

Miss Althea Chapman spent her summer vacation in New York, Washington, D. C., and Manassas, Va. Dr. L. H. Breedlove spent his vacation in Chicago and state of Kansas. Mrs. Breedlove of Gilbert Ave. is visiting in the South. Mrs. John Anderson of Gay Ave. was sent to Lima, Ohio, as delegate of the Rosebud club. Upon her return she was elected president of the club. Mrs. Anderson spent a very pleasant vacation in Detroit visiting relatives. Dr. G. E. Lovett was called to Chicago by the sudden death of his brother-in-law, Prof. H. T. Jackson. Dr. Lovett was elected grand medical register at grand lodge meeting, K. of P., in Akron, Ohio. Mrs. G. E. Lovett is visiting her parents and other relatives in Virginia since June. She is expected home in a few weeks. Mrs. Robert P. Logan of Asheville, N. C., was the pleasant guest of her sister-in-law, Miss Minnie Brown of 577 W. Sixth St. Mrs. Young and Mrs. Major Walton returned home after a pleasant visit with Mrs. Brown. Mrs. Ida Eldridge of Louisville, Ky., spent the week visiting friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Sales of Huntsville, Ala., have been visiting their sister, Mrs. Sarah Stone of Intermediate Ave. Mrs. Lee Pool of 704 Mound St. has her mother and aunt of Columbus, Ohio, visiting her.

West End Branch Y. W. C. A. Thursday evening, Sept. 11, the auxiliary and doctors of Mercy hospital entertained in honor of Mrs. Lou Emma Gatewood, who has accepted a position of responsibility in Okolona Industrial school, Okolona, Miss. Mrs. Gatewood has served the hospital as superintendent most acceptably and carries with her the good wishes of the community. An interesting program was rendered, including talks by F. A. B. Hall, president; Dr. R. E. Clarke, representing the hospital staff; a reading by Mrs. Beatrice Richardson, and songs by a male quartet. Dr. E. Duval Colley presented a gift from the doctors. Mrs. D. L. Butler, president of the woman's auxiliary, was mistress of ceremonies, and Mrs. Jane Randolph was hostess. Mrs. Gatewood expressed appreciation for the courtesy extended and all present spent a pleasant evening. Mrs. Josephine M. Norcom, executive secretary, and Mrs. Elizabeth N. Elliott, industrial, attended the setting-up conference of employed officers of Cincinnati Y. W. C. A. at Edwirth Heights Sept. 12 and 14. The house committee, through the chairman, Mrs. M. A. Williams, announces plans for Halloween which promise an interesting time for the house girls and the public generally. Sunday morning devotionals in the residence were conducted by Mrs. M. B. Lytle. The following out-of-town visitors to the building, Miss Wilhelmina B. Patterson, Hampton Institute, Va.; Mrs. V. B. Wheeler, Buffalo, N. Y.; Mrs. John Davis, Pittsburg, Pa.; Mrs. W. D. Campbell, Boston, Mass.; Mrs. Bruce H. Hull, Montgomery, W. Va.; Mrs. W. S. Hambr, Mobile, Ala.; Miss Mabel S. Brady and Mrs. J. N. Samuels, Belvedere, Dayton, Ohio; Dr. George W. Haynes, New York city; Miss Dorothy L. Sanford and Mrs. Anna B. Lane, Detroit, Mich.; and Miss Carrie W. Griffin, Cleveland, Ohio.

URBANA, OHIO

Mr. and Mrs. E. Lancaster and family spent the week-end in Upper Sandusky visiting relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Church moved last week from W. Broad St. to S. Kenton St. The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. White and family of Louisville, Ky., have moved to this city and will make their home on S. Main St. Mrs. Hattie Mack and Mrs. Fred Allen spent Saturday in Springfield attending the tent meeting at the fairground. Mrs. Dan Jones' Sunday school class of Second Baptist church held a picnic at Mrs. Jones' Saturday afternoon. Miss Mary Tye will leave in the near future for New Jersey. Mrs. Charles Edsards of Detroit is visiting relatives in this city. Mrs. Dorsey Fletcher, Jr., of Springfield, formerly of this city, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Guy. Grand Master George Holland, Otis Fields, G. T. H. T. Greer, G. E. F. and A. M., called a meeting at Masonic home to organize a board of management for the home. The following members were elected: R. F. Jones, Columbus; Goodric Giles, Plaquia; C. E. Porter, Columbus; Will Robertson, Springfield; Sherman Cleveland, Urbana. All business pertaining to the home will be under supervision of the board. Mrs. Alta Scott gave a very pretty party Wednesday afternoon in honor of her house guest, Mrs. Pink Black, and Mrs. French of New York city, who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tudor. Invitations were issued for the hours of 2 to 3:30 and 3:30 to 5. Conversation and music formed the diversions of the afternoon. Misses Edith Chaves and Ethel Kennedy served the guests. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Pink Black and Mrs. French of New York city, Mrs. Olla Taborn of Rushsylvania, and Miss Amanda Carey of St. Paris. Mrs. Bettie Boyer and daughter, Miss Margie Boyer, will leave Sept. 22 for New York city, where they will make their future home. Miss Marie Cleveland left for Tuskegee Institute, Ala., Thursday, where she will teach in the high school. The following people are on the sick list: Herbert Bowser, Mrs. Sloan, Mrs. J. A. Brown, little Viola Hill and Mrs. Homer Roberts. Mrs. Walter Tudor and daughter, Miss Irene Tudor, entertained for their house guest, Mrs. French of New York city, Thursday evening. Mrs. Pink Black of New York city left Thursday for her home. She will first go to Lima to visit relatives and friends.

COLUMBUS, OHIO

Mrs. Dorothy Merritt of Xenia, Ohio, was the week-end guest of Mrs. Carl Johnson. Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Morgan have returned to their home at Hampton, Va., after a two weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Omar J. Morran. Mrs. Nina Hudson and granddaughter Pauline of Xenia spent Sunday as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Carl Johnson. Miss Ellen Hudson returned to her home in Xenia after a two weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. Carl Johnson. Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Brown entertained Friday evening at their home in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Florence Hough of Washington, D. C. Mrs. R. M. Tibbitt and children, in company with her brother-in-law, Watson Tribbett, motored to Cambridge, Md., to visit her mother. Before returning they will visit Boston, Philadelphia and other places of interest. Mr. and Mrs. E. Baker of Homestead have returned to their home after several weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones. Mr. Anderson of Akron, Ohio, is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. H. F. H. Dickerson, 161 E. Long St. Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Harris have returned to their home at Kanawha Falls, W. Va. Dr. and Mrs. Charles Minor of Chicago, Ill., are the guests of their mother, Mrs. Alice G. Minor. A party was given Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Percival Williams in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Minor of Chicago, Ill. Miss Marcella Moore left Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hopkins for Bluefields Institute. The funeral of John H. Settles, 142 E. Spring St., who died suddenly last week, was held at St. Paul's A. M. E. church. Mrs. Mary Bowles, 624 Mt. Vernon Ave., is visiting her daughters, Miss Eva Bowles and Mrs. Cordelia Winn in New York city. A party was given Saturday evening at Elks home, Lexington Ave., honoring the students of West Virginia and Wilberforce. Mrs. James W. Williams, 225 E. Long St., entertained Monday afternoon with a tea in honor of her guest, Miss Charlotte George of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. A. C. Alfred of Marietta, Ohio. Harold Hale of Athens, Ohio, is visiting in the city for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Crawford have returned from their vacation in Idlewild, Mich. They returned by way of Chicago, Danville and Indianapolis. Dr. Herbert S. Goodloe has been visiting friends and relatives in West Virginia. Quinn F. Montgomery ("Monty") was a visitor in Huntington and Charleston, W. Va. A. W. Harbo, executive secretary of the Spring St. Y. M. C. A., made a brief business trip to Cincinnati, Ohio. Mrs. Thelma A. Eckford has recently returned from Chicago, where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Ola E. Moorhead. Dr. F. D. Bradford of Birmingham, Ala., was a recent visitor of Columbus. He gave a very careful inspection of Columbus' splendid modern Y. M. C. A. and expressed the hope that in the future Birmingham might have a similarly well equipped "Y." Louis G. Gregory, scholar, philosopher and lecturer for the Bahai movement, was a recent talker before the Business Men's club of the "Y." William I. Gibson is confined in a local hospital. His condition was reported as grave. Mr. Gibson is a student of the Journalism college of Ohio State university.

PIQUA, OHIO

Mrs. L. A. Alexander of Chicago, Ill., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Emma Williams, 1067 Broadway. Mrs. Sarah Jane Rial died at her home on Roosevelt Ave. Thursday. Mrs. Mary Knox spent Labor day in Detroit, Mich. Bobby Smith underwent a slight operation last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. William Mitchell and Grover Chestnut have returned from Kentucky. Mrs. Homer Collins entertained the Culture club Thursday afternoon and Philomatean club in the evening. Winston Bray entertained the Harmony Music Speaking club.

MANSFIELD, OHIO

William Johnson made a flying trip to Pittsburgh a few days ago. The Mount Calvary Baptist church met in a regular church meeting Friday and called a pastor in the person of Rev. H. Teague of Alliance, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Wisdom of Shelby, Ind., and Mrs. James Bailey of Mansfield will leave for Chicago Tuesday to spend a week's vacation. The A. M. E. church rendered an educational program Sunday afternoon.

CANTON, OHIO

The most elaborate social event of the season was the formal dinner dance given by Mrs. Prudie Moore last week at the residence of Mrs. Clementine Evans. Mrs. Moore proved to be a very gracious hostess. Covers were laid for the following: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. William Dane, Mr. and Mrs. Deas Schuman, Mr. and Mrs. James Titus, Mr. and Mrs. Val Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Strauder, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Summerville, Mr. and Mrs. Charles King, Mr. and Mrs. Daniels, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Smallwood, Mr. and Mrs. Z. A. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Titus, Jr., Miss Katherine Summerville, Ed. Blalock, Mrs. Clem Evans, Miss Lillian Smith, Harold Roberts, from Akron, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fletcher and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Green, and from Massillon, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Cor-rell. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Lena Jones and Mrs. Bailey, Miss Elizabeth Martin and Claud Andrews left Saturday morning for Wilberforce university. Miss Martin will matriculate in the college of Arts and Science and Mr. Andrews will specialize in tailoring. A. L. Foster and Mrs. Ida Blueford were among the speakers at a supper conference held in the cafeteria of the McKinley high school last Monday evening at which time representatives of civic clubs, industrial plants and other groups discussed with Mr. Vermillion, the new director of evening schools, the policy of the work for the year. Night school opens Sept. 29. Classes will be held in all sections of the city. Members of the Federation of Neighborhood clubs visited the Stark county workhouse last Thursday afternoon. A reception for students leaving the city for out-of-town schools was held at the community house Friday night. About 40 guests were present. The affair was sponsored by the Canton Civic league. The Rev. Mr. Allen delivered a brief address on "The Three Links." Miss Lillian Powell read a very interesting paper and Miss Gladys Adkins sang. A. L. Foster was toastmaster. Henry Sweet of Wilberforce and Claud Andrews who is entering the university also spoke.

DAYTON, OHIO

At a meeting of the senior class of Roosevelt high school last week Jewel Smith, son of the Rev. J. T. Smith, was elected vice president by receiving the second higher number of votes cast for president. This is the second time in the history of the high schools of Dayton that such an honor has been conferred upon a student of our race. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Barlow are visiting friends in Chicago. George W. Dunn, Jr. was elected president of the Senior H. Y. club at its meeting last week. Mrs. George McClung and son Gabby and Mr. and Mrs. James Lewis went to Akron, from where Mr. McClung and Mr. Lewis journey on to Cleveland. They returned home Sunday. John Fields returned to Dayton Monday after having spent a few weeks in Chicago. Prophetstown and Des Moines, Iowa. Misses Anna Louise Taylor and Eliot Harding left Sunday night for Chicago, where they will enter the Provident hospital for training. Miss Marie Woolridge, graduate of Steele, 1921, and Wilberforce Commercial college, 1924, has accepted a position in Washington, D. C. John Thomas and nephew, George Bell, returned to Dayton Monday after having been to Chicago to attend the business men's convention. Complimenting Miss Odessa Taylor, Miss Irene Johnson entertained with a formal dinner Sunday night. Flares were placed for Misses Odessa Taylor, Sarah Williamson, Eugenia Fant, Almina Oldewine, Gertrude Baker, Charlotte Smith, Lucille McGregor, Anna Louise Taylor, Anna Samuels, Nora Mae Dunn and Irene Johnson; G. Wilson Dunn, Jr., Willard Faut, Jewel Smith, Orene Young, Earl Taylor, James Stocks, John Fields, Burton Curry, Thomas Morris and Charles Higgins. Miss Taylor left Monday morning for Portsmouth, where she is on the faculty of Portsmouth high school. Miss Gertrude Baker left Monday for Bluefield, W. Va., where she will resume her duties in the Institute. Miss Nannie Porter left Wednesday for Indianapolis to enter Indiana university. Miss Margaret Rowe, Mahala Browne and Anna Samuels are leaving this week to enter Wilberforce university. Richard Price, member of Ohio State varsity football team, has left for Columbus, where preparation for the coming schedule is well under way. G. William Dunn, Jr., John Ross, William Avery, Jewel Smith, John Fields and Eddie Simmons were initiated into the Phi Kappa Si fraternity Thursday night. Among the Daytonians entering colleges in the next two weeks are Mahala Browne, Anna Samuels, Morom Mosese, Margaret Rowe, Annette Sharpe, Bertha Gorton, Helen DeLeon, Mary Holtzlaw, Daniel Owens, Wilfred Faut and Lovina Carey, Wilberforce; to Ohio State university, Margaret Jefferson, Richard Price, Earl Taylor, Wilson Ormes, Randolph Taylor and George Lewis; Miss Ethel Carr, Temple college, Philadelphia; Miss Eloise Miller, Spellman seminary, Atlanta; Katherine Smith, Simmons, at Louisville; Jones Massee, Lincoln university; Gordon Ormes, Howard; Hubert Eliot, G. William Dunn, Jr., and John Ross, University of Dayton; Eddie Simmons and Nan Parsons to Fiske university. Mr. and Mrs. Caesar, Sr., 325 Sprague St., delightfully surprised their friends with a birthday party Tuesday, Sept. 9. The following were present: Ora Mae Jefferson, Hazel Browne, Mary Butler, Josephine Knox, Lena Ola Richardson, Dorothy Addison, Evelyn Parker, Lot-Odessie Mae Gillespie, Melon McCashe, Odessa Lewis, Margaret Rowe, Helen Robinson and Madeline Goodloe; Marcellus Brown, William Cousin, Geo. Harding, Charles Kennedy, George Hawkins, Eddie Simmons, George Mack, Earl Taylor, Geo. Lane, Howard Macon, Raymond Bass, James Jones, Paul Staton, William Gillespie, Harold and John Caesar. Thaddeus Jackson arrived home after making a successful trip to Columbus, Cleveland, Atlantic City and New York. Richard Warren, former Daytonian, who is now a member of the faculty at Tuskegee, is in the city visiting relatives and friends. Richard Price and James Pierce were members of the bridal party in Springfield last Wednesday, of which the principals were Miss Mary Olney and Welcome T. Blue of Cleveland. The vocal quartet, composed of Charles Higgins, tenor; John Fields, tenor; James Stocks, baritone, and G. William Dunn, Jr., have just completed a tour of the state. Columbus, Cleveland, Akron, Toledo and Cincinnati were a few of the places visited. G. William Dunn, Jr., is the manager and can be reached at 335 Sprague. At a meeting of the Students' Co-operative league Friday night it was decided to include the senior high school students in the membership. This will bring the membership up to 450 individuals. Officers for the ensuing year will be elected at the meeting Sept. 26. Jewel Smith, G. William Dunn, Jr., and Georgia Rice are the leading students mentioned for the presidency. This organization is composed of all students of the city.

COSHOCKTON, OHIO

Mrs. Nellie Smiley has gone to Indiana to visit parents and relatives. She expects to visit her husband's father, the Rev. C. B. Smiley of Louisville, Ky. Cecile Brown and Mrs. Bell Jackson are reported some better. Mrs. George Watkins is able to be out again.

LANCASTER, O.

The funeral of Miss Julia Turner was held from Allen chapel American Methodist Episcopal church, on Wednesday, September 3. Mrs. Edna Fields of Dayton, O., is the guest of Mrs. Jennie Thomas. Mrs. Alice Mayo, Mrs. Carrie Jamison of Columbus, O., and Mrs. Sadie Ward of Detroit, Mich., visited Mrs. Jennie Blanchard and Mrs. Mollie Ford last week. The condition of Miss Anna Hawkins, who has been seriously ill, is much improved. Mrs. Nellie Anderson and nephew, Billy Anderson, have returned from a week-end visit with Mrs. Anderson's parents in Buchtel, O. Prof. E. A. Riney left to resume his duties in the Huntington, W. Va., high school.

CINCINNATI NEWS

By L. LLOYD STONE
Sterling Hotel
Telephone West 6723

Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 19.—The Harriet Beecher Stowe school opened the year with a new addition, the Jackson school, Fifth and Mound Sts. The faculty will consist of approximately 125 teachers. The principal, Miss Jennie Porter, with two assistant, W. Coleman and Mrs. Knight. There are nine students teachers. Miss Vivian Jones returned from her visit to the Windy City. Miss Martha J. Jones has returned from Detroit, where she spent her vacation.—W. Mrs. George Hicks of Gaff Ave. combined business with pleasure and completed a course in beauty culture while in Chicago.—V.