

THE BUCKEYE STATE

CLEVELAND NEWS
By ALEXANDER O. TAYLOR
Cleveland Office, 2398 E. 55th St.
Phone Randolph 969

Cleveland Briefs

Robert F. Jones, prominent business man of Columbus, Ohio, was here last week to visit his brother, Charles Frederick Jones, who has been ill at the city hospital.

Miss Pearl Mitchell, 155th St., national president of the A. K. A. sorority, sustained a fractured arm when she slipped and fell on the icy steps of Longwood High school early last week.

Mrs. Mose H. Dixon, 155th St., is out after 10 days' illness with a gripe. The recent announcement in the local press (white) headed "Negro School" has brought forth the wrath of many of the leading members of our press, especially the N. A. A. C. P. The article announced a bazaar for the benefit of the kindergarten of the Church of Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament ("Negro") at Eagles hall Feb. 19 to 21.

Bessie Brown Broadcasts
Cleveland music lovers had the pleasure of listening in on Mrs. Bessie Brown Shaw over WTAM several days ago. Mrs. Shaw has been the recipient of many telegrams and words of praise for her wonderful work on the night in question. Her first successful engagement after this program was a two weeks' run at the Music Box theater, during which Philip Spitalny's great orchestra accompanied her, playing most wonderful music. Her special request, WTAM is preparing to repeat "A Night in Dixie" to that all who care to enjoy it can listen in again on Feb. 18 from 9 to 11:30 p. m.

Charles Wallace Vance, Jr., 2225 E. 74th St., brother of Mrs. H. A. Hunt, Jr., left Thursday for Ann Arbor, Mich., to pursue a course in business administration.

Miss Helen Pegram, daughter of Mrs. H. L. Pegram, 2198 E. 86th St., was married recently to Clarence Martin by Rev. H. C. Bailey.

Mrs. Anna Fowler, Boston, formerly of Cleveland, was a recent guest of Mrs. Grace W. Thompson, Earle Ave. Attorney and Mrs. John H. Ballard, E. 47th St., were in Oberlin Saturday on business.

Robert Shauter, popular clerk in Benjee drug store, 55th and Central, is on the job after recovering from severe burns sustained by an explosion in the basement of the store. "Bob" is one of the leading lights in the Royal Vagabonds, composed of many of our younger smarter set.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Pervall of Richmond, Va., are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Clara Trigg Pervall, to Roy S. Rector Monday, Dec. 15. Rev. C. R. Jones of Cleveland officiated. Miss Pervall is an alumnus of Shaw university, 1924, and has been a social worker in Cleveland and the Christian community center. Mr. Rector is well known throughout the state, being vice president and general manager of the Middle Western Mutual Benefit association of Cleveland. Mr. and Mrs. Rector are located at 7302 Cedar Ave.

Mrs. W. E. Weaver, E. 52d St., was given a birthday surprise party by her husband Friday evening.

Mrs. Mattie Olden, 6213 Quincey Ave., celebrated her birthday Monday, Jan. 26, with the following guests present: Raymond Chablis, 2551 E. 56th St.; J. A. Brown, 2306 E. 59th St.; Miss Aimee Banks, 2442 E. 57th St.; Attorney W. B. Saunders, 3718 Scoville Ave.; Madge Madison, 2421 E. 49th St.; J. A. Davis, 3429 E. 83d St.; Mrs. Mary McDory, 3022 Scoville; Miss Rosa Gooden, 2514 E. 36th St.; R. P. Garling, 2482 E. 35th St.; Mrs. Lovetta Smith, pianist, 2307 E. 86th St.; Dr. A. O. Childress, who rendered vocal numbers. E. 70th St. Tony Boyce, 2167 E. 84th St.; Mrs. Clyde Lay, 2627 E. 65th St., entertained Mrs. Louise Glover, Princeton, Ky. Whist was the pastime of the evening.

Saturday evening, Feb. 7, 36 guests were entertained at a surprise party by Mr. and Mrs. Orville Archer in honor of their aunt, Mrs. Clara E. Russell, at her home, 2228 E. 49th St. The evening was spent in games and music was furnished by Archer's orchestra. After a delightful three-course meal, each guest was presented with a favor. The artistic features of Valentines were displayed throughout the evening. Mrs. Archer proved a charming and thoughtful hostess. Mrs. Russell received many beautiful gifts. Each guest departed wishing her the return of many more such happy birthdays.

One of the most outstanding affairs of the past week was the party given by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cox, Clinton Ave., Saturday, Feb. 7. Thirty-seven guests were served with a delicious luncheon. Games were the pastime of the evening. Each couple left in the wee hours of the morning expressing how wonderfully they enjoyed themselves.

Mrs. William Sherrell, 3006 Quincey Ave., gave a dinner party in honor of Mrs. Louise Glover, Princeton, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Tedford, E. 102d St., had as their guests Mrs. Mildred Hawkins and their little granddaughter, Miss Geraldine Tedford, Dayton, Ohio.

Miss Hazel Martin, 2544 E. 49th St., has as guest Miss Myrtle Dattis, Chicago.

Mrs. Ida Bradford, E. 81st St., gave a birthday party in honor of her mother, Mrs. Ida Fontaine, Tuesday evening.

Miss Laura Lee is reported very ill. Mrs. George A. Myers, Pasadena Ave., was hostess to the Wistaria club Saturday, Feb. 6, her birthday. Guests of honor were J. R. Finley, Mrs. Edna Gregory, Mrs. N. K. Christopher, Mrs. Clayborne George, Mrs. Joe Robinson, Mrs. J. T. Suggs won the first club prize; Mrs. Bessie Thomas, second club prize; Mrs. George, first guest prize, and Mrs. Robinson, second guest prize.

Mrs. Tennis Herrin, 2215 E. 100d St., entertained for her sister, Mrs. Louise Glover, Princeton, Ky., last week. Card was the pastime of the evening. A birthday celebration in honor of Miss Mattie Olden was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Payne, 6213 Quincey Ave., Monday evening, Jan. 26. A three-course dinner was served. Many valuable presents were received by Miss Olden. Addresses these present were Dr. A. C. Childress, 7812 Quincey Ave.; Mrs. L. Smith, pianist, E. 56th St.; Miss Gladys Hughes, who rendered a pretty solo; Mr. and Mrs. William Guess, Raymond Chambliss, J. A. Brown, Miss Anna Banks, Attorney W. B. Saunders, Miss Risa Gooden, W. P. Gearing, Thomas Boyd, 2267 E. 84th St. Excelsior left with a word of praise for having a pleasant evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Tedford, 2222 E. 103d St., were the recipients of many congratulations and magnificent presents in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary from their many friends in Cleveland and elsewhere.

Cleveland Society

Charles Wallace Vance, Jr., 2225 E. 74th St., brother of Mrs. H. A. Hunt, Jr., left Thursday for Ann Arbor, Mich., to pursue a course in business administration.

Miss Helen Pegram, daughter of Mrs. H. L. Pegram, 2198 E. 86th St., was married recently to Clarence Martin by Rev. H. C. Bailey.

Mrs. Anna Fowler, Boston, formerly of Cleveland, was a recent guest of Mrs. Grace W. Thompson, Earle Ave. Attorney and Mrs. John H. Ballard, E. 47th St., were in Oberlin Saturday on business.

Robert Shauter, popular clerk in Benjee drug store, 55th and Central, is on the job after recovering from severe burns sustained by an explosion in the basement of the store. "Bob" is one of the leading lights in the Royal Vagabonds, composed of many of our younger smarter set.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Pervall of Richmond, Va., are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Clara Trigg Pervall, to Roy S. Rector Monday, Dec. 15. Rev. C. R. Jones of Cleveland officiated. Miss Pervall is an alumnus of Shaw university, 1924, and has been a social worker in Cleveland and the Christian community center. Mr. Rector is well known throughout the state, being vice president and general manager of the Middle Western Mutual Benefit association of Cleveland. Mr. and Mrs. Rector are located at 7302 Cedar Ave.

Mrs. W. E. Weaver, E. 52d St., was given a birthday surprise party by her husband Friday evening.

Mrs. Mattie Olden, 6213 Quincey Ave., celebrated her birthday Monday, Jan. 26, with the following guests present: Raymond Chablis, 2551 E. 56th St.; J. A. Brown, 2306 E. 59th St.; Miss Aimee Banks, 2442 E. 57th St.; Attorney W. B. Saunders, 3718 Scoville Ave.; Madge Madison, 2421 E. 49th St.; J. A. Davis, 3429 E. 83d St.; Mrs. Mary McDory, 3022 Scoville; Miss Rosa Gooden, 2514 E. 36th St.; R. P. Garling, 2482 E. 35th St.; Mrs. Lovetta Smith, pianist, 2307 E. 86th St.; Dr. A. O. Childress, who rendered vocal numbers. E. 70th St. Tony Boyce, 2167 E. 84th St.; Mrs. Clyde Lay, 2627 E. 65th St., entertained Mrs. Louise Glover, Princeton, Ky. Whist was the pastime of the evening.

Saturday evening, Feb. 7, 36 guests were entertained at a surprise party by Mr. and Mrs. Orville Archer in honor of their aunt, Mrs. Clara E. Russell, at her home, 2228 E. 49th St. The evening was spent in games and music was furnished by Archer's orchestra. After a delightful three-course meal, each guest was presented with a favor. The artistic features of Valentines were displayed throughout the evening. Mrs. Archer proved a charming and thoughtful hostess. Mrs. Russell received many beautiful gifts. Each guest departed wishing her the return of many more such happy birthdays.

One of the most outstanding affairs of the past week was the party given by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cox, Clinton Ave., Saturday, Feb. 7. Thirty-seven guests were served with a delicious luncheon. Games were the pastime of the evening. Each couple left in the wee hours of the morning expressing how wonderfully they enjoyed themselves.

Mrs. William Sherrell, 3006 Quincey Ave., gave a dinner party in honor of Mrs. Louise Glover, Princeton, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Tedford, E. 102d St., had as their guests Mrs. Mildred Hawkins and their little granddaughter, Miss Geraldine Tedford, Dayton, Ohio.

Miss Hazel Martin, 2544 E. 49th St., has as guest Miss Myrtle Dattis, Chicago.

Mrs. Ida Bradford, E. 81st St., gave a birthday party in honor of her mother, Mrs. Ida Fontaine, Tuesday evening.

Miss Laura Lee is reported very ill. Mrs. George A. Myers, Pasadena Ave., was hostess to the Wistaria club Saturday, Feb. 6, her birthday. Guests of honor were J. R. Finley, Mrs. Edna Gregory, Mrs. N. K. Christopher, Mrs. Clayborne George, Mrs. Joe Robinson, Mrs. J. T. Suggs won the first club prize; Mrs. Bessie Thomas, second club prize; Mrs. George, first guest prize, and Mrs. Robinson, second guest prize.

Mrs. Tennis Herrin, 2215 E. 100d St., entertained for her sister, Mrs. Louise Glover, Princeton, Ky., last week. Card was the pastime of the evening. A birthday celebration in honor of Miss Mattie Olden was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Payne, 6213 Quincey Ave., Monday evening, Jan. 26. A three-course dinner was served. Many valuable presents were received by Miss Olden. Addresses these present were Dr. A. C. Childress, 7812 Quincey Ave.; Mrs. L. Smith, pianist, E. 56th St.; Miss Gladys Hughes, who rendered a pretty solo; Mr. and Mrs. William Guess, Raymond Chambliss, J. A. Brown, Miss Anna Banks, Attorney W. B. Saunders, Miss Risa Gooden, W. P. Gearing, Thomas Boyd, 2267 E. 84th St. Excelsior left with a word of praise for having a pleasant evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Tedford, 2222 E. 103d St., were the recipients of many congratulations and magnificent presents in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary from their many friends in Cleveland and elsewhere.

the Inner Circle 500 club at her home on E. 101st St. Five tables of 500 were the pastime of the afternoon. Mrs. Stakely served a delicious luncheon. Prizes were won by Mrs. Julia Milton and Mrs. Bessie Bowley.

The Social LaGrande club met in the clubrooms, 2377 E. 55th St., last Thursday afternoon, Feb. 5. Arrangements were made for the Valentine party at the residence of Mrs. Smith, 2204 E. 106th St. A dainty luncheon was served by Mrs. Smith.

The "Y-Indus" club held its weekly meeting Feb. 2. The club gave a very pleasant stag at the home of Mr. Foster, 2260 E. 39th St. The various club members acted as entertainers. Francis Goode, vice president of the club, was back at the last meeting after a short illness.

The Hiawatha club will celebrate its 24th anniversary at the home of Mrs. Dan Thomas, E. 53th St., Feb. 17.

The Cleveland Federation of Colored clubs will meet in the Anchor Life building, 2238 E. 53th St., Monday evening, Feb. 16.

Mrs. A. J. Pope, W. 1421 W. 114th St., proved a delightful hostess to the members of the Present Day club and their husbands Friday evening at her home. Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Tuck were present from Oberlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoyle, 4904 Cedar Ave., and Mrs. Lena Franklin, 2241 E. 73d St., were recent host and hostesses to the Ideal club. Mrs. Vella Irvin, 2203 E. 62d St., was also a recent hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Johnson, 9402 Cedar Ave., proved a pleasing hostess to the East End Whist club last week Wednesday. The evening was spent in games and dancing. A delicious lunch was served. Mrs. Guy V. Huffman was to be hostess at the next meeting.

The regular business meeting of the Ideal club was held at the residence of the president, Mrs. Hattie Stewart, 13501 Crennell Ave. After a delightful luncheon served by the hostess the business of the club was taken up. The club donated $25 to the Phyllis Wheatley building fund. Two new members were enrolled, Mrs. S. Ross and Mrs. J. A. Holloway. Members present were Mrs. Hattie Stewart, Mrs. Lula Brown, Mrs. Vella Irvin, Mrs. Nettie Bernard, Mrs. Lena Franklin, Mrs. Carrie Ross and Mrs. J. A. Holloway. The next social meeting will be with Mrs. Nettie Bernard, 2777 Lakeshore Rd., Feb. 17. A good time was had by all. Mrs. Hattie Stewart, president; Mrs. Nettie Bernard, secretary.

Mrs. Viola Lee was hostess to the members of the Royal Doves club at its regular meeting Friday evening at her residence, 7304 Chamberlain Ave. The new staff of officers very efficiently filled their respective places. The business hour was spent in discussing plans for the social to be given by the club, Feb. 20, at 2235 E. 81st St. A delightful lunch was served. Next meeting March 6 at the home of Mrs. Marling Miller, 2217 E. 90th St. Francis Wright, president; Ope M. Worley, reporter.

Business meeting of the Jolly Circle club was held Thursday, Feb. 5, at the home of Earl Calaway, 2232 E. 95th St. A large number were present, and a considerable amount of business was discussed. All committees gave favorable reports. Eight applications were investigated and applicants received in the club. They were Miss Essie Parker, Miss Laura Adams, Miss C. C. Clark, Miss Euphemia Shipe, Miss Lillian Shy, Walter Craighead, Miss Ernestine Robinson and Eugene Miller. The Jolly Circle club and the Thomas Choral club are giving a joint recital Feb. 24 at the Y. M. C. A., E. 22d and Prospect. George Cassidy, president; Norman Harris, reporter.

Mrs. Dora Adams was hostess to the Helping Hand society last Friday.

Miss Dorothy Myers, Pasadena Ave., will be hostess to the Ye-Buz-Fuz club Saturday evening.

The Sunshine club will give a Washington birthday dinner at the Geraldine, 2212 E. 46th St., Feb. 23. Mrs. C. F. Nickens gave a splendid paper for the Women's council last Tuesday night. A speaker from the Antioch Welfare center was well received. In behalf of the deaf and dumb, Mrs. LaPearle Adams, president of the Book and Thimble club, will have charge of the bazaar at the coming bazaar. The Ideal club, Mrs. Hattie Stewart, president, will contribute needle work for the spring bazaar. The Women's council meets the first and third Tuesdays in every month at the Cedar "Y." For the benefit of the N. A. A. C. P., the council has entered Leroy Duncan in the contest.

The Golden Rule club will give a raffle supper at Mrs. Clara Russell's home, 2228 E. 49th St., Thursday, Feb. 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Minnis, 3301 E. 90d St., delightfully entertained the Bonediet 500 club at their residence. A large number of guests were present. Mrs. Minnie Stakely won the club prize and Harry Robinson the guest prize.

The Get-Together club was entertained by Mrs. Ira Frantz Feb. 4 at the Antioch Community center. The club was honored with encouraging remarks from the Rev. and Mrs. Mack T. Williams, Mrs. Thurston and Mrs. H. K. Smith. The vocal selections rendered by Mrs. Williams and Miss Myrtle Weigens were enjoyed. A luncheon was served by the hostess, Mrs. Frantz. Mrs. Bessie Brown is president and Mrs. Corbin secretary.

The Forest City Cricket club and ladies of the auxiliary had quite an elaborate program Thursday evening at the Welfare association. William Weeks, one of the leading members of the club, is still confined to his bed. Miss N. Batson was taken suddenly ill last week. Miss G. Batson is able to be out again after three weeks' illness.

The Assembly Study club met with Mrs. Myrtle Merritt, Ridpath Ave., last Wednesday. The study of political history was an outstanding feature of the program. Miss Magdalene Taylor read an interesting paper on "The Birth of Parties." Next meeting with Mrs. Julia Milton, 12905 Superior Ave.

Mrs. Minnie Stakely was hostess to

Church Notes

Bishop Caldwell was the special speaker at the 12th anniversary services of St. Paul A. M. E. Zion church Sunday. In the afternoon the Rev. Dr. L. H. Brown, pastor of Lane Metropolitan C. M. E. church, spoke and his choir rendered special numbers. The Rev. E. D. W. Bell, pastor, had charge of the services. Bishop Shaw will be the speaker next Sunday.

The York Masons will hold their anniversary services at Gethsemane Baptist church Tuesday, Feb. 17, at 7 p. m. The Rev. William Page, pastor, will deliver the special sermon. The public is invited to attend this service.

Memorial Day for Rev. Martin

St. John's church was filled Sunday afternoon by friends who gathered to pay tribute to the exemplary character of the late Rev. Dr. W. F. Martin, pastor of the Christian church, who died in Washington, D. C., while on a visit last month. Addresses were delivered by the Revs. E. A. Clarke, C. Lee Jefferson, H. C. Bailey, Joseph Evans and D. E. Skelton. The memorial address was delivered by the Rev. F. D. Huchart. Special solo numbers were rendered by Miss Mary Campbell and Prof. G. H. Ambrose. St. Mark's Presbyterian and St. John's Gospel choirs gave several beautiful numbers.

Church News

The brotherhood of Antioch Baptist church will have their annual sermon preached by the Rev. H. C. Bailey, former pastor, Sunday, Feb. 16, at 3:30 p. m. The public is cordially invited. Good music will be rendered by the choir. A. D. Strong, president.

Providence Baptist church, 4309 Broadway Ave., which was originated four years ago with a small membership, has had a very successful year. The church raised $5834.83. This amount met all the indebtedness of the church for the past year. The Rev. J. W. Bibbins, pastor; John A. McKinney, secretary, and J. D. Rowell, reporter.

Mt. Zion—A large crowd attended the evening service, the first in a series, Sunday, when the pastor spoke on "Race Pride in Cleveland." A lively discussion followed, participated in by Attorney H. S. Chauncey, Attorney William Greene, Attorney Thomas Fleming, Attorney A. H. Martin, Mrs. Mahel Garvin-Clark, Attorney Hazel Mountain Walker, and W. H. Walker, secretary Negro Welfare association. The general theme was the combating of race prejudice and segregation. The following special events are announced: Feb. 17, banquet, Attucks Republican club; Feb. 23, Elks union meeting; Feb. 25, Maude Cuney Hare and William Richardson recital; March 5, musical tea in parlors of church; March 15, concluding rally for $3,000 on church debts, with Sunday dinners by Mrs. Suggs' group March 1 and Philathea class March 15. Miss Ada Croghan will give her "Bazaar on Negro Progress" May 5. The funeral of Mrs. Robert Baker was held at the temple last Tuesday. The pastor officiated, assisted by Mrs. Smoot, superintendent of the Christian and Missionary alliance. The following babies are entered in the N. A. A. C. P. contest: Benny Rotts, official Mt. Zion baby; Betty Fairfax, Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity baby; Cecil Walker, T. M. T. M. class baby.

At the midweek meeting last week the Camp Fire girls gave the dinner and Mrs. M. J. Kinsley led the prayer meeting. Next Wednesday night the dinner will be given by Miss Harris' class, Joseph Seale, Sr., leader. Feb. 25 dinner by Missionary society, Mrs. J. T. Snuggs, leader.

Hotel Guests

Majestic Hotel—Miss Lena Threadgill, Miss Pauline Thornton, Cleveland; Mr. and Mrs. Russell, Sam Davis, Miss Mahel Wells, Miss Hazel Moore, Miss L. E. Butler, Miss Louise Robinson, Miss C. White, Miss Grace Stewart, James Phoenix, Lawrence Ford, Lionel S. Gore, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. B. Townsend, New York; Rupert Marks, Detroit; Chas. Olsen, Detroit; H. A. Wells, St. Louis; Mr. and Mrs. C. Foster, Akron; Frank Hall, Chicago; Louis Williams, Chicago; James Sikes, Pittsburgh; Mr. and Mrs. W. Fozzie, Toledo; Joe Peterson, New York; Daniel Scott, Williamson, W. Va.; Misses Lydia and Anna J. Hughes, Detroit; Ky.; J. W. Morrison, Columbus, Ohio; David P. Luck, Akron, Ohio; Andrew

A. Berry, Chicago; Robert F. Jones, Columbus; Wm. H. White, Jacksonville, Fla.; J. K. Jennings, Jacksonville, Fla.; Mamie Swanigan, Akron, Ohio; Edgar Hucker, Dayton, Ohio; H. Guy, Dayton, Ohio; Miss Lucille Sublette, Dayton, Ohio; Walter James, New Orleans; John Walters, Detroit; O. Davis, Roy Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brown, Chicago; Van Johnson, Cincinnati; James Morris, Youngstown, Ohio; J. B. Moore, Cleveland; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tarune, Chicago; Wm. B. Wormby, Beaver Falls, Pa.; John C. Daniels, Chicago; Mrs. Burke Russell, Cincinnati; L. Rosezell, Cleveland; Miss Dorothy Lawson, Miss Frances Watson, Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. Hines, Pittsburgh; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Matkins, Akron; E. N. Taylor, New York; Mr. and Mrs. White, Mr. and Mrs. L. Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Sharpe, Pittsburgh; Mr. and Mrs. Van Epps, Mr. and Mrs. Brooks, Chicago; G. Cole, Mr. and Mrs. DeLoe, H. Bradley, Pittsburgh; Bill Crista, Akron; Mr. and Mrs. E. Mason, Sharon, Pa.; A. Warren, Toledo; Edward J. Webb, Buffalo; Miss Anna M. Foster, Cleveland.

Music Notes

The Thomas Choral club elected new officers for this year as follows: P. L. Boyd, president; J. W. Jamieson, vice president; R. W. Cassidy, secretary; T. Henry, assistant secretary; J. C. Knox, treasurer; C. W. Rice, librarian; J. Boyd, sergeant-at-arms; J. Weaver, business manager; C. W. Boyd, director; Mrs. Emma Robinson, soloist; W. Craighead, pianist. The club is busy as ever. Don't forget Feb. 24 at the Y. M. C. A., a concert will be given by this club and the Jolly Circle club.

MASONIC NOTES

Cuyahoga chapter No. 36, R. A. M., conferred the most excellent master's degree Saturday evening, Feb. 7.

Brother Robert Jones, 32d degree, of St. Mark's lodge, Columbus, Ohio, visited Prince Hall Masonic club last Thursday evening.

Grand Patron J. H. Weaver set up a new chapter of the Eastern Star in Elyria, Ohio, Jan. 31. The name given the new chapter is Sidonia. Members of the Order of Eastern Star from Sandusky, Oberlin and Lorain were present and rendered valuable assistance. The Masonic orchestra entertained at the Prince Hall Masonic club last Saturday night. Refreshments were served and a very pleasant time was had.

W. W. Massingale, 2350 E. 49th St., is quite ill.

Card of Thanks

Mr. and Mrs. Louie S. Jones, 2256 E. 101st St., wish to thank the Rev. W. B. Sullivan and the Altar guild of St. Andrew's Episcopal church, Cleveland, Ohio, for their kindness during the illness and death of their niece, Mrs. Dorothy V. Martin, wife of Dr. Robert S. Martin, the Hiawatha and Research clubs and the many friends for their beautiful flowers and kind words of sympathy.—Adv.

With the Clubs

The Trinity club met at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nutter, 7114 Carnegie Ave. The evening was pleasantly spent in various games. The club was served beautifully by the host and