

Bahais To Mark World Religion Day

Chicago's Postmaster Henry W. McGee will be honored guest at a tea observing the 19th annual World Religion Day, Sunday, Jan. 19 from 2:30 to 5: p. m. at the Chicago Baha'i Center, 116 S. Michigan ave.

World Religion Day is sponsored by the United States Baha'i Community. Its purpose is to stress the oneness of all revealed religions and the part that religion can play in bringing about world unity.

The program will feature musical selections, brief

McGEE talks and the pouring of tea by committee members. Postmaster McGee who is presently a member on the Board of Directors for the Community Fund of Chicago and a board member on the Conservation Community Council for the Hyde Park-Kenwood Urban Renewal Project, will be introduced by David W. Kellum, chairman of the Chicago Baha'i Local Spiritual Assembly.

The public is invited to join in the fellowship at this meeting. There will be no solicitation of funds.

Bahais believe that only a spiritual reawakening in the world, can change the attitudes of people of the world.

Baha'i'llah whom Bahais consider the Bearer of God's Word for this age, and who suffered banishment and imprisonment for his teachings, wrote "Oh Children of Men, Regard ye not one another as strangers....The earth is but one country and mankind its citizens."

McGEE