

Bahai Religion Day Slated For Sunday

A record crowd is expected to greet Postmaster Henry W. McGee and radio-TV personality Holmes (Daddy-O) Daylie at the 19th observance of World Religion Day, Sunday at the Chicago Baha'i Center, 116 S. Michigan ave.

The program which will begin at 2:30 p.m., and last through 5 p.m., will feature musical selections, brief talks on the Baha'i Faith and the pouring of tea. An art exhibit of the children's Saturday class is to be displayed.

Postmaster McGee, who rose from a substitute clerk in 1929 to his present position, has distinguished himself as a civic leader, having served as president of the Chicago Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and president reer with station WAAF, now known as WGRT. He is also a commentator on WLS-TV "for Blacks Only" program.

World Religion day is sponsored annually by the United States Baha'i Community. This year Baha'i celebrates the 125th anniversary of the founding of the Faith.

Purpose of the observance is to stress the oneness of all revealed religions and the part that religion can play in bringing about world unity and world peace. Mrs. Kathelynea Kellum is general chairman. The public is cordially invited and there is to be no offering.

Holmes (Daddy-O) Daylie, radio and television figure, will be guest during the Baha'i World Religion Day celebration Sunday at the Baha'i center.

of the Chicago chapter of the National Alliance of Postal and Federal Employees.

Daylie began his radio ca-