Mount Zion Notes

The Rev. Charles L. Fisk of the Congregational Education society, preached last Sunday. On the same day Mt. Zion issued an anniversary edition of its bulletin in commemoration of the 16th anniversary of the church. The opening even of the anniversary was the reception and dinner by the women of the church last Wednesday. The first speaker during the celebration will be Dr. J. E. Moorland, former international secretary of the Y. M. C. A., who will preach next Sunday morning and will speak at the special evening meeting under the auspices of the Mt. Zion Wednesday, Sept. 21, the Elks band will give a concert with the assistance of some of our best talent. The Williams Singers appear Monday, Oct. 6, and Mrs. Mabel Lewis Imes' Symphony Entertainers Oct. 15. Max Hayes, the labor leader, will be the special speaker Sunday evening, Sept. 28, and Whiting Williams, sociologist and newspaper correspondent, and President Henry Churchill King of Oberlin college Oct. 5 and 12, respectively. The whole anniversary period will be replete with activity on the part of the church constituency, as it gropes its way in the larger field where increased opportunities for service exist. The pastor, the Rev. Harold M. Kingsley, has been away for the past two weeks on a trip to the far West. He returns Friday and will preach Sunday after next. The members and friends will be glad to greet him next Sunday.
