

City Churches—Religious News

Frederick Douglass Center.

Sunday, February 4, at 4 p. m. Mrs. W. Mathes of the Chicago University, will give an address from the subject, "The Relation of the Church to the Social Settlement." Prof. L. Hoyt, a musician of wide reputation, will give several piano numbers.

Bethel Literary Club.

Mr. Geo. P. Smith, manager C. H. Green's Shoe Polish Co., will address the Bethel Literary Club at 4 o'clock in the lecture room of Bethel Church. The occasion is known as "Business Men's Day," and a record breaking crowd is expected. Special music has been prepared for the occasion.

Feb. 11th the Great Lincoln-Allen-Douglass celebration will take place. Addresses by Senator Ettelson, Major Jackson and Mr. E. Wilber Johnson.

* * *

Walters A. M. E. Zion Church.

One of the pleasing features of our church work just now is the splendid attendance at class meetings on Friday nights, our attendance on last Friday was about 80, the class offering was over $15.00. This shows the loyalty of our members and the earnest work of our leaders, let us keep it up.

The services on last Sunday were well attended both morning and evening. The sermon by the pastor in the morning and the Chautauqua lecture at night by Mr. H. H. Hardin were both greatly enjoyed.

The Men's Utility Club had a splendid meeting on last Thursday and the prospects for a high social time at the banquet to be given on Feb. 29th are very bright. You had better get your tickets at once.

At the Christian Endeavor meeting on last Sunday night the following officers were elected: President, H. B. Craddock; vice president, C. J. Jackson, secretary, Earl Simpson; corresponding secretary, Miss Alice Gallis; treasurer, Miss Bessie Glenn. The meeting on next Sunday evening will be led by the pastor, the officers-elect will be installed.

Sunday services: Prayer meeting at 6:30 a. m., Holy Communion at 11:00 a. m., Sunday school at 1:00 p. m. Preaching by the pastor at 7:45 p. m., subject "The Glories of a Victorious Army." The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society will hold their regular prayer and praise service at the church Wednesday evening.

Quinn Chapel.

Last Sunday was quarterly meeting. Rev. Timothy Reeves, P. E., delivered fine instructive sermons at the morning and evening service to large and appreciative congregations. At the Communion service at 3 p. m. Rev. L. L. Birt preached an able sermon from the text, "What Will You Do With Jesus?" A number of visiting pastors were present. The congregation was very large. Five hundred persons communed. The ladies who have been giving soup to the poor, extend thanks to the many friends who so bounteously contributed donations. One thousand and fifty-four persons were fed and assisted.

The Young People's Improvement Club elected officers last Tuesday night.

The trustees and the members are making strenuous efforts to raise $2,000 (two thousand dollars) on Easter on the mortgage and for the cleaning of the church.