

FREDERICK DOUGLASS CENTER.

Easter Day will be observed with a program of unusual interest. Professor George Burman Foster of the University of Chicago will speak on "The New Thought About Easter," and Miss Nannie Mae Strayhorn will render some piano selections. Miss Strayhorn is frequently heard in piano recitals at the American Conservatory and is a musician of both charm and distinction. Election day was observed with an afternoon "at-home" by the Woman's Club, which was well attended. Reports were heard from the various precincts in the second ward, where interest centered around the candidacy of Mr. Griffin, who made a surprisingly good run as independent candidate, representing the colored residents of the ward. The movement for a colored alderman in this ward is well under way. Great credit is to be given to the newly enfranchised women for this result, who worked early and late with an enthusiasm which never wavered, and which will not die out because of a defeat which points so surely to victory in the near future.
