

Delta Sigma Theta Sorors Plan Reception For Heads

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Dec. 22—Atty. Elsie Austin, assistant to the Recorder of Deeds in Washington and president of the Delta Sigma Theta sorority, will be honored with a public reception when she visits her family at Christmas time. The affair will be given by the two local chapters, Zeta and Gamma Sigma. The affair will also honor the midwest regional director, Mrs. Madeline Robinson, teacher at Stowe school and chairman of the board of management of the Y.W.C.A.

The reception will take place on Tuesday, December 26, at the Manse hotel. The general arrangements are in the capable hands of Attorney Austin's lifelong friend, Miss Blanche Kalfus, and promises to be one of the social highlights of the holiday season. The sorority is intensely proud of its brilliant young president, who was the first Race woman to finish at the Cincinnati Law school and has made an enviable record as a public speaker.

Prior to her present position, Attorney Austin held the responsible job of assistant to the attorney general of Ohio. Recently, her speech at Howard university brought much enthusiastic acclaim from faculty and students. The honoree, Mrs. Robinson, is one of the outstanding leaders in civic and fraternal affairs in the Queen City.

The public which has so generously responded to all efforts of Delta, is being cordially invited to share in this evening of cultural pleasure. The two presidents are Mrs. Mark K. Weatherly of Gamma Sigma, and Mrs. Rube Pryor of Zeta. The chairman is Mrs. Reseda Payne.
