THIRTY THREE persons interested in ecumenism participated in the Baha'i Temple tour recently. Located in Wilmette, Ill., the temple-the House of Worship-is a symbol of hope to men and women who want to live in a united and peaceful world.

Tourists from many different parishes and other places in the Chicago area enjoyed a sumptuous brunch before the tour at Fanny's on Simpson St., in Evanston, Ill., called the "World's Most Honored Restaurant."

A listing of the Baha'i Temple tourists was released by the tour co-ordinator, Mrs. Annetta Washington who was assisted with arrangements by Mrs. Marybell Graham, president of the Altar Society of St. James parish, from where the tour originated and Mrs. Evalina Allen and other committee members.
