

Society

One of the interesting meetings of the past week was that of the ideal club when Mrs. Henry Cox of W. 33d St. proved a very charming hostess Tuesday afternoon. The afternoon was very pleasant spent playing five hundred. Beautiful prizes were awarded as follows: Mrs. Chauncey Lee, first club prize; Mrs. J. A. Holloway, second club prize; and Mrs. Leslie Armstrong, guest prize. The guests included Mrs. Robert Dockett of Cleveland and Mrs. Leslie Armstrong of Willoughby, Ohio. An outstanding feature was the two-course luncheon served by the hostess, which was delicious. Mrs. J. A. Holloway, president; Mrs. Edward Ramsey, reporter.

The many friends of Mrs. Ella Prasley, 2276 E. 93d St., will be pleased to learn that she was able to be removed to her home last week after undergoing aseous operation at Charity hospital.

An attractive and interesting affair was the George Washington bridge party given by Mrs. John Wilson at her cozy home, 2224 E. 100th St., on Washington's birthday. The guests present to share the wonderful hospitality of Mrs. Wilson were Mmes. G. A. Myers, Leon Evans, Joseph Robinson, Chester Gillespie, Julia Thomas, Charles S. Smith, John H. Taylor, Russell S. Brown, Jesse Elmer, E. A. Bailey, N. K. Christopher, W. P. Saunders, H. S. Chauncey, Clayborne George and Miss Ida H. Clark. The hostess served a most delicious lunch. Mrs. Elizabeth Gordon, 2213 E. 93d St., continues to improve following her recent illness.

And No. 2 of Cory M. E. church held one of the most delightful meetings in its history at 2224 E. 55th St., when Mrs. Etta Brown proved a very pleasing hostess. This club is sponsoring a program to be rendered in Cory church Tuesday evening, March 6, at 7:45 o'clock. Those taking part in the program were Arthur Talbot, dramatic reader; Mrs. Edith Wright, soprano; James Allen, saxophone soloist; Mrs. Earline Jeffries, organist; St. John's double mixed quartet, and Dr. O. A. Childress, tenor. All music lovers should not fail to hear this wonderful program under the auspices of Aid No. 3. The Iris Five Hundred club, one of the leading social clubs in the city, was delightfully entertained by Mrs. Julia Mae Stumms at her home, 2263 E. 103d St. Cards were thoroughly enjoyed. Mrs. Minnie Stakely winning the first prize and Mrs. Beulah Hawkins the second. Mrs. Stakely will be hostess at 2263 E. 103d St. at the next meeting.

Sister Leone council No. 578 initiated 19 new members Friday night, among them being Dr. E. A. Bailey, Ralph Tyler, Miss Ruth Merritt and Mrs. Louise Franklin. Miss Effie Penn did the work, assisted by Mrs. Della Offer, most excellent queen. Mrs. Beatrice Houston, most beautiful queen, was unable to be present on account of illness, it is said.

Mrs. Lucy Dickerson Mitchell of Chicago underwent a serious operation at the Cleveland Clinic hospital on Euclid Ave. and is now recovering at the home of her sister, Mrs. Horace E. Ferguson, 1218 E. 128th St. The many Cleveland friends of Mrs. Mitchell will be pleased to hear of the success of her operation.

Anna Mae Smith and Christine Smith have been selected as the gym leaders at Central high. These two girls, including Winifred Smith, sister of Christine, members of our group, have been the most outstanding girls in athletics at Central high for several years. Christine and Winifred, twins, are sisters of Miss Naomi Smith, one of our popular school teachers, and Miss Dorothy Smith, the talented violinist.

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Willis Sr., on Grantwood Ave., furnished the setting for the meeting of the Over the Top club Friday evening, and of the evening bridge pastime of the evening, nine tables being in operation during the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Willis included among their guests Dr. and Mrs. Joyner, Dr. and Mrs. Charles H. Garvin, Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Whitehead, Dr. and Mrs. Leon Evans, Attorney and Mrs. Selmo C. Glenn, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lewis, Miss Willie M. Shook, Miss Dorothy West, Mrs. Mamie Ford and Walter Willis, Jr. Honors of the evening went to the following: Mrs. J. T. Suggs, first ladies' membership prize; Mrs. J. H. Taylor, second ladies' membership prize; Robert O. Reynolds, first gent's membership prize; Dr. I. B. Scott, second gent's membership prize; Mrs. Garvin, first guest prize; Miss Dorothy West, second guest prize for ladies; Attorney Glenn, first guest prize for men; and Dr. Leon Evans, second guest prize for men. An elaborate repast was served by the hostess and host. Mrs. Jesse Firse of Massie Ave. will be hostess to the club at the next meeting in March.

The Woodmen are planning to give a competitive display drill at the Woodmen hall March 22 between the Star Calanthe drill corps, under the leadership of Captain Lee, and the ladies' drill team of the Woodmen, under Captain Bell.

Miss Juanita Thomas of Mt. Pleasant, who has attained quite a reputation as the child dramatic reader, is proving one of the biggest vote getters in the N. A. A. C. P. popularity contest. Juanita has contributed her talent for several years to the various churches and organizations and deserves unlimited cooperation in this first effort.

The Optimistic club sponsored a very interesting program at Stewart Memorial M. E. church, 71st and Central Sts., last Sunday evening. On the program were Miss Juanita Thomas, promising young reader; Mrs. Wardell, reader; George Findley, who recited a number of Dunbar poems, interspersed with songs by Miss Marcellus Findley and Miss Carmack.

The Cheerful Chequib club of St. Paul A. M. E. Z. church held a very pleasant meeting at the home of Miss Wynona Whigham, 2311 E. 97th St., last Sunday afternoon. Twelve members were present and five visitors among them were Messrs. P. H. Dyson of Shiloh Baptist church; J. H. Alexander, Jasper Jordan of Fried Stone Baptist church; Mrs. Louise Stake and Master Walter Prince. A program of unusual merit was rendered by the club. Miss Claudia Stone read an interesting paper on the subject "What It Means to Be a Christian." Mr. Jordan rendered a vocal number and Mrs. Lucy Pearson gave a reading. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. M. Hayes, 2221 E. 71st St. Miss Whigham served ice cream and cake.

The Boosters' club of Central high school, composed of about 30 of the best boosters of Central's activities, can boast of the following members of our group as members: Christine Smith, the only Race girl and most popular in athletics at Central and the bath house gym; Isaac Coleman and brother, Lenny Coleman; James Green and Ben Davis, son of Co. Ben Davis.

Jovial Whist Club

Honoring the Midday Jovial Whist club, Mrs. Margaret Rankin delightfully entertained a Valentine party Tuesday evening, Feb. 14, at her home, 7111 Cedar Ave. A very delicious luncheon was served by the hostess, covers being laid for 30. Beautiful prizes greeted the lucky players and were awarded as follows: Mrs. Leona Howard, first; Mrs. Ella Day, second; Mrs. Mary White, third. The prizes for men were awarded to Robert Crawford, first; James Day, second. All acclaimed Mrs. Rankin a very charming hostess. The club will hold its next meeting with Mrs. William Brown, 2279 E. 97th St.

Honoring Mrs. William Brown of E. 97th St., Mrs. Hazel Thomas proved a very delightful hostess at her lovely home, 5503 Longfellow Ave., Thursday. Miss Anna J. Mills entertained at the home of Mrs. William Brown of E. 97th St., Monday afternoon. Those enjoying the splendid hospitality of Miss Mills were Mrs. E. H. Prentiss, Mrs. Sam Hardway, Mrs. William Brown, Miss Lurie Scott.

Miss Mary Bell of E. 22d St., is reported on the sick list.

Miss Marion Willis of New York City, formerly of Atlanta, Ga., passed through the city last week and stopped with her cousin and aunt, Mrs. George S. Greene and Mrs. E. D. Hanserd of 2326 E. 95th St. She left for Los Angeles, Cal., Saturday, to visit her uncle, Mrs. Victoria Harris, 2335 E. 34th St., entertained the Optimistic club in her usual congenial manner last Tuesday evening. Plans were completed for assisting in the education of Annilla Robinson, 16-year-old motherless girl whose father died in service in hospital. Annilla is a very bright pupil at Central high school. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Horton, 2191 E. 33d St. A program is being arranged. Mrs. Warfield, chairman.

The Brush Burners juveniles of the American Woodmen, were entertained Saturday afternoon at the Central Ave. bath house at a party. Mrs. Hattie Day, worthy guardian, assisted by Mrs. Della Offer, made the children happy with ice cream and cake.

Outstanding among the programs rendered by the Mothers' club of the Phyllis Wheatley home was that of Sunday week in the dining, 46th and Cedar Sts., under the direction of Mrs. A. G. Grist Sr. The program follows: Mrs. Pauline Jackson, piano solo; Miss Gladys Smyles, piano solo; Mrs. Hazel Mountain Walker, address; Mr. and Mrs. J. Milton Smyles, vocal duet; A. J. Grist Jr., baritone solo; Zephyr trio, composed of Mr. and Mrs. Smyles and Mr. Grist. Short talks were given by Mrs. Jewell Wooding and Mrs. King, president of the Mothers' club.

Mrs. Fannie Oglesby of 2321 E. 90th St., delightfully entertained the Tuesday Afternoon Thimble club at her home. This social meeting of the club proved very enjoyable to Mrs. H. Brent Stewart of E. 82d St., as it was given in honor of her birthday.

The stork special visited Mr. and Mrs. Luther Stone of 2332 E. 48th St., and left a bouncing baby boy. Mother and son are doing nicely.

Mrs. Crosby Ramsey of E. 93d St. was hostess to the I. W. Bridge club at her home Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Helene Crawford and Mrs. W. T. White carried the honor and won the prizes. The Seaside Whist club celebrated their first anniversary banquet Feb. 19, at 2191 E. 78th St. A wonderful evening was spent. The welcome address was delivered by Atty. Earl Fox and very encouraging remarks were made by the president, Alex Johnson. Among the 31 guests present were Mr. and Mrs. E. Hunter, Mrs. E. Riddle, Mrs. J. Booker, Mrs. E. Hardison, R. Soboy, and Mrs. L. Fair, Julia Robinson, reporter.

The Junior Graceo Art club spent an ideal evening at 245 E. 83d St., Feb. 13, when Mrs. G. Pope was hostess.

Mrs. Hazel Langford leaves March 5 for a pleasure trip to South Africa, accompanied by Mrs. Laura H. Davis, formerly of Evansville, Ind.

Winifred promises to eclipse anything previously given by the local branch of the N. A. A. C. P. will be the carnival at Elks' hall on E. 55th St., April 18 and 19, under the auspices of the ladies' auxiliary. Judging from the interest being manifested, a brilliant success is predicted. Any number of the social clubs of the city are sponsoring the various booths. The Las Amegas girls are giving a pageant on the first night entitled "The Family Album." Interest is being centered upon the popularity contest, the winner of which (to be presented with a trip to California) is to be announced. Appetizing luncheons will be served up and down. Mrs. Agnes Harris is general chairman; Miss Eleanor Alexander, president of the auxiliary; Mrs. Clay Biggs, chairman of the popularity contest, and Mrs. Clayborne George, chairman of publicity and entertainment.

The Junior Council girls presented the Cedar Y with a beautiful floral and landscape picture which may be seen in the mothers' room. The Y was very proud to receive the picture. Mrs. Susie Williams is directress of the Junior Council girls.

The Ye-Buz-Fuz club is busy planning a charity benefit 500 and bridge party, to be given at the Metropolitan club on March 16. The prizes promise to be most beautiful and the affair one of the most brilliant on the season.

Mrs. Cora Coleman entertained the Olive Branch circle of Kings Daughters and Sons of Antioch Center Tuesday. Mrs. Mary Smith, president; Mrs. Julia Brooks, secretary.

Mrs. Clarissa Heard, after a very delightful three weeks visit with her sister, Mrs. Willie Roberts and family of Cedar Ave., returned to her home in New York City greatly benefited by Cleveland's atmosphere.

The Sunshine Charity club was delightfully entertained last Thursday evening by Mrs. Julius E. Rowe of E. 86th St. Outstanding features were the wonderful luncheon and a fine time.

Calorous Adams rendered a very pretty saxophone solo entitled "My Prayer," at St. John's Sunday school.

Mrs. Louise Douthitt of 2368 E. 87th St., was the honored guest at a two-in-one party on the occasion of the celebration of her birthday last week. A surprise party was planned by her son, Harry, 12, as well as one by two of Mrs. Douthitt's friends, Mrs. Harriett Lane and Mrs. Margaret Buford. Neither knew of the other's plans. The result was friends responded to invitations in two parties honoring Mrs. Douthitt. Everybody accepted the affair as an unusual coincidence and had a doubly good time.

The Ladies Missionary society of Mt. Haven Baptist church gave a reception in the church last Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Mattie G. Anderson, superintendent of the Christian community, who is leaving for Nashville, Tenn., to accept a new position with one of the girls' schools there.

The ladies present at Mrs. Anderson with a beautiful wrist watch. Mrs. Thomas W. Fleming, wife of Councilman Fleming, was the principal speaker. Rev. Sylvester Williams was master of ceremonies.

Cards and games furnished the pastime for the last meeting of the Nightingale Social club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Adams of 7400 Cedar Ave., last Friday evening, Feb. 24. There being a very little business to transact the entire evening was spent in pleasure. The hostess served a very tasty luncheon. The next meeting will be with Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Campbell when the business program will be carried out. Mrs. M. Campbell, reporter.

Mrs. Dorothy Bush of Utica Ave. will be hostess to the Jay Dee club next Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Beauregard of E. 93d St. was a pleasing hostess to the Research club last week.

The Tysolyn club was charmingly entertained last week by Mrs. Mattie Rogers, 2553 E. 61st St. The club discussed the giving of an old-fashioned dinner in the near future. The hostess served a splendid luncheon. Next meeting with Mrs. Marie Stokes, 2156 E. 43d St., suite 5. Mrs. Maud Hawkins, president.

Mrs. La Rue Hawkins Cloud presented her husband, Mr. John Cloud, with a fine baby boy last Sunday morning at the Maternity hospital on E. 101st St. Mother and son are feeling fine. The Clouds reside at 81st and Kinsman Rd., and are well known among the younger set.

Mrs. John Starks of Pittsburgh spent the week-end with her niece, Mrs. F. Byers of 1817 Allendale Ave., East Cleveland.

Miss Myra McCurry and family, residing at 2529 E. 53d St., are entertaining Miss Francis Norris of Baltimore.

Mrs. Thomas Barryman of E. 55th St. has been confined to her bed seriously ill but is reported convalescing.

William Gray, veteran Nickel Plate railroad private car steward, has been confined to his home with a severe attack of rheumatism but is able to be around the house.

Maurice F. Mullin of E. 80th St. has been confined to his home as the result of injuries sustained in an accident in his garage. Mr. Mullin is a recent bridegroom, husband of Mrs. Ida Fountaine Mullin.

During the absences of Councilman Clayborne George from the city Sunday his wife, Mrs. Enola George, had the pleasure of being the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Ogden of E. 83d St. at breakfast and Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Stewart of E. 81st St. at dinner in honor of their baby daughter, Janet's second birthday. Little Janet was presented with two cakes and two candles each. Mrs. Stewart was formerly Miss Amy Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Allen of E. 61st St. had the misfortune of losing the keys of their car, a new Chevrolet coupe and Buick sedan, in a garage fire last week. Mrs. Allen had just returned from a trip to Delaware after taking her sister home.

The musical tea at the Metropolitan club next Sunday from 4 to 6 p. m. under the auspices of the Junior Federation of Girls clubs promises to be of rare interest. Among those participating will be Althea Barkner, piano teacher in the Fine Arts building (white); Mrs. M. Heidemann, dramatic teacher in the Fine Arts building; John Henry Earl, violinist; Evelyn Officerm, pianist; Juanita Thomas, dramatic reader; Charles Welch, baritone; Murray Adams, pianist; and several others of excellent talent. Mr. Rickman of the St. Louis Studios will stand one of the best pupils. The program will eclipse anything of the kind this season, it is said.

The Hi-Y club gave a successful basketball game and dance at the Cedar "Y" Saturday night, a large crowd being in attendance to boost the Hi-Y boys in an interesting game with the Hi-Y alumnae. The score was 62 to 23. Mr. Robinson is president, Joe Day, enport, vice president, and Archie Coleman, secretary of these "fact" Hi-Y's.

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the season was the dancing party of the Royal Vagabond club at the Metropolitan club Friday evening, Feb. 24. Ot Dorsey's orchestra is due much praise for their excellent music.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Elizabeth Byrd of Clatskanie City and Miss McKoin of Portland, Ore. Mrs. Byrd is the house guest of Mrs. Elizabeth Griffith of Euclid Ave. and Miss McKoin, the guest of Mr. and Mrs.

Charles Smith. The new spirit in the Vagabond continues to grow and several affairs are being planned for the year. The club hopes to make its Easter dance one of the season's best.

The dance of "The Jolly Four" at the Caterers club last week, Tuesday evening, was one of the prettiest affairs of the season. Miss Dorothy Hughes and others of the club acquitted themselves most creditably as hosts and hostesses. The guests had a quest for the occasion, Miss Alma Ballinger of Massillon.

The Wistaria club has selected the room they wish to furnish in the new Phyllis Wheatley building, assessed each member $6 and are now prepared to go ahead with the furnishing of the room. This club is composed of a number of women from our best families. They are reported to be establishing a precedent in raising the amount necessary by assessment for furnishing the room rather than asking the public to assist them in this splendid movement.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Basey of Belvidere Ave. entertained the Merry Moments club at their cozy home Saturday evening, cards being the predominating amusement of the evening. A sumptuous buffet luncheon was served by the hostess.

The home of Mrs. H. Mason of East 101st St. presented a colorful scene last Wednesday when she proved a charming hostess in honor of the Assembly Sunday club, the honor scheme, carried out in the decorations being in keeping with the George Washington birthday spirit.

Anna Hardy, 2201 E. 103d St., gave a very enjoyable party for the kiddies of her neighborhood Wednesday night in honor of her brother, Arthur's 10th birthday.

Miss Waverly Gray, one of our most popular school teachers, was hostess to the "Gypsy Slammers" last Friday evening at her home on E. 100th St. This club bids fair to be a leader among the circles of the younger smart set. A delicious supper and bridge were the predominating features of the evening. The girls are planning a big theater party to see "The Student Prince" at the Hanna theater. Mrs. Clayborne George has the pleasure of teaching the girls the game of bridge and is said to be proud of her girls.

Those who had the pleasure of being guests at the Washington birthday party given by Mrs. H. Mason of E. 101st St. in honor of the Assembly Study club were Mrs. E. W. Ingram, Mrs. Ed. Gales, Mrs. Mabel Biggs, Mrs. John Cyrus and Mrs. Clayborne George. "The Negro in Art and Literature" was interestingly discussed. Mrs. Mason served an elaborate menu and was acclaimed one of Cleveland's greatest hostesses.

Mrs. Ruth Basey of Belvidere Ave. and Mrs. Grace Brown of E. 81st St. entertained at a very enjoyable surprise party honoring the birthday of Mrs. Anna Douglas of E. 82d St. last Tuesday evening. The attractive home of Mrs. Mildred Gants, 2437 E. 89th St., was the scene of this pleasant affair. Mrs. Douglas was the recipient of a number of fine gifts.

Roderick Williams in company with Capt. Charles Frye and other representatives the Gamma Tau club at the state convention held in Canton last week.

Mrs. Arthur Skinner of Greenlaw Ave. entertained the Merry Moments club at her delightful home last Wednesday evening. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Hughes and Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Skinner served a delicious luncheon.

The Josephine Needle club is to be entertained at dinner by Mrs. Marie Taylor-Browne of E. 50th St. at its next meeting.

The Junior Council Girls, under the direction of Mrs. Susie Williams, is rehearsing a college play, "Rainbow Kingdom," to be staged in the near future.

George Washington birthday decorations, red white and blue predominated the palatial home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Myers on Pasadena Saturday evening when their daughter, Miss Dorothy Myers, honored the Ye-Buz-Fuz club at their regular meeting with bridge and dinner. Tullies, fresh and beautiful, furnished the picturesque decoration for the center of the huge table. Miniature George Washington (colonial style) hats were the favors. The repast was most sumptuous, being thoroughly enjoyed by all. The prizes which were costly and beautiful were awarded to Mrs. Leon Evans, Mrs. Clayborne George and Mrs. Fred Kenney. Mrs. J. T. Suggs was the honor guest. Mrs. Joseph Robinson will be hostess at the next meeting.

The Arbor Vitae club held their first meeting of the new year at the home of the president, C. H. Porter, 8503 Quebec Ave. Twelve persons presented their applications for membership. They were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harris, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Swoope, Mrs. Martha Alexander, Mrs. F. Putilla, Mrs. Mary Barts, Mr. Curtis, Mrs. Anna M. Character, Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Shealy. St. Hubyn Hunt returned from a delightful trip abroad and is with the club again. The club plans to celebrate its third anniversary March 3 at 2184 E. 90th St. A delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. Porter, wife of our president, C. W. Hays, club reporter.

The Council of Colored Women are spending Friday evening with Mrs. Mattie G. Anderson of the Christian Community Center, who is leaving in March for Nashville, to resume her work with the Firstside school.

The Mens club of Cory M. E. church met Sunday evening in the church and completed plans for their banquet to be given in the church Monday evening, March 12. J. L. Schooler is chairman of the committee and C. C. Robinson, secretary.

The many friends of Mrs. Wallace Bolden of E. 39th St. are grieved to learn of her persistent illness. Mrs. Bolden is one of the active workers in St. Andrews Episcopal church.

Pyramid Agents Give Surprise

The agents of the Cleveland district of the Pyramid Insurance company entertained with a brilliant surprise party at the home of Mrs. Fannie Broom, 2371 E. 49th St., Saturday evening last, honoring Isaac Chapman, who is returning to the home office of the company in Chicago, Ill. Between the hours of 4 and 7 p. m. the Broom home was the scene of much gaiety and merriment, which predominates the social affairs of this organization because of the splendid congenial and co-operative spirit always prevalent. A delicious luncheon was served by Miss Carrie Howe. The speakers included Mr. Chapman, the honor guest; H. H. Williams, state district manager; W. D. Neighbors and H. M. Collins. And others present were H. M. Robinson, Mrs. E. E. Smith, Mrs. M. L. Gardner, Mrs. Mary Craighead, Mrs. Julia Gamby, Mrs. S. B. Jones, Mrs. Cora L. Johnson and L. S. N. Cobb.

Mrs. John Rollins of New Vienna, Ohio, who is visiting relatives on E. 101st St., is being most delightfully entertained during her stay here. On last Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. E. Hays, 10523 Garfield Ave., entertained at dinner in her honor. On last Saturday evening Mrs. May of E. 84th St. and Mrs. Irma Douglas of Clarkwood Rd. gave dinners in her honor. Mrs. Rollins is visiting her daughters and sons, Mrs. Geneva West, Miss Elizabeth Rollins and William and Joseph Rollins.

The Royal Workers of the Council of Women gave a George Washington musical at the home of Mrs. E. E. Boyd on E. 51st St. on Feb. 22. The affair proved quite a successful and enjoyable affair.

Councilman Clayborne George was in Columbus Sunday to address a mammoth mass meeting of the N. A. A. C. P. held in the interest of an extradition case. He was introduced at this meeting by Dr. E. A. Clarke, pastor of St. Paul's church of that city, former pastor of St. John of Cleveland. This feature of his visit was a most enjoyable feature. He had the pleasure of dining with Truman K. Gibson, president of the Supreme Life Insurance company.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spencer of E. 89th St. gave a very pretty kiddies party in honor of their daughter, little Miss Irene Spencer, on her ninth birthday, Saturday, from 2 to 6. Games and plenty of gifts were thoroughly enjoyed by the guests, each of whom presented Irene with a lovely gift.

Dr. Jesse Firse, captain of the Cedar Y volleyball team, is still in smiles, rejoicing over his team winning the north-eastern state championship at Akron. He has been surfeited with congratulatory expressions from all sources.

The Bellicella Needle club met with the president, Mrs. Bessie E. Robinson, 8214 Cedar Ave., last Friday. As the club has pledged funds for the furnishing of a room at the new P. W. A. building, half of which has been raised, plans were discussed for raising the balance. At the close of the business session luncheon was served by the hostess. Quotations were then given by the members. Mrs. Georgia Holmes and Miss Baylor were the guests. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Emma Roberts in Carnegie Ave. Mrs. B. E. Robinson, president.

The Merces Des Filles club held a very interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. Jackson of E. 120th St. Six new members were voted into the club. The new additions included Mrs. Kellum, Mrs. Guy, Mrs. White, Mrs. Coggin and Mrs. Johnson. Mrs. Alma Brown was made chaplain of the club. The club is looking forward to success at their next meeting to be held the second Sunday in March. Mrs. M. E. Coggin and Miss Jeannette Brown are assisting Miss Myrtle Wiggins in working out the program for that Sunday. At this meeting the aims of the club will be discussed.

Miss Elsie Shy of 12424 Imperial Ave.

is able to get around again after being confined as the result of having her tonsils removed.

The pretty home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stewart of Crennell Ave. was the scene of one of the most brilliant club affairs when Mrs. Stewart entertained the Les De Arto club. The house and tables presented a most picturesque appearance, being decorated with the season's colors and flowers. A very delicious luncheon was served, after which business was the order. The election of officers resulted as follows: Mrs. T. H. Howard, re-elected vice president; Mrs. W. Hines, recording secretary; Mrs. O. Stakely, corresponding secretary; Mrs. F. Clark, treasurer; Mrs. E. Wright, chairman of sick committee; Mrs. F. Higgs, critic, and Mrs. G. H. Washington, reporter. The club ladies were unanimous in their decision to entertain their husbands at a St. Patrick's day dinner. A vote of thanks was then extended to the hostess, after which adjournment was taken to meet with Mrs. Wright, 2333 E. 93d St.

Mrs. Fisher to Speak

Mrs. G. Fisher of Pasadena Ave., wife of Prof. Isaac Fisher of the Guggenheim foundation, will be the speaker for the council of Race women at the Mary B. Talbert home, 2215 E. 40th St., Tuesday, March 6, at 8 p. m. She will relate in an interesting manner her experience with the African women on her recent trip abroad. All women are invited. Mrs. E. F. Boyd is the energetic president of the council, which is responsible for this home for unwedded mothers.

Mount Zion Temple

Sunday Rev. Russell Brown, pastor, spoke at the morning service on the subject, "The Preparation for the Kingdom of Christ." Among the visitors at the service was Albert Bentley of Memphis, Tenn.

Mrs. Clarence Johnson and her committee, composed of Mrs. Blanche Nall, Mrs. Mabel Biggs, Mrs. Kate Hayes, Miss Bessie Randolph and Mrs. Mamie Pollard, sponsored a very successful get-together social in the parlors of the temple Friday.

Mrs. Lemuel Adams, 2321 E. 86th St., died Saturday. Her funeral was held from the residence Tuesday.

An old-fashioned rally has been scheduled for March 11. Dr. Brown speaks Sunday, March 4, on "The Meaneast Woman in Cleveland."

Thursday night basketball teams of Mount Zion center and Cedar Y will play a game at Mount Zion.