

PHYLLIS WHEATLEY.

"A Message of Hope," by Mrs. Ophelia Ward Bush, author and social worker, from Robert Gould Shaw House, Boston, Mass., Thursday evening, March 28, 1912, 8 p. m., at Frederick Douglass Center. Do not miss hearing this, as it will be a rare treat. Tickets are in the hands of the ways and means committee; Mrs. Mary Gales, chairman.

As a very interesting speaker from the visiting nurses' association of this city was on our program, we regret that such a few could brave the storm; therefore, they missed a splendid opportunity of hearing what this body of women are doing for us. Mrs. Belden promised to visit us again. Let us try always to attend our meetings.

The house committee reported everything moving along nicely for the bazaar. All committees have active persons at their head. Remember the night, Tuesday, April 9, at the Frederick Douglass center.

A beautiful, hand-made lingerie skirt, made by Mrs. Martha Walton, will be given to the lucky ticket holder on Thursday night, April 11. Many other attractions at the bazaar.

Miss Frankie Seay, the young pianist, will appear April 9.

We are very grateful to our friends who always remember us by donations. A check for $5.00 from Mandel Brothers, a half-dozen towels from Mrs. Jackson, of St. Paul; a package containing soap, "Gold Dust" and matches from our faithful member, Mrs. Richardson, of 5117 State street.

Mrs. Eelane, of 4555 Champlain avenue, proved herself an ideal hostess. We thank her for her kindness.
