

Brooklyn Y. W. C. A.

Prof. Leslie Pinkney Hill, principal of Cheyney Institute, will be the speaker at the Ashland Place Y. W. C. A. 27th anniversary service next Sunday afternoon, June 8, at 4:30 o'clock. Prof. Hill is well known both as an author and educator. His first book of poems, "The Wings of Oppression," was published in 1921 and his most recent work, "Toussaint L'Overture," historical drama in verse, was issued in 1928. Mr. Hill began his educational leadership at Tuskegee after graduation from Harvard. From 1907 to 1913 he was principal of the Manassas Industrial school in Virginia, which he left to answer the call to head the Training School for Teachers at Cheyney. Appearing on the anniversary program for musical numbers are the gifted young pianist, Thelma Ingraham, pupil of Prof. Lyndon Hoffman Caldwell; Mrs. Sara Russell, soprano, and Miss Ireta Miller of Jersey City. The meeting is held under the auspices of the religious education committee of which Mrs. Ida Fulcher is chairman.

At the recent Y. W. C. A. convention held in Detroit Miss Floria Pinkney was elected by the Industrial assembly to represent industrial women of the United States at the world's committee of the Y. W. C. A., which meets in St. Cergue, Switzerland, June 17-21. Miss Pinkney will go from Elsinore, Denmark, where she is studying at People's college.
