

Mr. Woodward, 4739 State street. Business being short at this meeting, the greater part of the evening was spent socially. The next regular meeting to be held March 23, 1916, at the home of Mr. Mossette, 4019 State street.

The Elite Social and Charity Club met with Mrs. Bertha L. Hensley Friday afternoon, the 17th. There was an enthusiastic crowd present, at which time they arranged for the social at the Phyllis Wheatley Home, Friday, the 24th. Mrs. Hensley seems to be proud of the success of the club.

The Bailey Press Club is preparing to open a large campaign for membership. Further information may be obtained at 3638 State street, or call Douglas 5295.

The Golf Club, of which Walter Speedy is president, met at his home, 35 W. 22nd street, and perfected arrangements for the coming season. Several new members were added to the club.

At Frederick Douglass Center Sunday, March 26, at 4 p. m., Miss Samuella Crosby will give a radiopian lecture on the Panama Exposition, where she spent much time last year. Several musical numbers will follow. Mrs. C. P. Woolley addressed a large body of women in a fashionable neighborhood during the past week, setting forth the principles of the Center, when they agreed it was the best of her practical talks.

Giles Charity Club met in the home of the president, 3600 Wabash avenue, last Friday when a lively business meeting took place. The general discussion on social welfare relating to adult crime was well presented by the members. They give a benefit at Douglass Center Friday, April 7, at 8 p. m. Mrs. Ezella Carter, president.

Wednesday, March 16, 1916, the Y. W. C. A. Board of Managers tendered a reception to the auxiliary of white ladies helping in the Y. W. C. A. Reports were read from each department, which showed great progress and was a surprise to even its own members. There were present many prominent women of both races. Tuesday, March 21, 1916, the ministers of the city were invited in counsel for the betterment of the institution, who offered many useful and encouraging suggestions. After inspection of the building light refreshments were served. Everyone departed well pleased with the work. Eva Jenifer, president.

MISSIONARY LECTURES.

Corinth, Miss., March 24.—The Rev. Nesbit, returned missionary from Korea, lectured at Mt. Moriah M. E. Church last week. His talk on the customs of the people there was very interesting. * * * The Parent-Teachers' Association held a very interesting meeting at the Primitive Baptist Church. The Rev. Tucker preached a fine sermon. * * * The Woman's Missionary Society of St. Mark's Baptist Church entertained a number of friends last Friday night. Mrs. D. A. Halcombe installed the following officers: Mrs. E. B. Mayfield, president; Mrs. Bettie Petty, vice president; Mrs. Ella Jennings, secretary; Mrs. Nora B. Battle, treasurer. Delightful refreshments were served. * * * Saturday afternoon of last week, the friends of Miss Bennie Ruth Sheffield gathered at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Rachel Lee, to honor her 12th birthday. The affair was very enjoyable. She received many beautiful presents.