

Cheney College Singers Broadcast for Federation

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 13.—The musical offerings of the Cheney College Singers were an attractive feature of the radio program over station WFI at 10 a. m. Friday. The Cheney repertoire included "Larghetto" (Beethoven), the spiritual, "Go Down, Moses," Calvin H. Thomas, soloist, and "'Tis Me O Lord," Lillian G. Davis, soloist, with Dr. Leslie Pinckney Hill directing.

The occasion was the 25th anniversary plans of the Philadelphia Federation of Churches and the principle address was delivered by Dr. E. A. E. Palmquist, executive secretary of the Federation of Churches.

The names of the Cheney college singer are Wilbur F. McCabe, Philadelphia, Pa.; James H. Moore, Marshallton, Dela.; Rosamond B. Nelson, Audrea R. Howard, Lewis W. S. Comegys and Ralph E. Roberts, Philadelphia, Pa.; Howard T. Forman, Brideton, N. J.; Calvin H. Thomas, soloist, Angel; Alice E. Porter, Scranton, Pa.; Willa H. Houser, Charlotte, N. C.; Winifred A. Pines, West Chester; Florence W. Quillin, Camden, N. J.; Robert E. Hazelwood and Marshall J. Tyree, Philadelphia, Pa.; Agnes M. Neal, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Leanna M. E. Cornish, Media; Gladys B. Gawle and Rowena A. Carrington, Philadelphia, Pa.; Natalie D. Hill, Cheney, Pa.; Lillian G. Davis, soloist, Philadelphia, Pa.; Estella H. Scott, Harrisburg, Pa.; E. Odessa Wells, pianist, Hartford, Conn.; Carrie O. Sasser, F. Evelyn Johnson and L. Marion Tanner, Philadelphia, Pa.; Mary A. Shaw, West Chester, Pa.; Florence M. Baker, Harrisburg, Pa.; Gladys V. Wilson, Horatius F. Smith and M. Elmer Calloway, Philadelphia, Pa., and Grace U. Freeman, Morton, Pa.