

Hear the ensemble performers of the piano at Quinn chapel Monday evening, Nov. 6, under the direction of B. Emmanuel Johnson, assisted by Clarence Cameron White of Boston, Mass., violinist; Mr. Hugh Buchanan, tenor-baritone; Mrs. Ida Stokes Baylor and others. Admission 25 cents.

The Choral Study club of Chicago will present S. Coleridge Taylor's "Bon Bon Suite" for the first concert of the season at Institutional church Monday evening, Nov. 27. Mr. Gerald Tyler of St. Louis, Mo., will sing the baritone role. Tickets, 35 cents, may be secured from members.

One of the most enjoyable Sunday program is scheduled for Oct. 15, 4 p. m., at Frederick Douglass Center, 3032 Wabash avenue. Persons of the highest musical ability will appear on the program, among whom will be heard Mrs. Cone's singing class, Mrs. Wm. B. Anderson, Mrs. Clara Hutchinson and Prof. Ed. Morris.

Mrs. Teresa C. Johnson, 3734 Rhodes avenue, has as her guest Miss Mary Ashby of Toledo, O.

Mrs. Tray Geeter and daughter Madorah of Jacksonville, Ill., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall, 4338 Wabash avenue.

"Guide for Health"—A valuable treatise on diseases of women and how to effect their cure; non-surgical. Dr. Goodwin, specialist; address or consult Mrs. Clara Lawson, representative; office hours, 9-10 a. m.; 146 West 27th street; phone Calumet 1013.

The Ways and Means society will meet at the house of Mrs. Hester Kennedy, 3548 Armour avenue, Monday evening at 8 o'clock, Oct. 23.—Mrs. Clara Studymire, president.

Will Cowan, 3550 Forest avenue, is seriously ill.

Miss Mae S. Catlin, 3410 Cottage Grove avenue, who has been ill for four weeks, is able to sit up this week.

Miss Berdie Stephens, 3605 Forest avenue, who is visiting friends in Racine, Wis., was taken seriously ill and it was feared it would be necessary to bring her back to Chicago for operation at Provident hospital.

Mr. Alex Stephens, 3605 Forest avenue, was called home suddenly to the bedside of his sister in St. Genevieve, Mo.

Miss Julia Nesbit of Athens, who will soon complete her course in dress-making and tailoring at Valentine's, is stopping out in Englewood while in the city.

"Bon Bon Suite," by the Choral Study Club of Chicago and Mr. Gerald Tyler of St. Louis, Mo., Monday evening, Nov. 27. Watch these columns.

Mr. C. P. Craft of Charleston, S. C., is the guest of his son, Harry Craft, 3605 Forest avenue.

Theophile C. Grand Pre, attorney and counsellor-at-law, arrived in the city Wednesday from Mexico City, Mexico.

Mrs. J. Wallace, the hair dresser of 3247 State street, is much better.

Mrs. Felix Schaffer and Mrs. Wilson Johnson will open up a millinery parlor at 3247 State street Saturday, Oct. 21, with a full line of hats at moderate prices.

The marriage ceremony of Miss Adelaide S. Alexander to Mr. George E. Duncan, Jr., is to take place Tuesday evening, Oct. 24, at 8 o'clock at Bethesda Baptist church. At home after Oct. 28 at 3741 Rhodes avenue.

Do you want good plain rolls? Ask for Wallace's.

Rumor has it that Edward Bailey is soon to be married to a young lady who recently visited here.

Miss Arminta Baker and Benjamin Donegan will in the near future join hands in connubial felicity.

Mrs. Johanna C. Snowden, after a delightful visit in St. Louis, has returned home.

Mrs. Hattie E. Franklin, 3643 Vernon avenue, is now located at 3115 Prairie avenue.

The way to get good bread, ask for the "Kentucky Loaf."

The Frederick Douglass Center, 3032 Wabash avenue, will give an informal reception Friday evening, Oct. 20, in honor of the distinguished artist, Madame E. Azalia Hackley.

The Clifsonian Whist club had its first meeting Oct. 14 at the residence of Mrs. Susie Lowe, 310 Paulina street. An elaborate luncheon was served. Mrs. Marguerite Hudson won first prize and Mrs. Sadie Cave second prize.

Mrs. Lambert, 3109 Prairie avenue, has moved to 3115 Prairie avenue.

Mrs. William Ball of 3812 Prairie avenue left the city Tuesday for Kansas City for a visit with her husband and friends. She will be the guest of Mrs. C. Coles, 1108 Highland avenue. Mr. Ball is in charge of cafe car between Davenport, Ia., and Kansas City.

Mrs. Charles Alexander was given the custody of her two boys, Charles and Stewart, also a separate maintenance, Oct. 3, in the court of domestic relations.

The Foresters' orchestra will give a yallowe'en dance Tuesday evening, Oct. 31, at Masonic hall, 3954 State street. Admission, 25 cents.

Mrs. R. Bass, 5244 State street, is visiting relatives and friends in Zanesville and Springfield, O.

Mr. Fonde Holly, the well known sketch artist, who has been visiting for a week in New York city, has returned home and reports a great time.

Mrs. C. Washington of 3722 Calumet avenue held an at home in honor of Mrs. W. C. McCard of Baltimore, Md., on Sunday evening from five to nine, which proved a very pleasant affair. Many reminiscences were recalled by Mrs. McCard's many girlhood days associates. Mrs. McCard left for her home Monday afternoon.

Mrs. William Bronston of 6534 Vincennes avenue is again very sick after returning from her trip to Indianapolis, Ind.

It will be regretted by the many Chicago friends of Mrs. Joseph B. Crun, who is now living in St. Louis, Mo., that she is quite sick and was to have undergone an operation on Monday last.

Hon. John E. Eubanks of Cleveland, O., is to reach the city on Sunday, Oct. 22, where he will remain for two weeks as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Waring, 4529 Vincennes avenue.

L. W. Benjamin of Boston, Mass., will arrive in the city for an indefinite stay Thursday, Oct. 26. He will be the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Hall during his visit.

The Frederick Douglass Center is putting on extensive repairs, a new roof, rebuilding of chimneys and two coats of paint on the entire front, which improves its appearance.

The W. A. Wallace Bakery Co. make the "Kentucky Loaf" and Wallace Rolls.

Mr. Thomas Wallace Swann, after making an extensive tour of the western states, has returned to the city considerably worn by the trip. He contemplates spending the winter in a warmer climate.

The Parents' club of Kent school held its first meeting of the year Wednesday evening with a good attendance. The president, Mrs. Joseph Thomas, carried out an interesting program, Mr. A. H. Roberts making the leading address.

On last Saturday morning, Oct. 14, Mrs. Charles E. Bentley entertained a party of ladies at a breakfast in honor of Mrs. Daniel H. Murry of Washington, D. C., which was a fitting tribute to one of the most charming women that ever visited our city. The place cards at the table were miniature pictures of Mrs. Murry which, from the expressions from several pleasant little impromptu speeches, will always be cherished by those fortunate enough to be present. Mrs. Murry left Saturday afternoon for her home after one of the most delightful visits possible.

Mrs. David McGowan of 4809 Langley avenue entertained in honor of Mrs. Daniel H. Murry of Washington, D. C., at an autumn luncheon and whist on last Friday afternoon, Oct. 13. The decorations were of autumn foliage, which made a very pretty effect. Mrs. Murry was presented with a handsome embroidered pillow as a souvenir of the occasion. Mesdames G. C. Hall, A. C. Harris and Miss Willie Hart were tied for the first prize and through the cutting route Mrs. Harris won, which was beautifully embroidered pillow cases. It was a delightful affair and Mrs. McGowan, as usual, proved a charming hostess.

Mr. Clarence W. Allen of Mobile, Ala., was the guest of Julius W. Avendorph Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. He saw "Follies of 1911" Tuesday night and was the guest of Dr. George Hobbs at the Sox and Cub game Wednesday.

Mrs. L. H. Coleman was the designer and maker of some of the elegant opera wraps worn at the Hackley recital Oct. 19.

Wilmot A. Johnson, the man who made famous J. Madison Bell's poems, is in the city, having been present at the Hackley recital with two prominent citizens of Lansing, Mich.

Photographer Peter P. Jones spent several days in Springfield at the photographers' convention during the week. He came back smiling. Look out! What's up, Pete?

Mr. W. J. Porter, a well known citizen of Indianapolis, Ind., is a guest at the Keystone hotel.

Mrs. Elizabeth Alexander has issued invitations for the wedding of her daughter, Adelaide S., to Mr. George E. Duncan, Jr. The ceremony will be performed Tuesday evening, Oct. 24, at Bethesda Baptist church at 8 o'clock. The couple will be at home, 3741 Rhodes avenue, after Oct. 28.

Eleventh annual oyster supper given by the King's Daughters, Sunshine Circle No. 2, Tuesday, Nov. 7, from 12 a. m. to 12 p. m., at Douglass Center, 3032 Wabash avenue. Admission including oyster stew, 10 cents. Regular dinner, 25 cents.—Mrs. R. Moss, leader; Mrs. A. Maupin, secretary.

On Wednesday V. G. W. M., Floyd Ross of St. Louis, Mo., held a union meeting at the True Reformers' hall, and Thursday night was given a public entertainment. Among those who took part were Mr. Ross, Rev. J. J. Chappelle, Ella May Toombs, Mary Tolliver, Mrs. Lou Ella Young and Irving Jackson. Mr. Floyd Ross and Mr. Bailey are touring the state.

Mr. Will H. Beeler, transfer and store king of Danville, Ill., came down especially to attend Mme. Hackley's recital, and said to a Defender reporter: "I will ever remember this treat as a beautiful bouquet in my life's history."

The Green Lilly Millinery, 128 East Thirtieth street and 3142 State street, has on exhibition a full line of the latest styles of fall and winter hats. You are invited to inspect them.