

Miss Lula Hobbs of Mobile, Ala., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank S. Reed, 3849 Dearborn street. She is now stopping with her brother, Dr. W. C. Hobbs, on the west side, 222 North Leavitt street.

Mrs. A. A. H. Brown entertained on Tuesday in honor of her house guests, Miss M. A. Arnold and Miss M. H. Cox of Hartford, Conn., and Mrs. Frazier of New York city, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Gaul.

Mrs. H. B. Sloan and Mrs. A. P. Brown entertained at a musical in honor of Miss A. M. Higginbotham of Boston, Mass., and Miss F. R. Brown, Houston, Tex., Friday, August 25, at Appomattox club.

Capt. Fred Ball of 3104 State street is sick at Provident hospital.

Mr. Vance Anderson, with his best man, Banker Jesse Binga, are in Washington on a particular business. Mr. Anderson was married on Thursday night. The party left at once for Atlantic City, Boston and the White mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Phillips (Ajalie Thomas) passed through the city on Thursday from West Shore resort, Mich., en route to their home at St. Louis.

Mr. J. Lincoln Derrick, San Francisco, Cal., D. S. C. of Northern California, member K. P. Marechal lodge No. 4 and secretary and manager of the Western Outlook, paid the Defender a call during the week.

Mme. Mary Burnside, 3624 1/2 Forest avenue, the dashing widow of many years, is taking Connerville, Ind., by storm. She will begin her fourth week's stay on Monday. She has attended several lawn parties and a few dancing parties in her honor.

Corporal Benote Lee, Eighth Illinois, Co. F, was corporal of the guard on Governor's day at Springfield on Thursday.

Mr. Moses Samuels, 6501 Rhodes avenue, is returning to the city from Oakland, Cal., with twenty-four jars of balmy breeze and two baby seals.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bryant of 4313 Langley avenue are spending their vacation in Benton Harbor. From there they will go to Clinton, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Allen, 3160 Wabash avenue, are entertaining this week Dr. C. M. Wade and daughter of Hot Springs, Ark., and Mrs. Maggie Phoenix of Rock Island, Ill.

Miss Prima A. Fitzshuttler of Louisville, Ky., is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Mitcham, 3600 Wabash avenue.

The Palace restaurant, which recently opened its doors at 2701 State street, opposite Mott's Pekin theater, is serving a modern home bill of fare that can't be beat anywhere. Mr. C. T. Street, who has opened this restaurant, is a man of wide experience, having served as "chef" in some of the leading hotels of the country such as the Lorraine hotel of Philadelphia and Langham and Young's hotels, Boston, Mass. He is serving the best coffee and creamery butter.

Miss Pauline Hayes of Louisville, Ky., is visiting her uncle, Will Dorsey, at 3243 State street. Mr. Dorsey is the popular pianist of the Monogram theater and arranger and director of the musical department of the Blood-Koehler music company.

Mrs. John Keen and Mrs. A. H. Hayes of Grand Rapids are the guests of Mrs. Frank Savington of 4732 State street. They are on a two weeks' visit.

Charles P. McGill, Roy Smith, Harry Lee and John P. Berry, visitors from the east and friends of Johnny Jones, the actor, were much pleased with their introduction and conference with Mr. Russell of the Defender and Freeman.

Mr. C. T. Street slipped and sprained his ankle while alighting from a street car.

Mrs. Annie Harrison of 705 East 40th street, gave a card party in honor of Mrs. Cora Quincy of New Orleans. Four courses were served and the dining room was nicely decorated. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Bullock, Mr. and Mrs. St. James, Mrs. Seaborn, Dr. Turner, Dr. Bradley, Prof. Buchanan, Miss Turner, Miss Collins, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ginn, Mrs. Maud Brewer and Miss Bessie Yancy.

Jas. T. Brevington, Jr., has been elected an honorary member of the Goats.

Mrs. Erina Jonee and her niece, Miss Ada Lou Mitchell, left for a ten days' visit in Grand Rapids, Mich., Thursday noon. Miss Mitchell will be at the piano at the wedding of Miss Marguerite Goins Wednesday evening, Sept. 6. They will be the guests of Mrs. Emma Ford during their stay in Grand Rapids.

The way to get good bread, ask for the "Kentucky Loaf."

Mr. Raymond J. Williams of New Castle, Pa., left for his home Thursday evening after a delightful stay in our city for two weeks as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. David Manson.

Mrs. Etta Conway of Peoria, who has been visiting Mrs. Beaugard F. Moseley, left over the C. & A. Ry. Wednesday for home and hubby via Springfield, where she will spend a few days taking in the sights and visiting the Eighth I. N. G., now encamped in the capital city.

Miss Julia Grandison, 229 High street, Evansville, Ind., spent ten days' vacation in Chicago and was the guest of Mrs. John Simmons, 3824 State street.

Grace and Bethel, bitter rivals for the leadership of the Presbyterian Brotherhood Baseball league, will play Saturday afternoon, Sept. 2, at Washington park. As the pennant in the southern division of the league will depend greatly on the winning of this game both clubs are expected to play good ball. Reeves and Majors, who met in an eleven inning pitchers' duel several weeks ago, will in all probability work in today's contest.

Great ball game Sunday: Leland Giants vs. Chicago Giants and Louisville Cubs at Schorling's park, 39th and Wentworth. Game called at 2 p. m.

At the Frederick Douglass Center Sunday, Sept. 3, at 4 p. m., two vocal numbers will be rendered by the following chorus: Mrs. Winfrey, Mrs. Peterson, Miss Williams, Mrs. Walton and Miss Maude Williams. Piano solo by Mrs. Henry Barber of Toledo, O. The address will be given by Mr. Edward A. Lightfoot on the Young Men's Christian Association.

Grace won from Quinn chapel last Saturday by the forfeit route, the latter nine having disbanded for the season.

Mrs. Belle Patton returned home Tuesday morning after a three months' stay in Los Angeles, Cal., visiting her mother and son.

We assumed from the many times that Julius N. Avendorph was seen down the "black way," say nothing of the number of invitations he received for breakfasts and dinners during the absence of Mrs. A., he certainly was in the hands of his friends every minute, yet there is a broad smile on his face, as Mrs. A. arrived home Thursday evening.

Mrs. Peggy Kelly of Mobile, Ala., the mother of Aleck and Fred of this city, died Wednesday. The two sons left for their old home to attend the funeral.

Mr. D. W. Rodgers of Birmingham, Ala., has arrived in the city to join his brother in the restaurant business.

Tuesday night Miss Dora Johnson entertained at her residence, 5830 Wabash avenue, in honor of Miss Jennie Noel of Nashville, Tenn. Miss Noel and her mother, after a delightful visit of several weeks, left for their home on Friday.

Mrs. Madeline R. McFarland, our popular young milliner, 4732 State street, has one of the prettiest display windows on the south side.

Mrs. James M. Kelley, 3722 Armour avenue, left Tuesday for a visit to Boston, Mass.

Mrs. Maggie Bass, 3722 Armour avenue, spent the week at the popular Michigan summer resorts.

Miss M. Cue of New Orleans, Miss Daisy Simms of Cincinnati and Mrs. Florence Bell of Lexington, Ky., are the guests of Mrs. Frank Waring, 4529 Vernon avenue.

Miss Nichols and Miss Robinson gave a tea party at their home, 5747 Lafayette avenue, last Thursday in honor of Mrs. Richardson.

Miss Adelaide Williams visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Hudson, in Indianapolis, last week.

Dr. and Mrs. Daniel Williams are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. McGhee of St. Paul at their summer home near Amery, Wis.

The W. A. Wallace Bakery Co. make the "Kentucky Loaf" and Wallace Rolls.

Mrs. Rosella Edwards, 3333 State street, is at Provident hospital, where she underwent an operation by Dr. George C. Hall. Mrs. Edwards is the mother of Miss Gladys Edwards, the soloist.

Miss Jessie Mays, a popular school "marm" from St. Louis, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Blackwell, 3755 Forest avenue, for about ten days past. It was reported that the young lady was to return home this week but the young men have decided that the day before school opens is time enough for her to reach home.

Do you want good plain rolls? Ask for Wallace's.

Mrs. W. J. Mollette entertained at home, 3345 Vernon avenue, Thursday evening at whist, introducing her guests, Mesdames Byrne and Washington and Miss Vivian Daniel. Among those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Goldston, Mr. and Mrs. L. Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. Irving, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Seams, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Kelly, Mrs. Lee Hamilton, the Misses Eliza and Mattie Caldwell, Miss Lula Belle Goldston, Mr. Joseph Wilkeson, Lucien Willets of Aberdeen, Miss, Mr. John Gordon. Friday afternoon Mrs. Daniel Simpson entertained the visitors at luncheon.

Mr. Morie Collier was in the city a few days this week en route to his home in Louisville, Ky., from a visit to Indianapolis, as a delegate to the Knights of Pythias convention.

Mrs. Charles Guess and little daughter Millie, 5043 Dearborn street, are visiting relatives and friends in Burntwood, O.

Miss Alice Garnett, 3832 State street, has as her guests her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Starkdale of French Lick Springs, also Mrs. Wm. Moore, Mrs. Ida Lloyd and Mrs. Maggie Richardson of the same place.

Mrs. H. C. Prentiss, 3457 Dearborn street, has returned from a ten days' visit to Ottawa Beach.

"Guide for Health"—A valuable treatise on diseases of women and how to effect their cure; non-surgical. Dr. Goodwin, specialist; address or consult Mrs. Clara Lawson, representative; office hours, 9-10 a. m.; 146 West 27th street; phone Calumet 1019.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex McEwen have moved from 5010 Dearborn street to 4930 Wabash avenue.

Mrs. Frank Pawell, 5008 Dearborn street, and Mrs. Will Sloan, 5011 Dearborn street, thoroughly enjoyed their visit to Indianapolis and were tireless workers for the success of the Knights of Pythias convention.

Mrs. Emma Marshall, 13 West 50th street, and family are the guests of her mother at her home in Lexington, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Upshaw have returned from their outing at Benton Harbor, Mich., so pleased that a well known real estate agent has an order for a cottage of their own.

Mrs. Phil Milligan, 5008 Dearborn street, left Saturday last to visit her sister, Mrs. Brown, wife of one of Louisville's most prominent physicians.

Mrs. C. C. Cary of Evanston left Sunday night for her old home, Oakley, Kans., and also Denver and other points in Colorado.

Mrs. Hattie E. Franklin of 3643 Vernon avenue, has returned home from Indianapolis, where she attended the K. of P. encampment.

Mr. R. H. Ware of Greenville, Miss., and Thomas J. Money of Vicksburg, Miss., are guests of Mr. J. W. Banks of Butte, Mont., at Hotel Brunswick.

Mrs. Edward Bell has returned from Kansas, where she has visited her sister-in-law, Mrs. Wake, Mrs. King of Lawrence and Mrs. Simmon of Omaha, Neb.

Mrs. Sarah Wake has returned home after spending five weeks in Chicago visiting Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bell of 17 West Huron street.

The informal opening reception of the Negro Jefferson association at their new club house Wednesday night was a delightful affair and those who attended declared that the reception committee could not be beat.

Claiming that he came from Chicago, Rev. Winston Wells was arrested in Evansville for passing a worthless check on his friend, D. G. W. Buckner.

Mrs. Estelle Williams, 3637 Prairie avenue, left for Holly Springs, Miss., to visit her uncle, Bishop Cottrel.

Mrs. Bennie Fry, Pittsburg, Pa., is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Sallie Smith, 3569 Forest avenue.

Miss M. H. Cox and Miss M. A. Arnold of Hartford, Conn., have returned to their homes after being the guests of Mrs. A. A. H. Brown, 3615 Forest avenue.

Attorney T. C. Grand Pre, the young corporation lawyer, left for New York Tuesday and will pay the following cities a business visit: Halifax, Quebec, Montreal, St. Louis and Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Coombs entertained at a buffet luncheon on Saturday in honor of Miss M. A. Arnold and Miss M. H. Cox of Hartford, Conn. Among the out of town guests were Mr. John Arnold of Hopewell, N. J., and Master Leslie F. Stockton, Windsor, Ont.

Mrs. Mamie Turner, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. White of Duluth, Minn., arrived in Chicago on Saturday last to attend the funeral of their son and brother, who was accidentally killed on Thursday.

Mrs. Mamie Du Laney, 3210 State street, niece of Mrs. R. M. Leach, died Sunday, Aug. 27, and was buried at Mt. Glenwood on Wednesday.

Mr. W. A. Wallace, 3632 State street, the baker, has gone to New York city on his vacation.

Dr. A. M. Curtis, a prominent physician from Washington, D. C., is visiting Dr. George C. Hall.

Miss M. M. Stevenson, 3561 Forest avenue, left on last Saturday for a month's stay in Detroit, Mich., after graduating from Moler College, to be the guest of the Misses Cheatham.

Mr. A. P. Bedou, N. O. official photographer of Tuskegee Institute, is in the city for a few days. He marvels at the beauty of Peter P. Jones, the photographer, work.

Miss Estelle Burrell, Cincinnati, is in the city the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Ed Thurston, 3641 Forest avenue. She was a little seasick on Monday night, but able to be out today.

Mrs. J. M. Lawrence is now at 3224 Forest avenue.