

Juliette Buford Elected To Senior Citizen Hall Of Fame

Mrs. Juliette B. Buford, 1380 Hyde Park Blvd., has been elected to the 1966 Class of the "Senior Citizens Hall of Fame" for the City of Chicago.

Nominated by the Business and Professional Womens Group of Sears YMCA, Mrs. Buford will receive her Citation at special ceremonies in the Council Chambers of the City of Chicago during the Week of May 10-20.

Mrs. Buford is a member of the Bahai Faith. She recently made a pilgrimage to Haifa, Israel, visiting the Shrines and International House of Justice of the Bahai Faith.

En route she visited Bahai Centers in Africa, Middle East, and Europe, encouraging Bahai Pioneers who are teaching in these areas. Because her faith teaches the Oneness of Mankind, and Justice to All People, Mrs. Buford has exemplified this creed in her daily life.

She dedicates her time and efforts, both physical and financial to the cause of personal self-development among people who might otherwise surrender to the hopelessness and despair of their situation in life.

Among the achievements of Mrs. Buford are the organization of community groups for adult education, civic responsibility, and youth guidance and leadership.

She is noted for her record of efficiency in organizing "Operation Pride" neighborhood improvement campaigns in Lawn-dale, and for her work on the Public Relations Committee of Sears YMCA. She also supports the Sears Camp-A-Kid program, sending one or more youngsters to camp each year.

Mrs. Buford was born on February 13, 1897 in Montgomery, Alabama. She has filled her years with service to her community, and to her faith.
