

MICHIGAN STATE

DETROIT NEWS

By RUSSELL J. COWANS.
 914 Sherman St.

DETROIT, Mich., May 27.—One of the most interesting and delightful affairs of the week was musicale-tea given by Fred Hart Williams at his residence, 4119 Beaubien St. Sunday afternoon. Among those who participated in the program were Mrs. Patty D. Wheeler, pianist, who charmed all present by her artistic rendition of a group of classic compositions; Miss Grace Van Meter, vocalist, accompanied by Sara Levi-Stephens, who sang several songs; Nell Catlett - Ransom, who recited in her usual fine style three poems, the last, "The Birth of a wild flower," by Fred Hart Williams; Estelle Causley, accompanied by Sonia Dennis, Ann Arbor, Mich., who sang two numbers, one in Italian, the other, "Where My Caravan Rested," in English. Miss Causley is a radio entertainer. John Lewis, well-known athlete, sang two popular songs in a rich and happy voice. Mr. Lewis accompanied himself with his ukulele. Attorney Charles E. Ruby gave a short and interesting discourse on "Causes of Depression." Among others who addressed the audience were Judge Arthur Gordon of the recorder's court; Mabelle Davis, prominent Bahaiist; Mrs. Herrick of the Receiving hospital and Misses Grace Burchard and Elizabeth Farland, psychopathic department of Eloise hospital and schoolteacher respectively. Attorney Herbert U. White was master of ceremonies, assisted by Dr. James J. McClendon, Dr. L. O. Jefferson, O. T. Davis and Isaacsteln Osborn. The tea service was supervised by the charming Mary Hickman, assisted by Elizabeth Holden-Woodley and Misses Marlon Lewis, Louise Ray, Helen Bryant, Estelle Hubbard, Helen Williams and Esther Hust. In the receiving line were Mrs. Maude Williams, Mrs. J. Mitchell, Nell Ransom, Patty D. Wheeler, Mabelle Davis, Grace Burchard and Fred Hart Williams. Among the others present were Mrs. Iola Jamison, Mr. Trayner of the Receiving hospital, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Heath, Mrs. Mae Wells, Malinda Wells, A. R. Smith, Mrs. Mattie Montgomery, Mrs. Clara Jeanette O'May, Mrs. F. Nicholson, Prof. S. R. Williams, Mrs. Harris of Ann Arbor, Mich., Sally Bundy, Mrs. J. D. Williams, Mrs. M. Carr, Mrs. M. Jamison, Hattie M. Bush, Henry Randolph, Kermit Mead, Mrs. Fred Hutchinson, Miss DeLeon, Mr. Jaffah, Persian student; Joseph Craigen and L. C. Blount. It is Mr. Williams' plan to hold such a musicale each month in his artistically arranged apartment.

R. J. Cowans

Mrs. Dewey M. Hutchinson of 4609 Harding Ave. entertained at a bridge luncheon Wednesday honoring Mrs. Burrell of New York. Covers were laid for 16. The bridge prizes were won by Mrs. S. W. Jenkins and Mrs. J. R. Parker. Others who enjoyed the lovely affair were Mesdames Carl Steward, Freddie Brewer, E. L. Mason, F. Jennenson, Ed Stringer, S. J. Hawkins, J. Beck, E. Payne, F. Hughes, L. Parnell, M. Russian, M. C. Morris, F. Hubbard, L. Freeman and Miss Lylia Kimbrough. Mrs. Burrell is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jennenson of 24th St. and will return to her home next week.

Announcement of the wedding reception to be given by Mr. and Mrs. James A. Lasha of Grand Rapids, Mich., reveals the secret marriage of their daughter, Shirley Estelle, to William Charles Loving last August at Goshen, Ind. The marriage of the couple was the culmination of a romance that had its inception on the campus of Western State Teachers college, Kalamazoo, Mich., of which both are graduates. Mrs. Loving is popular in Grand Rapids and Detroit social sets and is a granddaughter of the late J. C. Craig, well-known Grand Rapids citizen and high in Masonry. Mr. Loving won fame when he brought the first interscholastic track and field championship to Detroit, when he romped to four victories in the indoor meet at Evanston in 1926. He also starred while at Western State Teachers college. He is now physical director at the St. Antoine branch of the Y. M. C. A. The couple will be at home to their friends at 2625 McDougall Ave., Detroit, after June 15. The reception will be held in Grand Rapids June 4.

Ernest R. Carney, director of Green Pastures camp, has just completed a very successful camp directors course at the University of Michigan. The course, coupled with Mr. Carney's education and experience, places him among the best camp directors in the country. Green Pastures is operated under the auspices of the Detroit Urban league and ranks second to none in beauty and equipment. Mr. Carney attended the Urban league conference at Pittsburgh.

An informal dancing party will be given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. Matthews, newlyweds, at the Nacirema club Wednesday evening. The hosts will be A. Reynolds, D. Nuttall, J. Murphy, C. Griffith, O. R. Parish, G. Moore, C. Howard, E. Hackett and C. Russian.

Charles A. Young post of the American Legion held a mass meeting at the St. Antoine branch of the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon to secure volunteers for the poppy sale that will be held Friday and Saturday. The workers will be divided into districts and the captains placed in charge.

Mrs. Fannie Johnson of 332 Clairpointe Ave. is home after spending some time in the Dunbar hospital, where she underwent an operation.

A "Mock Trial" was held at St. Cyprian's church, Milford and 28th St., Thursday evening. Those taking part in the affair were Senator Charles A. Roxborough, Marshall N. Parker, Mrs. Isola Graham, Attorneys R. J. Evans, Edward Turner, Lawrence Hayes, Ernest Mitchell and Herbert Dudley. Others were Attorney Julian Rodgers, Dr. A. B. Cleage, Mrs. N. Ransom, Mamie Jeffery, Mrs. J. Odell, Dr. D. J. Grimes, H. Colley, Mrs. J. Rollins, Mrs. L. Yancey, Dr. A. L. Turner, Mrs. Groff, Prentiss Walker and Mr. Dezon.

Among the graduates from the College of the City of Detroit are Misses Erma Morris, Helen Jackson, Portia Bethor, Ernest Marshall, William Venable and Lonnie Saunders.

The Detroit Vigilance club had as its guest Friday evening Miss Josephine Worthy of Northwestern high school, who gave a short address on "Conditions at Northwestern High School" as she saw them.