FREDERICK DOUGLASS CENTER.

3032 Wabash Avenue.

Sunday, Sept. 5, at 4 p. m., Mrs. A. S. Steele, founder and manager of the Steele Home for Needy Children at Chattanooga, Tenn., will speak on "Work Among the Neglected Children of the Southland." Mrs. Steele is widely known for her life's work of unselfish service in many southern cities where orphanages have been established by her. She used all her means and was successful in soliciting large sums from contributors for the work. Several musical numbers will follow. Mr. L. Lloyd Stone, of the Y. M. C. A., visited the Boys' Club Monday evening. He was delighted with the summer's attendance, it being unusually large.
