

CLUBS AND SOCIETIES

FREDERICK DOUGLASS CENTER.

The speaker at the meeting Sunday afternoon, Feb. 22, is Mr. Harry Hedge, whose subject will be "Present Responsibilities." Mr. Hedge spent a few weeks disguised as a workingman among the unemployed in the city to learn conditions. He will have an interesting story to tell. Mrs. Seele, recently a citizen of Chicago, will give two musical numbers. The paper read by Mrs. Fannie Barrier Williams before the Chicago Woman's Club at a recent meeting is on file at the center for distribution to those wishing a copy. Saturday morning at 10 o'clock the girls' classes in domestic science, with vocal music. The address at the Center Woman's Club by Mrs. Clara Weston on Palestine was of unusual interest and well attended Tuesday.
