

THE BUCKEYE STATE

CLEVELAND NEWS

By ALEXANDER O. TAYLOR
News Office 2525 Central Ave.
Phone 2219
Circulation Office 2363 E. 55th St.
Phone Rand. 3380.

Cleveland, Ohio, Jan. 27.—Mrs. Rosa Williams, wife of R. B. Williams, 2525 E. 55th St., died Sunday morning, leaving her husband, a son, Edwin, and a brother, Charles. Mrs. Williams was an active member of St. John church until taken ill a year ago. Funeral services Thursday at the J. W. Willis funeral home.

The funeral of Alonso Black of 2525 E. 55th St. took place from St. John church Thursday of last week.

The Frederick Douglass Republican club has been organized with the following named officers: Attorney Lawrence O. Payne, assistant police prosecutor, president; Assistant County Prosecutor Simon C. Glenn, vice president; Attorney Harry B. Jackson, secretary; Attorney James W. Gasaway, assistant secretary; James W. Gilroy, treasurer; Ralph H. Taylor, sergeant-at-law. The board of trustees consists of the officers together with Attorney R. N. Dillard, Attorney N. L. McGhee and Attorney N. S. Minor.

Rev. L. G. Jordan, general missionary and historian of the National Baptist convention, filled the pulpit at Antioch church Sunday. The pulpit committee met Monday night for the serious consideration of calling a pastor by the first of the month. Rev. J. M. Lowery officiated in the absence of the regular pastor.

Gerald May, 2564 E. 55th St., 11 years old, was reported to be missing from home last week.

Weaver Case Reported Feb. 8. Connelly, Jess J., indicted for the murder of William C. Cook and Marsteller (white) asking for a new trial for Joseph Weaver, under sentence to the electric chair Jan. 20, but who was given another respite of 30 days after Alex. Munro, his friend and a lifer in the penitentiary, confessed that Weaver had not murdered William Russell at the Midland Steel Products plant.

Last Thursday evening the East End Political club held its meeting at the Cedar Y for the annual election of officers and other matters, such as amendments to the constitution and arrangements for the annual banquet. The following officers of the club were unanimously chosen: Councilman Clayborne George, president; Mr. Cora Grant, first vice president; Edward Ramsey, second vice president; Charles White, secretary; Mrs. Paul Whitty, assistant secretary. The club is planning to hold a big mass meeting in the near future. The main speaker will be the new Hare councilman of Youngstown, Mr. Vaughn.

Society

Mrs. F. D. Webster of E. 93d St. Thursday afternoon entertained the ladies of the Lincoln Embroidery club at her palatial home. After the transaction of the regular business program, a delicious repast was served by the hostess in her spacious dining room, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The guests were Mrs. W. H. King and daughter, Miss India Ruth, and Mrs. Alexander Taylor. Mrs. Cornelia Nickens is president of this wide-awake club.

Rev. Reverdy C. Ransom, bishop of the Kentucky and Tennessee diocese of the A. M. E. church, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McIntire of E. 55th St. while in the city attending the coming conference of the National Federation of Protestant Churches. He preached sermons at St. John and St. James Sunday morning and evening respectively. On Sunday afternoon, with Bishop Clemens, spoke at the forum of St. James church.

Mrs. Blanche Maddox and niece, Miss Ida Mae Gantt, have returned to Chicago after a visit with relatives, Dr. and Mrs. P. H. White and family, Mrs. Maddox and Dr. White are sister and brother.

Familiar Show People Here. Among the familiar faces seen at E. H. Dudley's "Ginger Snaps" at the Globe theater last week were: Albert Hunter, a former Cleveland citizen, known as "Brother Albert," who teams with "Shammy" E. Dudley, Jr.; Robert W. Adams and Marion Simpson, dancers; Claude Hopkins' band and the following chorus girls: Sue Parker, Bobbie Collins, Dorothy Moppins, Mable Hopkins, Florence Force, Max Dixon, Edna DeHeste and Mary Clemons. The show made a big hit and a return engagement is requested.

Ethel Waters and her "Africana" are billed for the Colonial theater next week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McIntire have as guests for the week their sister, Mrs. Araminta Dukette, and niece, Mrs. Jefferson Marshall of Chicago.

Aids of Cory church are being entertained during the week by the following hostesses: Aid No. 1, Mrs. Clara Williams of E. 55th St.; Aid No. 2, Mrs. Jessie Beach of E. 55th St.; Aid No. 3, Mrs. Otha Johnson of E. 55th St.; Aid No. 4, Mrs. Marie Rochester will be hostess to Aid No. 2 at her home, 2183 E. 55th St.

At Mt. Zion Young People. The young people of the Christian endeavor of Mt. Zion temple gave a "Get Luck" supper Jan. 17. Each person brought his share of the supper, that contribution being whatever his or her last name began with. There was lots of fun in ascertaining what the supper consisted of. Misses Martha Harris, Violet Manuel, Jewell Trigg and Ethel Calhoun played hostesses. Philip Jackson of the Y. M. C. A. led the games and took every one old and young, back to childhood. Many of the "Hi-Y" boys were out. They were Roy Backner, Everett Owens, Lamar Jones, Kenneth Morris, Julius Robinson and Edgar Wright. Misses Mildred Kidley, Betty and Jean Fairfax and Fred Jackson were among the other guests. The social dancing and other entertainments that will be enjoyable and this one. The Christian endeavor meets every Sunday evening at 7.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. King of Pasadena Ave. had as a guest the first part of the week Rev. Harry Thomas, pastor of the Baptist church of Oberlin. Rev. Thomas is a graduate of Oberlin college.

Mrs. B. B. Southern of Adams Ave. was hostess to the Friday Afternoon Study club. Mrs. W. S. Biggs is president.

Lester Stewart, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stewart of Crennell Ave., passed from junior to senior high with the highest mark in his class. He is the only Race member of his class. He leaves Rosa Cleveland junior high and enters John Adams senior high.

The Jay Dee club held a very pleasant meeting at the Cedar Y Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Ruby Ramey, wife of Attorney Basil F. Ramey, is very ill with double pneumonia at their home, 2260 E. 103d St.

The Present Day club will meet Saturday of this week with Mrs. Amy Blue of E. 51st St. The meeting was postponed last week.

Mrs. Grace Lucas of E. 80th St. was hostess to the Book and Thimble club at its business meeting. The next meeting will be held with Miss Beanie Early of E. 111th St.

The Minerva Reading club held a very interesting meeting with Mrs. Hazel Mountain Walker of E. 83d St. Each member gave a talk on the live topics of the day, making the program very entertaining. The next meeting will be for the anniversary dinner. Miss Bertha Blue is president of the club.

E. F. Montgomery of E. 85th St. is able to be out after a severe attack of la grippe. Mr. Montgomery is director of St. John Sunday school orchestra.

Mrs. Christine Smith, wife of the late Bishop C. C. Smith, was among the visitors at the city tender the Federation Churches Comity conference at Old Stone church. She is a member of the national missionary board in New York city.

Miss Virginia Jones of E. 90th St., junior high school student, has been ill the past two weeks, but was able to resume her studies Monday.

Mrs. John Green of E. 64th St. left Thursday morning to spend the week at Sandusky and Elroy.

The Second Emmanuel Dramatic club met at the home of Lucius Adams, 2263 E. 74th St. The play "The Prodigal Son" is being given Friday evening, Jan. 27, at Jones chapel, E. 77th St. and Quincy Ave. Jan. 24 was parents' night with the club. Walter Winlock, reporter; Lucius Adams, assistant reporter.

Hannan Council No. 144, A. U. E. and D. A. said to be the largest and best controlled council in the state of Ohio, moves into its new quarters, Erby Hall, 2335 E. 55th St., on Feb. 1. This hall is becoming very popular among the local bodies, Sir Knight Thomas E. Butler, the very popular captain of Ada Harris company, A. U. E. and D. of A., has just received his commission as national deputy. His duties will be to organize, set and install councils in Ohio. W. M. Clark, reporter.

The Get-together club met with Mrs. Adelle Hill of E. 64th St. Wednesday, Jan. 18. Everyone seemed to enjoy the sewing in the afternoon. A three-course luncheon was served by the hostess. Next meeting at the residence of Mrs. Annie J. Jurnigan, 2340 E. 51st St., Feb. 1. Mrs. Alice Drysdale, secretary; L. McDonald, reporter.

The trustees board of Antioch Baptist church presented its president, Councilman Clayborne George, with a beautiful fountain pen as a token of esteem. Rev. J. M. Lowery made the presentation Sunday.

The Bee-Hive class of Antioch Sunday school will have a house-warming at the home of its teacher, Mrs. Sophia Baker, 2174 E. 103d St., Sunday, Jan. 29, from 4 to 5 p. m.

Edward Chaffin, Jr., of E. 69th St. arrived from Los Angeles, Cal., last week, where he was called by the serious illness of his father, Edward Chaffin, Sr., who is reported to be convalescing.

The Swastika Glee club held its regular meeting Tuesday at the Cedar Y. It was decided to give a musical at the Cedar Y on Saturday in February. We are depending upon the parents of the glee club girls as well as the public to attend the musical and help to make it a success and encourage the young people's efforts. Carrie Sims, president; Dorothy Fisher, reporter; Mrs. Grace Willie Thompson, directress.

The dinner given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Welch, E. 55th St., hostess, Mrs. Terry and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Welch of Wilberforce, was a distinct social success. P. D. Partridge of Cleveland was also present.

Dr. T. C. Hendricks, Chicago, is home for a short quiet rest. He is the guest of his mother and brother, Mrs. Brock and Dr. F. H. Hendricks, 2253 E. 55th St.

The Royal Vagabonds club installed their new elected officers at a dinner in the beautiful new dining room, 2183 E. 55th St., Saturday evening, Jan. 21. Attorney F. C. Lyons was toastmaster. "Pep" speeches from the newly installed officers, also from members, they were listened to with great interest.

A year-ending party given by Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Praxler of E. 105th St. and Columbia Ave. proved to be one of the smartest and most successful affairs of the holiday season. The house was artistically decorated with flowers and furnished by Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Harbour. Refreshments were plentifully served to 50 or more guests who enjoyed whist and "danced 'til dawn."

Miss Cleota Collins Lacey, who has charmed a number of Cleveland audiences since her return from Europe where she took a special course in voice, we are pleased to announce she has decided to cast her lot in Cleveland. She has opened a studio at 2183 E. 55th St., second floor entrance, where she will be happy to receive her many friends.

Give Manless Wedding

The manless wedding given under the auspices of Marie Leone and Sophia councils, A. U. E. and D. of A., at Cory M. E. church, was one of the most enjoyable affairs of the new year. The bride was Mrs. Mary J. Robinson; groom, Mrs. Mattie Hensley; maid of honor, Miss Louise Gorman; best man, General George H. Hildebrand; Louise Sherrell, Ruby Dillard, Victoria Harris, Anna Thomas and Mrs. L. Kemp; groomsmen, Mrs. Effie Penn, Mrs. Lucy Jones, Mrs. Nulu Mills, Mrs. Earnestine Anderson and Mrs. Anna Mary White; ringbearer, Master Charles Elcheson; flower girls, Miss Jaulita Thomas and Miss Geneva White; veil bearers, Miss Nadine Martin and Miss Shirley Watkins; Mrs. Lillie Belton was the preacher and led the knot, and Mrs. Graham made a typical father. The directors of the unique affair were Mrs. Della Offer and Mrs. Cora Mitchell. John Nelson was chairman of the committee.

The Junior federation met Thursday, Jan. 19, at the P. W. A. on E. 46th St. Plans were completed for the anniversary musical tea to be given at the Metropolitan club the first Sunday in March, the club being a year old at that time. A debate is being arranged for one of the regular meetings. The federation welcomes any visitors at the meeting the first and third Thursdays. Meetings are opened at 4:30 p. m. Twenty members were present at the last meeting. Everyone remembers the banquet and the tea in March. Encourage the girls of the Junior Federation of Girls clubs, affiliated with the women's federation. Mrs. Thomas W. Fleming, wife of the councilman, is to speak for the federation at its first Thursday in February. Alice Green, president; Dorothy Fisher, vice president; Julia Gants, secretary; La Oliver Myers, reporter.

The Iris 500 club met at the residence of Mrs. Frankie Shumake. The first prize was won by Mrs. J. M. Simms, the second by Mrs. Alma Stewart. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Susie Sellers, 2222 E. 49th St.

Dr. Beatrice Hubbard returned from a delightful trip among relatives in New Orleans and several parishes of Louisiana.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Smith delightfully entertained at their home, 2272 E. 89th St., honoring Mrs. Christine Sharp, recently graduated from the Cleveland School of Embalming.

The Gamma Tau club will give its anniversary soiree at the Caterers club on E. 40th St., Jan. 31. The affair which promises to be the most resplendent in the history of the organization will be open only to members, their company and parents. Many of the city notables will be present. Frederick Williams is president of the club and Dr. W. P. Saunders, the leader.

Mrs. John Cyrus of E. 83d St. was hostess to the I. B. club at her home last Friday afternoon. A delicious repast was served by the hostess. Among the guests was Mrs. Araminta Dukette of Chicago, who has written a poem and dedicated it to the None Such club, husbands of the I. B. club.

Outstanding among the musical numbers rendered by the choir Sunday morning was "Walk Together Children," by J. Rosamond Johnson, under the direction of Carroll L. Scott. Mrs. Anna Moore and Mrs. Augusta Edwards Brown rendered a very beautiful number, entitled "Hallelujah Chorus." The Glee choir quartet rendered "Beulah Land" with wonderful impression, under the direction of Robert Crowler.

Mrs. Margaret Anderson of 84th and Central continues ill but is reported to be improving slowly.

The busy workers class, No. 12, of St. John S. S. met at the home of the president, Mrs. McKee, with the president presiding. The acting chaplain took charge of the devotional part of the program followed by the transaction of the regular routine of business, the reading of minutes, calling the roll and paying dues with Bible quotations, reports of committees, unfinished and new business, social hour with Mrs. Thomas in charge, visitors received and introduction, then the evening's program begun with Mrs. Todd at the piano; recitation, Mrs. Viola Johnson; solo, Mrs. Estelle Carter; origin of the class, Mrs. Eliza Scott. Teachers at this time a three-course repast was served, followed by piano number by Mrs. Todd; recitation by Mrs. Lacey; "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," dramatized by Mrs. Chattman; solo, Mrs. Margaret Jackson accompanied by her son, Master Ben Jackson; Mrs. McKee at the piano; remarks by the teacher, Mrs. Scott. A vote of thanks was extended to the hostess and her husband. Meeting adjourned Sunday, Feb. 21 at the home of the secretary, Mrs. Pope. New members, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Neasey.

Mrs. Kelly Jackson, 2253 E. 51st St., delightfully entertained a number of friends at her home Saturday night in honor of her twentieth birthday. Dancing and cards were enjoyed until a late hour after which a sumptuous repast was served by the hostess. Mrs. Jackson was the recipient of a number of beautiful and useful presents.

Mrs. Charles Munson, 2253 E. 56th St., had as guest last week her sister, Mrs. Charles Logan of Youngstown. Mrs. Logan, little daughter and two aunts motored to Cleveland for the week-end to return with Mrs. Logan.

Mrs. Caffey Buried

Mrs. Mattie L. Caffey, 2216 E. 82d St., who was seriously wounded by a crazed son-in-law on the night of Jan. 2, died at Charity hospital Sunday, Jan. 15. The funeral services were held Thursday at Tried Stone Baptist church. Mrs. Caffey leaves to mourn her loss, a husband, Sandy Caffey; two daughters, Mrs. Sandy J. Andrews, wife of the murderer, and Rosebud Caffey, all of Cleveland.

Mrs. Gertrude Smith and Mrs. Elele Jackson, both of Miles Heights, are sick.

C. C. Jackson, E. 63d St., veteran private car steward on the New York Central lines, is very ill at his home. His son Wesley Jackson, arrived from Chicago to be at his bedside.

The many friends of Mrs. Reginia Fowler, 2204 E. 85th St., wife of the late Robert Fowler, were pained to learn of her death the first of last week. Interment in Oberlin, where her mother was buried only three months ago. The deceased leaves two daughters, Frank and Arthur Spencer, to mourn her demise.

Dr. A. L. Boone Honored

Siloh Baptist church, its membership and friends tendered their new pastor, Dr. A. L. Boone and family, formerly of Texas, a reception in the church parlors Monday evening of last week. On Sunday, Jan. 15, Rev. Dr. Boone was installed formally as pastor of the church. Dr. L. E. Williams, Chicago, president of the national Baptist convention, preached the special sermon. Other speakers during the day were Dr. George Lawson, associate pastor of the Church of the Master (white), Euclid Ave. at 90th St.; Revs. Allen, Hawkins, who had charge of the afternoon program; F. M. Washington and Ribbles. The banquet and reception was under the direction of F. G. Martin. Among the speakers on the program who extended Dr. Boone and family a hearty welcome, Assistant Police Prosecutor Lawrence O. Payne, master of ceremonies; Councilman Clayborne George, Dr. Franklin Walker, Cincinnati; Sheriff E. J. Hanratty, Assistant County Prosecutor S. C. Glenn, Assistant Prosecutor John Lutheringer, Dr. E. A. Bailey, Judge Barr, Dr. E. J. Gregg, councilman; Judge Eastman, Rev. J. E. Wilson, Rev. D. H. Sharp and several others. Mrs. Amanda Waddell recited from Dunbar and special music was rendered by the orchestra. To Rev. Sylvester Williams of the Christian Community center is due unstinted praise for arranging the program for the installation services and reception. One thousand two hundred and thirty-seven dollars and twelve cents was reported by the clubs at the rally.

Mount Zion Temple

Dr. M. Halliday, executive secretary of the extension boards of the Congregational church, was the speaker at the morning service at the temple. A large and appreciative audience greeted him. Rev. Russell Brown, pastor, will attend the Ohio pastors' convention in Columbus this week. He is member of the youth committee of the convention.

The Philanth class will be the guest of Mrs. Zella Derrett Tuesday at her residence, 2264 E. 104th St.

Among the new teachers in the church school are Misses Vivian Howard, Beatrice Wright and India Ruth King. Under the leadership of the superintendent, Philip Jackson, many things are being planned.

Phyllis Wheatley Association

The City Federation of Colored Women's Clubs of Cleveland held its regular monthly meeting Monday, Jan. 16, in the form of a luncheon at the home of the new Phyllis Wheatley association, 4450 Cedar Ave. Luncheon was served at 12:30 in the new cafeteria on the second floor, after which the ladies adjourned to the girls' parlor on the main floor for the regular business session. The attendance was large and a very enthusiastic meeting was held. Officers of the club are as follows: President, Mrs. Lemora Gibson; vice president, Mrs. Madeline Early; recording secretary, Mrs. Mae Boney; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Mary White; treasurer, Mrs. Beadie Crawford.

William Pickens, noted orator and writer, was a visitor at the Phyllis Wheatley association during the past week.

T. Arnold Hill, industrial secretary of the National Urban league, made a visit to the new Phyllis Wheatley home while in the city.

The girls' work department of the Phyllis Wheatley association is promoting a dance to be given at the Caterers' association, 2216 E. 40th St., Friday evening, Jan. 27.

The regular monthly meeting of the Sigma Gamma Itho sorority was held in the Phyllis Wheatley association Monday evening, Jan. 16, at 7 o'clock. "Recreation in the Home" was the subject of the fourth lecture in the series being conducted by the Mothers' club of the Phyllis Wheatley association. This lecture was delivered by H. C. Byrd, director of the Cleveland Recreational council, Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Phyllis Wheatley association, 4450 Cedar Ave. More than 60 people were present and the subject was very ably handled by Mr. Byrd. Mrs. Hattie Lee sang "This is My Task" very beautifully. The next lecture will be on "Character Building" by W. L. Newstetter, the second Tuesday in February.

A religious program entitled "The Keeping of the Light," will be presented by the industrial department of the Phyllis Wheatley association, Mrs. Elizabeth Elliott in charge, Sunday, Feb. 12, at St. John's church.

Under the auspices of the house committee, Mrs. Bertha Austin, chairman, the new Phyllis Wheatley association will have a general house warming on Thursday, Feb. 2. Elaborate plans are being made to make this an occasion of interest and entertainment to all who attend. A rare musical program is promised, including such talent as a solo by Augustus Grist; a trio by Mrs. Smyles, Messrs Smyles and Grist; a dramatic reading by Miss Junetta Forbes, and several numbers by the St. John quintet.

Bishop Phillips Entertains

The beautiful home of Bishop and Mrs. C. H. Phillips of Drexel Ave., was the scene of a very brilliant gathering last Tuesday evening when they entertained about 200 friends in honor of the bishop's birthday. A splendid program, varied, but most entertaining, was rendered by friends of the bishop and the family, among whom were Ex-Senator John P. Green and Rev. Brown, who delivered addresses paying tribute to the splendid character and success of the host. Miss Pearl Mitchell and Mrs. R. H. Brown gave musical numbers and Mrs. Anna Mae Jefferson, who gave several readings from Burns and other poets whose birthdays occurred in January.

The Royal Vagabonds elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Atty. J. Richard Baylor, president; Crosby Ramey, vice president; Eugene Cheeks, secretary; Atty. Fred D. Boschboro, corresponding secretary; Walter Myers, treasurer. This being one of the leading social organizations fostered by the leading young men of the city, plans were considered for putting on one of the most varied programs this year in the history of the clubs.

Louie Jones Sends Greetings

In a letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louie S. Jones of E. 101st St., Louie Vaughn Jones, the talented Cleveland violinist, who is in France, sends New Year's greetings to all his friends. It is interesting to note that he, with Opal Cooper, the famous tenor, and Charles Lewis, the popular pianist from Yale university, had the distinct honor of appearing at a private tea at the home of Duchess De Malakof of Paris, France, before Her Highness Princess Marie Eugene and Princess Beatrice, the two daughters of the king and queen of Spain. Both expressed themselves as most highly pleased with the program rendered. Mr. Jones' address is 58 Rue La Bruyere, Paris, IX, France.

Mr. and Mrs. Millard P. Case, formerly of 2247 E. 96th St., have moved into their new home, which they recently purchased, on Taylor Rd., East Cleveland. Mr. and Mrs. Case are two of our most thrifty and progressive citizens.

Jovial Whist Club

Mrs. Essie H. Prentice was the charming hostess to the Midway Jovial Whist club Monday evening, Jan. 16, at the home of Mrs. Estelle Brown, 2279 E. 94th St. Mrs. Prentice is expecting to leave us in the very near future to join her husband in Pittsburgh, Pa.

The meeting with Mrs. Hazel Thomas at her lovely home, 5803 Longfellow Ave., was quite a success in every respect. The next meeting the club will be with Mrs. Mercedes Shield, 2302 E. 79th St.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Meridith of Painesville, Ohio, were the afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Brown Sunday, Jan. 15.

Mrs. Essie H. Prentice had as her guest for a few days her husband, William Prentice, Pittsburgh, Pa.

The Twilight Whist club met at the residence of Mrs. Blanche Jones, 2347 E. 33d St., Jan. 14. Whist was the evening's pastime. The first prize was awarded to Fannie Cheatham and Mrs. Mamie Herndon; the second to Mrs. Mae Maceneale and Mrs. Beulah Stewart. Mrs. Blanche Jones presented the president with a gift from the club.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Georgia Jordan, 2760 E. 51st St. Mrs. Ruby Jackson is ill at the City hospital. Mrs. Margaret Burns, president; Mrs. Wilma Bradshaw, secretary; Mrs. Blanche Jones, treasurer.

Miss Alyce Winlock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Winlock, Louisville, Ky., has returned to her home after spending the holidays with her uncle and aunt. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Winlock, 10006 Cedar Ave.

Mrs. L. Adams, 2321 E. 85th St., is reported very ill in a hospital. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Amy Lewis, 2250 E. 85th St., has returned to the city after spending the holidays with her sister, Mrs. Sadie Flader of Salem.

The Get Ready club gave a very successful social Friday evening, Jan. 20, at the home of Mrs. Florence D. Cochran, 2195 E. 85th St.

Hon. and Mrs. Harry E. Davis had as their guest during his brief stay in Cleveland, Dr. Locke.

Harlan Club Elects

The Harlan club, composed of 35 or more of the attorneys of our group in Cleveland, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Alexander H. Martin, president; Chester Gillespie, first vice president; Charles W. White, second vice president; Louise Bridges, secretary-treasurer; John D. Wilkerson, assistant secretary. The board of trustees includes John D. Ballard, Mr. Frye, R. N. Dillard, Frank C. Lyons and R. S. Chambliss. Hon. Charles Houston, Washington, D. C., addressed the body on "Legal Education."

Bernice Crowler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crowler of Ruth Ave., with her talented young friends, has been requested to repeat her program at Cory M. E. church, 25th and Scoville Sts., Monday evening, Jan. 30, at 8 o'clock, under the auspices of the Young Women's Missionary society of the church. Mrs. Roxelle Lloyd, president; Rev. S. very talented and promising pianist, her every appearance being highly appreciated.

Mrs. Sallie Glenn, 6410 Ruth Ave., is reported very ill at St. Rinal hospital. She is a member of Camp No. 10, American Woodmen.

Rev. Alfred Hughes, D. D., secretary of the church extension board of the M. E. church, Philadelphia, Pa., filled the pulpit at Cory Sunday and lectured Monday evening to large audiences.

Music Notes

By Harry Ford

Miss Marion Anderson, the Race's foremost contralto, is having great success in Europe, her stay there is indefinite. We wish her much success.

The famous Harmony Trio, under the direction of T. Wade Lane, in a very unique turn, were quite a hit at Keith's Palace theater the week of Jan. 16. The turn has the other Keith time to follow. Some step, girls, keep up the good work, other may follow.

The ever busy Musical Maples continue to hit on all the best time. They were home for a few days last week. The turn will appear here soon at one of the fine theaters.

Mrs. Della Paul, the little soprano, of Painesville, Ohio, was a week-end visitor in the city last week.

"Tokio," the new revue of Irwin Miller, presented at the Globe theater last week, was one of his best. Some real talent in the show.

Max Beanie Phoenix, one of our first rank pianists and teachers, was seen out after a very serious operation. She will be back at her duties very soon.

Mrs. Cleota Collins Lacey, the songbird, appeared in another recital Jan. 17, at St. James A. M. E. church. It was a real treat to the many listeners.

Mrs. Kathleen Holland Forbes was at the piano and organ and was at her best.