Cleveland, Ohio, Dec. 16.—The Women's Republican club meets every Monday in the Central Ave. bath house. Mrs. Thomas W. F. Phillips, president; Miss Alta Moss, secretary.

R. W. Ragnall, New York city, addressed an enthusiastic audience at Cory M. E. church Sunday afternoon on "New Methods for the New Negro," and was most favorably received. Attorney Charles White, president of the local branch of the C. O. C., was master of ceremonies.

St. James A. M. E. church burned its second mortgage for $18,500 Sunday night and there was great rejoicing. It has done most commendable work since taking over the pastorate of St. James and the membership is growing by leaps and bounds. Dr. Walker is not only a financier but also an orator. At 4 p. m. the memorial window in the front which portrays the subject of the Good Shepherd was dedicated to Major and Mrs. W. F. Anderson through whose moral and financial efforts St. James has assumed an outstanding position among the churches of the East End. St. James was purchased from Trinity Congregational church (white), for $57,000. Only $25,000 first mortgage stands against the property, a record showing less than one year's work. An effort will be made to reduce this mortgage to $12,000 in 1928. Over $1,000 was raised Sunday it is reported.

The Lend-a-Hand Dramatic club will present the comedy, "A Cheerful Liar," at St. Paul's A. M. E. church this Thursday evening under the direction of Arthur Spencer.

The funeral of William Henry Fields, Sr., took place from the family residence, 1634 E. 15th Ave., Tuesday, Dec. 6, Rev. Russell Brown, pastor of Mt. Zion Temple of which Mr. Fields had been a member, officiated. Mrs. Elizabeth Fields moved to the "Spirit World" several years ago. Surviving their father are: William Henry Fields, Jr.; Mrs. Mima Harris, Misses Georgia A., Cora E. and Emma J. Fields. Burial at Lakewood cemetery in charge of Slaughter Brothers, funeral directors.

Leo Bridges, 35, 2616 E. 34th St., was electrocuted when he stepped on a high tension wire that had been blown down by the high winds last week in Orange Ave. and E. 32d St. The funeral was held Monday afternoon, J. W. Willis and company, funeral directors, being in charge.

Attorney Alexander H. Martin has been honored with appointment on the executive committee investigating the borough plan of government for Cleveland. On the same committee are such men as President Joseph H. Alexander of the Cleveland Railway company; Alfred Smith, vice president of the Guardian Trust Co.; Thomas Monks, vice president of one of our banks; Rev. Dan F. Bradley, pastor Pilgrim Congregational church, and others (white), of similar standing in the business and religious world of Cleveland and vicinity.

Persons who are accustomed to giving news to Alexander O. Taylor, reporter, on Sunday, will kindly enclose same in envelope properly addressed and leave at the Douglas Drug store, 40th and Central, and same will be called for. This applies to next Sunday, Dec. 18.

Mrs. Angelee Wallace Dead
The many friends of Mrs. Angelee Wallace of 2203 E. 69th St., will be pained to learn of her death at the residence of her son, Joseph Daniels, 240 W. 11st St., New York city. Her remains were shipped to Cleveland for the funeral held from Tridstone Baptist church, Rev. Yewell, officiating. The aid society and the A. U. K. and D. of A., of which she was a member, turned out in a body. The deceased possessed a wonderful personality and was beloved by all who knew her. She lived a Christian life and was a kind and tender hearted to all with whom she came in contact. She leaves to mourn her demise, eight children, seven of whom were at the funeral; 33 grandchildren, one sister, one great grandchild, other relatives and a host of friends.

Mount Zion Notes

Rev. Russell Brown, pastor of Mt. Zion, delivered the memorial sermon of Starlight lodge, I. B. P. O. E. W., of Painesville Sunday last.

Next Sunday the thanks offering will be made. It will be the last financial effort of the year and great reports are expected. Rev. and Mrs. Brown and family, together with many others will unite with the church. Rev. John R. Scottford, recently returned from Fisk university and former pastor of Glenview Congregational church, will be the speaker at the morning service. The choir, under the direction of Miss L. Pearl Mitchell, chorister, and Mrs. Edgar Blair, organist, will render the Christmas music at the morning service Dec. 25. The Sunday school, under the leadership of Mrs. Inez Fairfax, and the Young People's society, under the leadership of Miss Violet G. Manuel, will have charge of the Christmas musical program.

Music Notes

By HARRY E. CHOR
St. James A. M. E. choir appeared in its usual monthly musicale Dec. 11, assisted by some of the best artists. Margarette Sanford, director; Miss Margarette Sanford, organist; Miss Jennette Ford, a clever singing, dancing and playing little artist, has been quite a hit from WHK and WJAY broadcasting stations. She will appear soon at some of the local white theaters.

The Zephur trio broadcasted from WJAY station Dec. 6. Personnel: Mrs. Gladys Smyles, A. G. Crist, Jr., and J. M. Smyles, with Mrs. Jackson at the piano.

The Musical Magpies played at Steubenville and Blair, Ohio, week of Dec. 5, with Wellsville, Ohio, Geneva and Elmira, N. Y., following. Personnel: Tom Davis, Sherman Copeland, George Early, Joe Cisco, Harry Ford, Ellihu Cobb, Cecil Stephenson and Billy Howard.

The Master Singers appear on WHK broadcasting station twice each month on a contract. They are making quite a name for themselves.

On Nov. 30 at St. John A. M. E. church Mrs. Cleota Collins Lacey, the real songbird, appeared in recital. She has never been heard to better advantage. To my mind she is the most improved singer to appear in Cleveland for some time. She possesses every quality that an artist needs. She was assisted by George Edwards, a very pleasing violinist, with Mrs. Kathleen Holland Forber, and Miss Martha Swann at the piano.
