

MASSACHUSETTS

BOSTON NEWS

By C. ELLIOTT FREEMAN JR.
 84 Harold St.

BOSTON, Mass., Dec. 4.—Mrs. Carrie Rosser of Tremont St. is in White Plains, N. Y., the guest of her sister, Mrs. M. Alexander.

Dr. J. W. Trent, president of Livingstone college, visited here in the interest of the school. While here he was a guest speaker at the Twentieth Century club.

Miss Alice Brown of Tremont St. returned to her home last week after a two-week stay in New York city the guest of relatives.

Mrs. Mary Schuyler of Williams St. returned to the city from Bridgeport, Conn., where she spent the holidays with friends. She was accompanied by Mrs. J. Sheldon.

Luther Montgomery of Townsend St. returned home last week from Philadelphia, where he was the guest of his parents.

Mrs. Peggy Adams of Harrishoff St. returned from New Haven last week, where she was the guest of her parents for Thanksgiving.

Marjorie Henderson, 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Henderson of Worcester St. sustained bruises about the face and body when she was struck by a taxicab Sunday afternoon.

Merton Stevens of Bower St. is in Chicago.

Miss Hattie Russell of Westminster St. has returned from Richmond, Va., where she was the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. B. Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Harrison of Bridgeport, Conn., left Tuesday after visiting Mrs. James White of Harrishoff St.

A musical and literary program was tendered the inmates of St. Monica's home Sunday afternoon by the carriers of Sunshine No. 356 of the I. S. S. The affair was sponsored by Mrs. Bessie Minor.

Among some of those appearing on the program were Miss Pattie Yates, Miss Alice Lovett, vocal soloists; Mrs. Clara Diggs and Miss Juanita Boyd, readers. Miss Ethel Jackson, president of the organization, delivered a brief address to the inmates, after which fruits were distributed by the chairman, Mrs. Edna Senhouse.

Mrs. Nellie Smith of Cunard St. motored to Philadelphia last week to attend the Howard-Lincoln football game.

The John Williams club held their monthly meeting Wednesday evening with the president, Mrs. Viola Alexander, presiding.

While crossing Humboldt Ave. at Monroe St. late Monday evening Mrs. Catherine Burt of Monroe St. received minor cuts and bruises about the body, where she was struck by an automobile after alighting from a street car. The driver of the automobile escaped.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Thomas of 15 Village St. have a daughter born at the Lying-In hospital.

Miss Mary Anderson of Providence left for her home Saturday after spending a few days visiting in Cambridge.

Mrs. Mildred Barnes of Sterling St. returned here last week from Portland, Me., where she visited her sister, Mrs. Minnie Franklin.

Frank James of New York city visited Mr. and Mrs. Wright of Columbus Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Long of Buffalo, N. Y., left Tuesday after visiting Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Long of Compton St., a brother and sister-in-law.

The 30th anniversary of the Boston Guardian, of which William Monroe Trotter is editor, was held Wednesday evening at Ebenezer Baptist church. A purse of over $205 was presented to Mr. Trotter.

Among some of the speakers who paid tribute to the guest of honor were Lt.-Governor William S. Youngman, ex-Rep. Rev. Charles L. Page, Joseph J. Hurley, chairman of the school committee; Rev. Oscar Denniston of Oak Bluffs, Mrs. Minnie Cravath Simpson, civic leader, and Dr. Walter O. Taylor. Musical selections were rendered by a quartet from the Union Baptist church under direction of George Chavis.

Letters and telegrams were read from Senator David I. Walsh, Charles Elliott, William Reed, secretary to the governor; Rev. T. S. Harten and others from all parts of the United States. George E. Gordon was master of ceremonies with the local ministers, Revs. C. C. Williams, W. H. Hester, O. B. Quick, D. S. Klugh, O. W. Childers, O. S. Weems, W. S. Ravenell and W. H. Dabbs serving on various committees.

Revs. Brown and Spratt of New Bedford visited here attending the 30th anniversary of the Boston Guardian and also participating on the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Maxey Evans of W. Palm Beach, Fla., left for their home Tuesday after spending six months here as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Mills of 41 Alblon St.

Among the members of the Health guild who attended an address given by Dr. John B. Hawes II, president of the Boston Tuberculosis association on Friday evening at the Touraine hotel were Mesdames Lilla Franco, Mary Crawley, Alice Duncan, Mary Jane Robinson, Lucille Barnes, Josephine Jackson, Mildred Showell, Carrie Wellington, G. Bailey and Miss Ethel Wood. The affair was given in connection with the Boston Tuberculosis association seal sale drive.

The Pythian Temple headquarters of Wellington St. was the scene Monday evening of an entertainment given in honor of the visiting grand lodge and Court of Calanthe officers by the members of the Puritan lodge. A musical and literary program was rendered by Miss Georgia Williams, James Byers, soloists, and Mr. Johnson, reader.

Among some of the speakers introduced by George Williams, master of ceremonies, were: Dr. W. O. Taylor, grand chancellor; Peter Walther, the Pythian commission; J. S. R. Bourne, grand attorney; Freeman A. Perkins, brigadier general of the uniform rank; Matthew Bullock, of the commission; Butler R. Wilson, ex-attorney; L. M. Holmes, Mrs. Nannie E. Walther, grand inspectress; Mrs. E. B. Barco and Oscar Fitzallen, secretary of the endowment department.

Miss Ida Wrenn of San Antonio, Tex., was the guest of honor at a birthday party tendered her Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Sadie Keene of 398 Northampton St. Miss Wrenn was the recipient of many gifts. Bridge was the diversion of the affair. Among some of the guests present were Mesdames Mary Chandler, Martha Lee, Annie Thomas, Gertrude Smith and Mary Monsiaco.

Mrs. Alma Ransom, Miss Bessie Davidson, Miss B. F. Bostick, Sidney Elder, J. N. Anderson and B. Jeff were winners last week at the prize wheel given by the Challenger club at L'Ouverture hall.