

ciation for the Advancement of Colored People, New York; J. J. Rhoads, president, Bishop college, Marshall; Sherman Scruggs, president, Lincoln university, Jefferson City; J. W. Seabrook, president, Fayetteville State Normal college, Channing Tobias, New York; W. J. Trent, president, Livingstone college, Salisbury; Bishop Noah W. Williams, St. Louis; Dr. Louis T. Wright, chairman, board of directors, National Association for Advancement of Colored People, New York; Bishop R. R. Wright Jr., Wilberforce.

32 Leaders Join In Backing World Bill Of Rights

NEW YORK—Thirty-two Negro leaders are among the 1326 signers of a statement issued by the American Jewish Committee urging an International Bill of Rights to serve as a post-war guarantee of religious and individual rights for all persons throughout the world just as the American Bill of Rights is a guarantee of individual liberties for Americans.

Negro leaders signing the declaration include Bishop A. J. Allen, Cleveland; William A. Bell, president, Miles Memorial college, Birmingham; Eugene A. Clark, president, Miner Teachers' college, Washington, D. C.; Rufus E. Clement, president, Atlanta university, Atlanta; Miles W. Connor, president, Coppin Teachers' college, Baltimore; A. W. Dent, president, Dillard university, New Orleans; M. W. Dogan, president, Wiley college, Marshall; Bishop W. A. Fountain, Atlanta; E. Franklin Frazier, Washington, D. C.; Lester Granger, executive secretary, National Urban League, New York; Bishop J. Arthur Hamlett, D.D., Colored Methodist Episcopal church, Kansas City;

M. L. Harris, president, Philander Smith college, Little Rock; G. L. Harrison, president, Colored Agricultural and Normal university, Langston; Leslie P. Hill, president, Cheyney Training School for Teachers, Cheyney; Langston Hughes, New York; Dr. Norma Jensen, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, New York; Canada Lee, New York; Edward S. Lewis, executive director, New York Urban League; Dr. Alain Locke, head, philosophy department, Howard university, Washington, D. C.; B. E. Mays, president, Morehouse college, Atlanta; Dr. Adam Clayton Powell Jr., Congressman-elect, New York; Bishop R. C. Ransom, Wilberforce; Jacob Reddix, president, Jackson college, Jackson; Sidney Redmond, board of directors, National Asso-