

City Churches

Frederick Douglass Center.

Sunday afternoon, Sept. 15, at 4 p. m. Mrs. F. S. Lynn will interpret the popular drama, "The Passing of the Third Floor Back," a play with a high religious background. Vocal solo by Mrs. Marie P. Merrill. Adula Baha will spend Sunday in Chicago visiting the Center at 4 p. m. The Center Woman's Club will hold the first meeting of the year Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 17, at 2 p. m., when a "Home Gathering" meeting will be conducted by the members when each will tell where and how she spent the summer.

Wayman Chapel A. M. E. Church.

Sunday, Sept. 15, at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m., will witness the closing service for the conference year. The pastor, Rev. H. E. Stewart, will preach his farewell sermon. Among the special features of the day will be a cornet solo at the morning services, rendered by a woman from Oakland, Cal. At the evening services Mr. Johnson will have several special selections. The pastor will give a report for the work of the year which closes for the third year during his administration. A final report from all the departments will be made Monday night and plans for the future will be discussed by the officers.

St. Mary's A. M. E. Church.

Services 10:45 a. m. and 3:15 and 7:45 p. m. At 10:45 the pastor will preach; subject, "The Light of the World." At 1:45 the Sunday school will render a nice program at their Dollar Money Rally. At 3:15 Dr. J. W. Robinson of St. Marks M. E. church will preach. At 7:45 the pastor will preach his farewell sermon; subject, "I command you to God and the Word of His grace." On Monday evening at the farewell entertainment the pastor will read his annual report and will leave Tuesday morning for Galesburg, the seat of the annual conference.

Quinn Chapel A. M. E. Church.

Despite the excessive heat on last Sunday morning a large congregation was present at Quinn and listened to a strong and eloquent sermon by the pastor, W. D. Cook, from the text, "When He hath tried me I shall come forth as gold." The choir was assisted by Mr. Hackley, who gave a superb rendition of the "Prodigal Son." A large number of visitors were present. The Sunday school held its usual interesting session at 2 p. m. At 6:30 the Christian Endeavor held a special service. The topic was ably discussed. A ten minute social followed the regular program. The Rev. Mr. Gantt, the pastor of the Congregational church at Montreal, Can., delivered a very helpful sermon at the evening service. The annual Harvest Home service will take place at Quinn this Sunday. The altar will be beautifully decorated with the fruits of the season and a great spiritual feast is anticipated. The Harvest Home dinner will take place this Monday, beginning at noon and continuing till 10 p. m. The pastor is preparing to meet the annual conference at Galesburg on Wednesday morning, and is urging every member and friend to pay his dollar money on this Sunday.

Walters A. M. E. Zion Church.

Owing to the intense heat on last Sunday the audiences at our services were not as large as usual. We were glad to note, however, the number of strangers present, some who were old friends of our pastor in Indianapolis.

Our first quarterly meeting will be held on the 13th of October. Rev. Robinson, pastor of St. Marks M. E. church, will preach for us in the afternoon on that day, also the choir of St. Paul C. M. E. church will furnish music.

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society will serve an elaborate dinner on the 22nd, which is Woman's Day. Their program in the evening is to be of a high order. Miss E. M. Knox, a missionary from China, will deliver the principal address.

The progressive rally, which was launched last Sunday starts off auspiciously, $1,500 is the mark set. All of the members and friends of our church are asked to pray and work to the accomplishment of this desire.

An organization for Bible study was perfected in our church on last Monday evening. This is a new departure and it is earnestly hoped that it will receive encouragement from all our members and friends.

The services Sunday will be as usual.

The first entertainment in the interest of the Progressive Rally will be given on Tuesday night the 17th. A novel entertainment with moving pictures; subjects, "The Prodigal Son" and "Joseph Sold by His Brethren." This entertainment is given on one of the latest improved moving picture machines.

It is hoped that the Sunday school officers and teachers will not forget the union Saturday evening teachers' meeting at Wentworth Avenue Baptist church, where the Sunday school lesson for the following sabbath is taught. All the Sunday school workers in the Nineteenth Sunday School District for Cook county are cordially welcomed and expected to be present every Saturday night.