

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Wields Wicked Club

It required three stitches to sew up the head of George Brown, 32, 3823 Rhodes avenue, who was hit over the head with a club by his step-son, Leon James, during a quarrel in their home.

Brings Back Prisoner

Officer Oliver brought back from Minneapolis Billie Beck, 3408 Wabash avenue, who had fled there Oct. 23 last, after holding up and robbing Effin Duffy.

Stole Herd of Cows

Peter Vicks, 3618 Federal street, was arrested by Sergeant John T. Scott on complaint of the Mississippi authorities. Vicks had stolen a herd of cows at West Point last August.

Cut by Roomer

A man, known only as Oscar, who roomed with Mrs. Katie Watts, 27, 3534 Dearborn street, inflicted a two-inch cut upon her wrist when they became engaged in an argument.

Injured by Auto

As she attempted to cross the street at 31st street and Michigan boulevard, Mrs. Elizabeth Ivey, 59 years old, 12 West 32d street, was painfully bruised when she was struck by an automobile.

Dies at 103

Mrs. Ann Manney died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Susan Easton, 3709 Federal street, last month. She was 103 years old. Rev. Mr. Clark preached the funeral service at Ebenezer Baptist church.

Rough on Roomers

Mrs. Mary H. Taylor, 3131 Cottage Grove avenue, stated that one of her roomers, Jonas Lewis, chased all of the other roomers out of the house and made some of them jump out of windows every time he imbibed too freely of moonshine. Lewis was fined $25 and costs.

Makes Successful Trip

William Bell, editor of the Idlewild Dispatch, has just returned from Indianapolis and several other cities in Indiana. He succeeded in getting a large number of subscribers for the Idlewild Dispatch. He wants every lot owner and friend in the United States and Canada to send for March 3d issue as there is something in that issue of vital importance to every property owner and friend, especially those interested in Idlewild. Write William Bell, Editor, 1821 Park avenue.—Adv.

The Mignonette Players

The Mignonette Players of Abraham Lincoln center are a bunch of busy youngsters. They have appeared many times this winter on various programs at the center, and are now preparing two interesting plays which they will present some time in March. Mrs. Sarah B. Ozella is the director.

The Rev. Dobbins to Visit City

The Rev. A. R. Dobbins, pastor of one of the largest A. M. E. churches in St. Louis, Mo., will be in the city to assist in the dedication of New Bethel. The Rev. Mr. Dobbins is the cousin of Mrs. Annette White and Mrs. Fanny Henry of 4427 Prairie avenue, with whom he will stop during his stay in the city.

Fights About Wife

Jealousy over the affections of Mrs. Gladys Thomas, the supposed wife of Mitchell Thomas, 3429 Federal street, caused a fight between Mitchell and U. S. Thomas, 24, 3618 Federal street, when they met at 3611 Federal street. U. S. suffered a two-inch cut on his neck. The three were placed under arrest by Sergeant Raymond Green and Officer William Holmes.

Out Again

Mrs. Fannie L. Ellis, bookkeeper for the Reese Automobile school and garage, after an illness of two weeks, is much improved and out again under the care of Dr. Roscoe C. Giles.

Singer En Route

Annette White will leave the city in a few days to appear in song recital in St. Louis, Jefferson City and other Southern cities. Mme. White recently appeared in a joint recital at Ebenezer Baptist church and also was one of the soloists in all-star concert at Quinn Chapel A. M. E. church.

Confined to Home

Julius Lawrence, 3564 Vernon avenue, is confined to his home with pneumonia. His friends wish for him a speedy recovery.

In City on Business

Arthur Hazley of Bessemer, Ala., spent five days in the city on business, en route to Cleveland, Ohio. While here Mr. Hazley was the guest of Mrs. Ella White, 55 East 56th street.

Leaves for New York

Illomer L. Wheelis of New York City has returned to his home after a very pleasant visit with his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Small, 221 East 35th street.

In City

Bueregard C. Laster of Greensboro, Ga., is in the city making his home with his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Benjamin, 742 East 45th street.

The Rev. H. W. Jamison Here

The Rev. H. W. Jamison, national grand master of U. B. F. & S. M. T. throughout the United States and jurisdiction, was in the city Sunday and during the week. The Rev. Mr. Jamison was in charge of the Sunday exercises at the Grant Memorial A. M. E. church, 4600 Evans avenue, during the entire day and the exercises were fine. When in the city he stops at the Y. M. C. A.

Return to City

Mr. and Mrs. E. Lee Hughes, son-in-law and daughter of Mrs. Carrie Holloway, have returned to the city from Madison, Wis., where they spent the past 12 months. They may remain in the city.

William Jones Out Again

William Jones, the popular grocer at 3636 South State street, who has been confined to his bed for several days on account of severe illness, is able to be out again.

Adeline Greene Convalescent

Adeline Greene, 3606 Wabash avenue, wishes to thank her many friends for the fruit shower and their kindness during her recent illness.

Reader Collins Dies

Reader Collins died Wednesday, Feb. 21, at the home of his sister, Mrs. Henrietta Davis, 3343 Wabash avenue. He is survived by a mother, two sisters, two nephews and a niece.

Arrivals at Idlewild

The arrivals at the Idlewild hotel the past week: Miss Anna Jones, Detroit, Mich.; H. B. Lomax, city; Mr. and Mrs. Cooper, city; Roy Williams and wife, Battle Creek, Mich.; E. L. Dora and wife, Michigan City, Ind.; Joe Parks and wife, Taylorsville, Ky.; Thomas Snelling, Benton Harbor, Mich.; Ed Brown, Louisville, Ky.; James F. Benny, Kankakee, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Thompson, city; W. L. Warren and wife, Richmond, Va.; William Gulton and wife, Topeka, Kan.; R. O. Coleman, Lawrence, Kan.; Mrs. L. Jones, St. Louis, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. Moton, Canada.

Stabbed by Unknown

Pedestrians picked up John Bell, 26, 2213 Rhodes avenue, from where he lay on the sidewalk. Bell had been stabbed in the back by some unknown man. He was unable to give a description of his assailant.

Attempts Suicide

Despondent because of a lovers' quarrel, Miss Justine Bronston, 27, 3532 Calumet avenue, drank a quantity of lysol with suicidal intent, according to the records of the police. Miss Myrtle Jackson, 22, 3017 State street, also tried the suicide route by lysol. Both of the women will recover.

Walks Into Auto

Howard Gaines, 3120 Vernon avenue, was painfully injured when he walked into an automobile at 31st street and South Park avenue.

Fight Duel With Knives

A duel with knives was fought by Morris Baggott, 18, 2813 Dearborn street, and Gertrude Neal, his alleged sweetheart. Baggott was cut in the forehead, while Gertrude received a badly lacerated hand.

Assaulted by Man

While engaged in a quarrel with James Cranshaw, 1451 State street, when they met in front of 1922 Dearborn street, Stella Crosby, 27, 1826 Federal street, came out of the fight with eyes blackened and otherwise badly bruised. Cranshaw, who was arrested by Sergeants Dudley and McNally, was supposed to have had a knife in his hand at the time of the assault.

Traps Burglar

While burglarizing the flat of Charles Friedberg, who occupies the third floor at 214 East 46th street, Dan Mayfield, 26, 3106 Ellis avenue, was surprised by the sudden return of the owner. Mayfield jumped out of the window and swung from some telegraph wires. Reaching the pole he was sliding down, when he attracted the attention of Officer Barry of the 48th street police station. Falling to halt when the officer commanded him to do so, Mayfield was then fired upon. He was shot in the leg, shoulder and back. He was carried to the Bridewell hospital.

Romaine Johns Entertained

The Misses Frances Thomas and Jessie Smith, 3641 Grand boulevard, entertained Romaine Johns, who was visiting them from Detroit, Mich., with a luncheon Monday afternoon. Among the guests were Bill George, Sammy Stewart and his singing syncopators, and the team of Chris Smith and Henry Troy.

Appointed Delegate

Mrs. Sadie L. Adams, president of Chicago and Northern district Federation of Colored Women's clubs, has been appointed by Governor Small as delegate to the National Educational congress to be held in Washington, D. C., March 5. Illinois delegates will have a special car.

Mrs. Poindexter Dead

Mrs. Sussie Poindexter, 61, 2217 Princeton avenue, formerly of Clarksville, Tenn., passed away Thursday of heart disease. She was buried Monday from the Johnson undertaking parlors, 3309 State street.

THE UNIVERSAL RELIGION

The Bahai assembly, next Sunday, will meet in St. John hall, 18th floor, Masonic temple, Randolph and State streets, at 3:30 p. m. Basic Bahai principles will be discussed. Bahai meetings open to the public are held every Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Emma Ellington, 4736 St. Lawrence avenue.

Victim of Heart Disease

A man, supposed to be W. A. Keller, about 36 years of age, address unknown, was employed by Albert Ford, 2111 Wabash avenue, to help on his wagon while he removed some oil from 2000 Wabash avenue. The man collapsed while in the hallway and fell over dead. He was a victim of organic heart disease.

Child Found Uninjured

After being hit by an automobile at 49th street and St. Lawrence avenue, little 7-year-old Cooper West, 4831 St. Lawrence avenue, crawled out from under the machine and was found to be uninjured.

Cut by Husband

During a quarrel with her husband, Arthur, Mrs. Margaret Warfield, 30, 4513 Indiana avenue, was cut on the hand by him.

Bitten by Bulldog

Nowell Hunter, 23 years of age, 59 East 42d street, was bitten on the leg by a bulldog owned by Mrs. Rogers, 4131 State street.

Internally Injured

William M. Roberts, 38, 726 East 42d street, was carried to Provident hospital internally injured. He was struck by an automobile at 43d street and Evans avenue.

Drops Dead on Street

While walking along the street, Henry Harris, 55, 4046 Dearborn street, dropped dead as he was in front of 4056 Dearborn street. He had long been a sufferer of stomach trouble.

Struck by Yellow Cab

After being struck by a yellow cab at 47th street and Michigan avenue, Sam Brannock, 28, 4321 State street, was carried to the Hahnemann hospital, where it was found that he was painfully injured.

Cut by Wife

The course of true love did not run smooth in the home of the Gray Sullivans, 424 East 37th street. While Sol and his wife, Olatto, were talking at 50th street and Calumet avenue, they engaged in a quarrel over domestic affairs. She drew a knife and cut her husband on the shoulder.

Under Observation

The peculiar actions of Nelson Stokes, 40, 3632 Michigan avenue, caused him to be sent to the psychopathic hospital to be kept under observation as to his sanity.

Gun Injures Both

While John Simpson and his wife, Minnie, were fooling with a gun in their home at 3501 Wabash avenue, it was accidentally exploded, wounding both of them in the hands.

Held for Manslaughter

Austin Clashy, age 24, 14 West 47th street, was held to the grand jury on a charge of manslaughter. Jan. 23 last he ran over a Mexican, Estanecio Fernandez, 606 South Clinton street, at Root and State streets with an automobile as the man was attempting to board a street car. The man died the following day from his injuries.

Jealousy Causes Stabbing

Because she was jealous of her husband and believing that Myrtle Johnson, 2926 South Park avenue, was trying to rob her of his affections, Mrs. Bessie Rollings attacked Myrtle with a knife when she met the woman in front of the Rollings home at 3168 Ellis avenue. Myrtle was stabbed three times, once in the lung, the abdomen and the shoulder. Her condition is considered serious.

Mrs. Arthur Confined

Mrs. George Arthur, 56 East 50th street, a member of the Chicago Visiting Nurses association, is confined to her home due to strained ligaments suffered in a fall on a slippery sidewalk.

Honor Miss Jones

Miss Arjester M. Jones celebrated her twelfth anniversary at a brilliant party given in her honor by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Jones, at their home, 3407 Wabash avenue, Saturday afternoon. Miss Jones is the sister of Miss Agnes Hawkins, a sparkling figure in younger social affairs about town.

Bible Lecture

There will be a Bible lecture, under the auspices of International Bible Students association, on "Numerous Proofs There Is No Underground Hell" by J. B. Reid, Sunday, March 4, 3 p. m., at the Peoples' Movement club, 3140 Indiana avenue. All invited. Seats free; no collection.

Miss LeBlanc Returns

Miss Edna LeBlanc, 117 East 37th place, has returned to the city after a two months' stay in New Orleans, La., where she visited relatives and friends.

Club Organized

A new club was organized Thursday, Feb. 22, at the home of Mrs. Esther Johnson, 3433 Prairie avenue. Only people of high standing, morals and character are eligible to membership. The club will be known as The Paramount Social club, meeting Wednesday of each week. Mrs. Esther Johnson, president; Mrs. M. Jones, secretary, and Mrs. Georgia Worlds, treasurer.

Mrs. Carey Critically Ill

Mrs. Elizabeth D. Carey, wife of Bishop Archibald James Carey, is seriously ill of pneumonia at their home, 3428 Vernon avenue. The bishop himself is slowly recovering from a severe attack of influenza. Both are under the skillful treatment of Dr. Daniel H. Williams, assisted by a corps of competent nurses.

Jesse Binga Entertained

Jesse Binga, president Binga State bank, was host at a dinner given at the Appomattox club Thursday evening, Feb. 22, in honor of the officers and directors of the Pullman Porters Benefit Association of America. Those present were: Perry Parker, chairman; T. R. Webb, grand controller; O. E. Robinson, grand secretary; Arthur A. Wells, grand treasurer; directors, R. L. Williams, San Francisco; T. R. Blanton, Philadelphia; J. S. Freeman, New York; T. R. Crahshaw, St. Louis; J. F. Smith, Chicago; Mr. Sexton, New Orleans.

Avendorph Convalescing

Julius N. Avendorph, 5346 Wabash avenue, continues ill at his residence, still confined to his bed. His son, Julius, Jr., who is also ill, is improving and is able to see a few of his friends.

Leaves Infant in Hallway

An infant, three days old, was left in the hallway on the first floor of 1710 West Lake street, at the door of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Puckett. Shortly after midnight Wednesday someone brought the infant there, rang the door bell of the Puckett apartment and fled. The baby was turned over to the police, who took it to the foundling home.

Uses Black Jack on Wife

A search for James Nelson, 221 North Maplewood avenue, was instituted by police of the Warren avenue station on complaint of his wife, Mrs. Beatrice Nelson, 26 years old, who declared that her husband assaulted her with a black jack at their home Thursday morning. Mrs. Nelson was taken to the County hospital with lacerations on the left side of her head.

Fractures Ankle on Ice

Mrs. Flossie Means, 28, 2407 Fulton street, was taken to the County hospital suffering with a fractured ankle, which she sustained late Saturday night when she slipped on the icy sidewalk in front of 2215 Fulton street.

Falls Into Hole

Charles Johnson, 39, 2450 Fulton street, was severely bruised on the right leg Saturday night when he slipped on the icy pavement at Fulton street and Campbell avenue and fell into a hole between the sidewalk and curb.

Cuts Tendon on Hand

Following an altercation with Julius Burns, 5625 Lake Park avenue, Teddy Hammonds, 22, a waiter, living at the Lake Park avenue address, was slashed with a razor by Burns, who cut the tendon of his right hand. Hammonds was taken to the Bridewell hospital and Burns placed under arrest by police of the Hyde Park station.

Sent to County Hospital

The following persons were sent to the county hospital this week: Mrs. Daisy Logan, 38, 2121 Archer avenue; Mrs. Ella Howard, 21, 1821 Wabash avenue; Mrs. Anna Sullivan, 20, 4504 Dearborn street; Lovie C. Campbell, 26, 427 East 40th street; Mrs. Mariha Williams, 72, 3936 Dearborn street; Will Hamilton, 69, 2318 Dearborn street; Albert Williams, 34, 251 North Paulina street; Mrs. Flossie Means, 28, 2407 Fulton street; Joe Adams, 40, 2911 Federal street; John Ukle, 69, 3020 Calumet avenue; Miss Viola Bruce, 22, 3261 Dearborn street; Mrs. Belle Bass, 38, 4767 Langley avenue; Mrs. Lulu Wylie, 60, 4633 Evans avenue; Serbert Shanklin, 60, 4117 Dearborn street; Omar Harris, 39, 4326 Wabash avenue; Walter Brogdale, 35, 4235 Evans avenue; Miss Isabelle Harris, 17, 3907 Prairie avenue; Willie Pollard, 19, 4230 Calumet avenue; Willie Thompson, 30, 5200 State street; Cleveland Russell, 37, 4324 Cottage Grove avenue; Mrs. Rosa Hayes, 42, 4248 Calumet avenue; Monroe Simmons, 59, 3151 Prairie avenue; M. F. Hudson, 22, 3215 LaSalle street; James E. Brown, 23, 3752 Elmwood avenue; Fred Austin, 33, 3817 Federal street, and Edward Powell, 26, 3106 Rhodes avenue.

To Give Program

The Chicago Music association of the National Association of Negro Musicians will give their regular monthly program Wednesday, March 7, at 8 p. m., at the Y. M. C. A. A splendid program has been arranged by the program committee, of which Mrs. Martha B. Mitchell is chairman.

Injured in "L" Accident

When the wreckage of the "L" accident, the crash of two Northwestern trains during the heavy fog last Sunday morning at 22d street, was cleared away, the following persons were among those injured: George Henry Wilson, 28, 2801 State street; Wesley Elson, 46, 3331 Indiana avenue; Henry Dennison, 42, 5922 Wabash avenue; A. L. Brooks, 50, 3145 Prairie avenue; Grant Wilson, 36, 1000 Wilson avenue; Howard Green, an employee of Sears, Roebuck & Co.; Oscar Friend, 30, 3319 South Park avenue, and Henry Sloan, 4438 Cottage Grove avenue.

Have Family Quarrel

Although he had a cut in the back of his head which required five stitches to sew it up, Walter Roberts, 29, 2816 LaSalle street, conveniently forgot who hit him, when arraigned before Judge Joseph Schulman. He and Payne and Carrie Williams had been arrested when a family fight was staged in their home.

Stork Busy

The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ford, 3732 Calumet avenue, last week and left a fine 6½ pound baby girl. Mother and baby are doing fine.

Born to Dr. and Mrs. Robert L. Douglass, 4834 Champlain avenue, Monday, a fine eight-pound baby boy. Mrs. Douglass was formerly Henrietta B. Johnson of Toronto, Canada.

Woman Causes Arrest

Some startling testimony is expected to be given when John Watkins, 5723 Indiana avenue, is placed on trial before Judge Joseph Schulman March 9. Watkins was arrested by Sergeant Julius Glenn and charged with disorderly conduct on complaint of Miss Cericce Stalling, 3600 Vincennes avenue. It is charged that the arrest grew out of an unrequited love affair.

Griffiths Entertained

Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Griffith, 5728 Prairie avenue, entertained at dinner Sunday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Flournoy Miller. Seated at the table with the guests of honor were: Mr. and Mrs. Ben Bruton, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Church, Master Earle Church, Miss Jimmie Yearby, Mrs. Ida Byndal and Walter B. Anderson.