

Set Rites For Baha'i Leader

WILMETTE — Memorial services for Horace Holley, a chief steward of the Baha'i World Faith who died last Tuesday, will be held in the House of Worship here Saturday, July 30 at 8 p. m.

Holley was secretary of the National Spiritual Assembly of the Baha'is of the United States for 35 years before going to the Holy Land last December to serve as member of the international administrative body.

He died in Haifa, Israel, world center of the faith where burial was held Thursday.

Holley was born in Torrington, Conn. and was educated at Williams college and in Europe.

In 1951, he was appointed by the late Shoghi Effendi to the office of one of 27 Hands of the faith. He participated in international conferences held in Kampala, Uganda, Africa; Sweden; New Delhi, India; and Stockholm, Sweden; New Delhi, India; and in Chicago as part of the 1953 launching of the ten-year global crusade.

He was treasurer of the Continental Fund of the Baha'is of the Western hemisphere and represented the U. S. National Assembly at conventions held in Panama City and Lima, Peru when assemblies were established in 1955.

Holly is survived by a wife, Doris, and daughter, Marcia.
