarke attended the Southern Ohio conference of the A. M. E. church at Dayton last week.

Mrs. Lucy Belle Owsley is recuperating after a successful operation at City General hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. George French motored