

Supreme Court Fails to Act on Fleming

CLEVELAND, June 6.—Attorney Alexander H. Martin, counsel for former Councilman Thomas W. Fleming, has demonstrated his ability as an outstanding lawyer by outwitting Prosecutor Ray T. Miller, Democrat, in every effort that Miller has put forth to land Fleming behind the bars to commence his sentence of 33 months.

Monday the United States supreme court failed to act on the motion of County Prosecutor Ray T. Miller on the motion filed, asking that Fleming's appeal be dismissed on the grounds that it was designed merely to delay the execution of the sentence for bribery until after the election. Monday was the last day the court is to meet until Oct. 6. The case will be taken up in its order.

Martin, Fleming's counsel, has until June 25 to file his briefs setting forth reasons why the case comes under the jurisdiction of the highest United States tribunal.

Fleming and his hosts of friends are jubilant over Martin's success in handling the case so far and believe if Martin had taken the case from the state Fleming would have never been convicted.
