FREDERICK DOUGLASS CENTER.

The meeting of the Fisk Endowment club last Sunday drew a large audience. Rev. J. E. Cranther and D. L. O. Baerd each made an enthusiastic plea for Fisk. The music was excellent. A pleasant surprise was enjoyed in the late arrival of Dr. Bowen who also paid a friendly tribute to Fisk. The symposium at the Woman's club on the late conference was very interesting. The list of speakers was too long to be inserted in this report. Maurice S. Kuhns, dramatic leader of Lincoln Center, will read a play next Sunday. All cordially invited.
