

Park Forest Set To Observe Baha'i Week

"A New perspective on Religion" is the theme of the first annual Baha'i Week celebration in Park Forest.

The observance begins Sunday Oct. 5 and will be climaxed with two mass meetings at 8 p.m., Oct. 11 and 12 at Westwood Elementary school, 530 Lakewood Boulevard.

Featured speakers are Col.

Salvatore A. Pelle, former director of Information, U. S. Space program and T. V. -film star Linda Marshall.

Col. Pelle will speak Saturday on "Religion In The Space Age," while Miss Marshall's talk Sunday is "The Spiritual Revolution." Von Gilmer, noted guitarist and folk singer of Oxon Hill, Md., will be guest soloist and song leader.
