

Mrs. Laura Dainty Pehham, of Hull House, will read a number of Dunbar poems at the memorial service, to be held at Bethel A. M. E. Church, February 25th, at 3 p. m., by the directors of the Dunbar Memorial Sanitarium, under the auspices of the Bethel Historical Club.

Miss L. Stokes, one of Munice, Ind., belles, a cousin of Mrs. J. Gray Lucas, 3337 Wabash ave., is in the city, the guest of her cousin, for an indefinite stay, when seen by a Defender reporter she expressed herself freely as to how she liked Chicago and says she doesn't care if she never go back to Munice, still she says, "I love the little town and my many friends there. She is a graduate of the High School and Normal College of her home and while not a Society belle she says she enjoys society once in a while.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the 8th Reg. Ill. Nat. Guards will give Informal Dance Feb. 21, Masonic Temple, 3956 State St. Admission 35 Cents.

Mrs. Elhona Clayton, 3716 Dearborn street was full of smiles on Wednesday, when seen by our reporter, she was telling a neighbor just how it all happened, and she said; Oh! dear Me! he is so sweet, and everything! You know, I don't know how I got him; got what? asked the lady, why child I'm married, of course, I reporter left because she began kissing the ladies, her name is Mrs. Brooks now.

Miss Mae Boyd, Tuskegee graduate, married a young minister during the week, they will go to Africa it is said to save the savages.

The Chicago Defender will be greatly obliged for all subscriptions paid through the Money Order Dept. of the Postal Service.

The Englewood representative of The Chicago Defender will be Miss Bessie Bell, of 6220 Morgan street.

Mrs. Jennie Scott, of 3752 Wabash avenue, has left the city for the bedside of her son who is very low.

Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Parker, of 5031 Lake avenue, intend leaving the city for Hot Springs where they will remain until summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Sedgwick R. Johnson, of 3838 La Salle street will be the guests of The Chicago Examiner at the Hippodrome, Auditorium, on Feb. 14th.

Mrs. H. S. Claybrook, of 5520 Ingleside will represent the Defender in Hyde Park.

THE DOUGLAS CLUB DANCING SCHOOL

Every Friday Night

Masonic Hall, 3956 State St.

The Drexel Whist Club held its second meeting on Monday, February 6th, at the home of Mrs. J. Tribue, 5436 Drexel avenue, and refreshments were served in regular banquet style. The officers are Mrs. R. W. Walton, Pres.; Mrs. T. J. Napier, Vice-Pres.; Mrs. H. S. Claybrook, Secretary; Mrs. Colella Duncan, Treasurer. Much interest is being displayed in the progress of this organization as it is made up of Hyde Park Selects and all are neighboring property owners. Meetings every Monday.

The "Foresters Orchestra" extend to yourself and friends a cordial invitation to their Pre-Lenten Party, to be given Monday evening, February 27th, 1911, at the Masonic Hall, 3954 State street. Music will be furnished by the Orchestra. Admission 35c. Dancing from 9 until 1 p. m. Geo. Oliver, Mgr. W. L. Smith, Asst. Mgr.

Walter Harris has sold out his interests in the Twentieth Century Buffet to his partner, Mr. Harris who is popular and who drew all the trade of his business is now engaged in politics.

Honey Johnson opened at the American Music Hall last Monday.

DR. M. A. MAJORS,

PHONE 2209 DREXEL

4. W. Cor. State and 47th Streets

Entrance on 47th Street.

Buddy Gilmore has gone to New York on account of the death of his sister but is to return shortly.

Capt. L. C. Valley's wife, of Milwaukee, Wis., spent last week in the city the guests of Mrs. A. Pettice, 3610 Calumet.

Mrs. Jennie Green, honored her nephew Luoy B. Hayes, with a stag on his 21st birthday. Space will not permit the mention of the names of those present.

Mr. R. A. Jefferson is spending the winter in Coffee, Va., the name was given to the place by Genl. Robert M. Lee, who expressed himself to one of his officers as wanting some coffee, and the place was dubbed coffee finally the name.

The Parental Club will conduct the next meeting at Keith School February 15th, at 8 p. m. All are invited.

Miss Bettie H. McDonald, of Bangor, Michigan, is in the city on a short vacation visiting her sisters and brother, and is staying at 3009 Dearborn street. With her niece, Miss Hattie Pettaway. Miss Bettie H. McDonald is the sister of Mr. W. W. McDonald, 4937 Indiana avenue, who has been somewhat indisposed with the La grippe for past week.

Call on us first and examine our line of hair goods, and if our prices do not appeal to you as fair and reasonable as others, look no further, for no where in Chicago can you do as well. Mme. Wallace, 3247 State street.

Senator William E. Mason was unable to give the address at the Douglas Center Sunday afternoon on account of sickness. His place was well filled by Dr. M. Rowena Morse who has lately accepted the pastorate of the third Unitarian church on the West side. Senator Mason will speak next Sunday at 4 p. m. from the subject, "The True American."

A large assembly greeted Mr. Henry O. Tanner, the distinguished artist, at the Douglass Center Thursday evening. This was one of the most pleasant affairs of the year. Those present felt it an honor and privilege to meet him.

The millinery class taught at the Douglass Center by Mrs. H. E. Stewart, on Monday, Wednesday and Fridays, at 2 p. m. is open to all.

Read the want ad. columns; there are some good bargains.

The W. C. T. U. work was well organized in the various departments of the Olivet church by Miss Peterson, national organizer, during her stay in the city.

Mrs. J. T. Jenifer will spend an indefinite time visiting friends in California having left the city the last part of the week.

Mr. Edward Wimp, of Buffalo, blew into town on Tuesday for a few hours, he is highly pleased with his new position.

Mrs. Florence Woodard, 3626 Forest avenue, left the city Thursday night to meet her sister Miss Hazel Thompson, one of the members of the Smart Set Company, which plays there next week.

The Ways and Means Society of Grace Presbyterian Church will meet Monday evening, at 8 o'clock, Feb. 13th, at the home of Mrs. H. E. Franklin, 3739 Vincennes avenue. A full attendance is looked forward by the interested members.

Lincoln's Birthday, Hon. Geo. W. Plummer, one of the leading lawyers of Chicago, will deliver the address on Abraham Lincoln, for the Negro Fellowship League, at 2833 State str. Sunday, February 12th, 1911, at 4 p. m. M. C. B. Mason, Jr., will sing; Ida B. W. Barnett, Pres.

Wm. D. Neighbors, one of Chicago's enterprising and leading Real Estate men, accompanied by Mr. L. B. Anderson, Assistant County Attorney, were welcomed visitors at the Rink during the week.

There will be a unique skate contest tonight and tomorrow night, as well as a Hurdle race for girls. Those wishing to see a rare skate contest will do well to attend.

The Sunday afternoon Concerts are just the caper for those who are at a loss to know what to do with themselves from 2 to 5. Come out Sunday and have a good time.

W. E. Berry, of the Eighth Regiment promises to put on some new music for Sunday night. Come out and hear the 8th Regiment in their latest musical hits.

Mrs. Jennie Scott, of 3748 Wabash avenue and sister of Col. John R. Marshall, has left the city to attend the funeral of her son.

Sunday, Feb. 5th, was ladies' day at the Standard Literary, and was a brilliant feature. New officers were elected owing to the resignation of all the former officers.

Mr. H. O. Tauner, the famous artist was entertained at the Frederick Douglass Center on Thursday, Feb. 9th.

Madam Azalia Hackley and Miss Fitzhugh, gave an impromptu recital at Fisk University.

Mr. George Walker, who are spending the winter with his family in the southland, is expected home next week. Things are quiet around the old stand since George left.

Mr. Julius N. Avendorph, was the special guest of Messrs. Thurber of The Thurber Art gallery, in the Fine Arts Building, on Tuesday afternoon to meet Mr. Tanner, the artist. Mr. Avendorph secured the permission of Messrs. Thurber for an afternoon reunion of the artist's honor, but on Tuesday, Mr. Tanner, der at 3265 Vernon confined to his home on account of serious illness.

Miss Ada Lou Mitchell, was the happy recipient of a gold locket with diamond setting on her twentieth anniversary which occurred on the 5th. Miss Mitchell, will not divulge from whence it came.

W. R. Sobers, Chicago's leading young tailor, society man, and prince of goodfellows, has fully recovered from his painful accident to his hand and is serving his patrons in his usual congenial manner.

Hon. Richard T. Greener, the scholarly and eminent gentleman has fully recovered from his attack of pneumonia.

Notice: The Defender will send no paper to any one before the subscription for same is paid in advance. All notices no matter what sort or kind must be paid for in advance. The same is true of advertising matter for clubs and societies. We have been largely embarrassed during the past month, owing to the fact that ten clubs owe us from $1. to $18.