

and is putting forth every effort possible to make of this offering a tremendous success.

An industrial campaign to build a larger place for our labor in Toledo and to build the proper appreciation of opportunities will be undertaken by the Douglass Community center some time in November. It will be a week's campaign, the exact time of which will be fixed later. Everett W. Johnson of Douglass Community association, announces the coming this week of T. Arnold Hill to look over the industrial situation and make plans for the coming campaign.

Dr. W. W. Stewart, druggist, Indiana Ave., has accepted a chairmanship in the forthcoming Y. M. C. A. campaign. This will be one of the most important divisions of the campaign, inasmuch as a branch building for our citizens is included in the expansion program. At a meeting of prominent leaders of the city, held at the home of Dr. Stewart Monday, an understanding was reached between those who are associated with the work of the Frederick Douglass Community center and those who have been giving their special attention to the Y. M. C. A. project. It has been agreed that there will be no conflict of interests and that the supporters of the Douglass center will help in the Y. M. C. A. drive, inasmuch as this is one of the greatest projects ever undertaken in the city and calls for united support of all. Through its officers, the Y. M. C. A. board is pledged to give support to the Douglass center at such time as it chooses to expand its own program. Careful investigation has shown there is a wide field for both institutions in the city.

Everett J. Gatliff has been appointed field director of first voters' committee over the western division of the Hoover-Curtis campaign, with headquarters at Chicago.

The members of the Epurean Card club were the guests of Mrs. Lucille Walker, of Indiana Ave., on Wednesday. Mrs. Anna Brown won first prize for highest score and Mrs. Faye Foster the booty.

The social at the McCoglin residence on Ayondale Ave. Monday was arranged and sponsored by the Samaritan club of Third Baptist church Sunday school. An interesting program of contests and games made an evening of pleasure for the people who attended.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Cogsville and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Evans motored to Detroit and Belle Isle Sunday and spent the day as guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Williams.

James F. Miller spent the day in Detroit Sunday, visiting Mrs. India Deming at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Winburn on St. Antoine St.

The junior group known as the Gleaners resumed meetings this week after a summer vacation period. Mrs. Harry Johnson is supervisor of this group of energetic boys and girls. Meetings occur on Saturday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Johnson on Hoag St.

Mrs. Mary Burns of Battle Creek, Mich., is the house guest of Mrs. Mary Jackson on City Park Ave.

The Members of the Progressive Professional and Business Women's league met last Thursday evening in their first regular meeting of the fall semester, to elect officers and formulate plans for the winter's program. Last year's corps of officers was re-elected with one exception. Miss Eunice Johnson, who has served the group as secretary for the past three years, declined because of other duties. Mrs. Ida May Fox was elected to the office. Miss Jeanette Taylor heads the league. Mrs. Georgine Johnson is treasurer.

Mrs. Patsy Kennedy, who for the last several years has served Toledo through the Council of Churches as one of the teachers of the daily Bible school, has been appointed visiting teacher among race people by the board of education, with headquarters at Cunecki school.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Carter of Detroit Ave. are happy over the coming of a son, born at Mercy hospital on Thursday of last week.

TOLEDO

By GEORGINE JOHNSON

Douglass Center

Toledo, Ohio, Sept. 28.—The Pulitzer prize play of 1927, "In Abraham's Bosom," by Paul Green, is being presented under the auspices of the Albertus Brown lyceum bureau in the Coliseum, Oct. 1 and 2. This is the Provincetown Playhouse production from the Provincetown Playhouse, New York. Lloyd Kimbrough heads the lyceum bureau