

Debonnaires In Fourth Annual Benefit Tea

Center Discussion On Civic Improvements

One of the most colorful affairs of the current season was a benefit tea given by the Debonnaire Girls Sunday afternoon at the Phyllis Wheatley Home. A mixed color scheme was very beautifully carried out in the table decorations and the corsages of sweet peas worn by each members.

The highlights of the program were: a timely discussion on "Civic Improvement" by Thomas J. Porter; the American Negro and Africa, by Prince Adabayo Olawumi of Liberia; the law of love by Mrs. Robert Lee Moffett of B'hai Institute, Wilmette; and the songs by Miss Eugenia Burbanks. Others appearing on this program were: Mrs. Alpharetta Carr, Louis Terrance, Nathaniel McLin, Rev. Marshall F. Brown, Miss Lucille Williams, Eugene Compson, James Soders, and Juanita Gray. Mrs. Ella H. Mitchell was mistress of ceremonies, while Annice H. Robey was chairman of the program.

Among clubs represented were Les Ritzy Filles, Voguettes, Tuxedo club, Pullman Octet, Rachel Bridge, C. A. A. S. club, Royalettes, Les Chansonettes, Silver Slipper Girls, Aitchpi Invicti, Dashing Senoritas, Gay Cadets, and Skippers.
