

Bahais Urge Racial Amity at Annual Meet

New York, Oct. 28.—An international amity meeting was held under the auspices of the Bahais of New York and Brooklyn in the Nazareth Congregational church, Grand Ave. and Lefferies Place, Brooklyn, at 8 o'clock Friday evening, Oct. 21. It was preceded by a dinner at 6:30.

Mrs. Bishop H. Lewis is chairman of the conference. There was an address by Horace Holly on "The Origins of Prejudice"; by Wandeyne Matthews on "The Responsibility of Youth to the World," and by Mary Hanford on "The Power of Baha'u'llah to Unity Mankind."

The music included solos by Mme. Maude Gaudreaux and spirituals by the Nazareth church choir.
