

terlined in her usual hospitable manner.

Mrs. Jim Reid of Elizabeth St. has gone to her mother's home in Alabama to recuperate from the effects of a recent serious illness. Her many friends wish her Godspeed along the highway to recovery.

Mrs. McGuinn of Burns Ave. was hostess on Thursday to the White Rose Social club. It is reported that Mrs. McGuinn's party was quite an enjoyable affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Greene of Columbus, Ohio, are the guests of John Billings of Bersford Ave. for their spring vacation.

The L. M. I. Federated club was royally entertained last Thursday by its hostess, Mrs. Elsie Hackney. Mrs. Handy of the Rumford Baking Powder cooking school and Mrs. Josephine Sellers were guests.

Little James Ruffian of Montfort St. was struck and injured by an automobile on Friday afternoon. He was treated at the General hospital for bruises and injuries about the head and then removed to his home. It is said that he was struck as he started to return home after helping an old lady board a street car.

Mrs. Marguerite Isby Duncan drove to Chicago on Friday, taking with her Miss Alena Banks, who is here from Dayton, Ohio, as the guest of Miss Dorothy Early during her spring vacation.

Robert Derrickson of Millersburg, Ky., is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Elsie Hackney, of Gilbert Ave.

Joint services were held at St. John's A. M. E. church on Good Friday at 3 o'clock.

Members of the Spade Heart Diamond club were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Graves of Lockland, Ohio, on Saturday night. A gay evening at cards and supper is reported. The prize winners were Mrs. Catheryne Faulkner, first; Mrs. Thelma Phillips, second, and Mrs. Alberta Williams, consolation. The men's prizes went to George Banks, first; Charles Chenault, second, and William Phillips, consolation.

Dean and Mrs. Woodson of Weberforce university were guests at Brown Chapel on Easter Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lawson and Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Hayden spent Easter Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Mills, of Lebanon, Ohio.

The Kenyon Ave. Christian church held its sunrise prayer meeting and baptizing at the church on Easter Sunday morning.

Bishop Ramsom preached at Brown's Chapel M. E. church on Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Thelma Phillips of Glendale gave a unique Easter party at their home on Sunday afternoon. The guests, approximately 15 couples, enjoyed a lovely Easter egg hunt in the late afternoon, followed by supper laid on a well appointed table. The evening was devoted to games and laughter.

Dr. Andrew S. Burton spent Sunday as the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Theodore O. Walker of College Hill.

Prof. Clinton Gibbs gave his annual cantata on Easter Sunday at the First Baptist church. As usual, it is reported, it was well attended, well presented and well received.

Miss Kathleen Mitchell spent her Easter vacation here with her mother, Mrs. Lucy Mitchell, of Madisonville.

The Y. W. C. A. worship service, followed by breakfast at 6 o'clock at the Y. W. C. A., was very impressive and well attended. Rev. C. Baker Pearle of Brown's Chapel A. M. E. church gave the Easter message. Music was furnished by the Y. W. C. A. Choral club. Covers were laid for 50 persons for breakfast.

The A. K. A. sorority will present its annual play Friday evening, April 13, at the Wilson Memorial hall. A comedy, "Miss Nellie of New Orleans," starring Miss Marion Ritchie, will be presented. The cast is made up of the following: Miss Virginia Jones, Mary Finlay, Lucy Mitchell, La Terria V. May, Dr. Kenneth Jones, Arthur Johnson, Attorney Theodore M. Berry and George Reed. The proceeds of the play will be used to keep up the A. K. A. sorority scholarship fund at Cincinnati university.

A double program, "White Eagle" and "Before Midnight," was featured Friday and Saturday at the Beecher theater.

The Citizens Recreation council held its annual city-wide championship tournament Friday, April 6.

West End Branch Y. W. C. A.

The health and education committees of the West End branch Y. W. C. A. of Cincinnati, Ohio, presented a play, "Sonny-Jane," which it presented at p. m. A large and enthusiastic audience was in attendance. Miss Marie Thomas is the coach of the young players. Members of the Ultra Modern Dramatic club who made up the cast were Hazel Banks, Archie Copeland, Almeta Scott, Cornelius Shepard, Ida Lee, Earl Merritt, Beatrice Harvey, Mary Chenault, William Kennedy, John Porter, Madge Taylor and Adelaide Bowen.

Boy Scouts

The coming of spring found the Boy Scouts of Troop 315 very busy preparing their spring activities and program, and on Wednesday evening the troop took a very interesting sight-seeing tour to the observatory, where they saw the stars and moon through a huge telescope. At the scout meeting Monday, held at St. John's A. M. E. Zion church at Barr and Mound Sts., six scouts were selected to take part in the Boy Scout radio program that was featured over Station WKRC on Thursday, April 5, at 6:30 o'clock. Assistant Scoutmaster Collins announced that the hike to the water works plant would be taken on Sunday. The regular meeting was held at Brown's Chapel A. M. E. church at Alms Pl. on Friday at 7:15. Charles Doram and Ralph Freeman joined our troop and Jose Harper won the reading merit badge at the court of honor. Junior Assistant Scoutmaster Turner presented Clark Arrington and Jose Harper their first-class badges. Albert Fry received his tenderfoot badge.

CINCINNATI NEWS

By MARION M. HUBBARD

4 Lincoln Terrace

CINCINNATI, Ohio, April 13.—Last rites were held on Thursday, March 15, at 1 o'clock at the Miami Baptist church at Milford, Ohio, with Rev. C. T. Parker in charge of the services, for the late Mrs. Luella Upthegrove Hughes, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Upthegrove, who was born in Brown county, Ohio, Sept. 15, 1878. At an early age she was affiliated with the Middle Creek church at Mandale, Ohio, and was married there in 1896 to Elmer Hughes. She succumbed after a long illness on Sunday, March 11. She leaves to mourn her a devoted husband, a mother, seven children, namely Arletha Moore, Etta Hughes, Bernice Quincey, Orville Hughes, Raymond Hughes, Helen Oliver and Edith Tivis, and grandchildren, two sisters, one daughter-in-law, four son-in-laws and a host of other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Cynthia Holt of Maysville, Ky., was guest Friday of Mrs. Nannie Elliott of Oliver St.

Mrs. Baker of Bersford Ave. is driving a new car. It is reported.

Miss Willa Mae Brownlow is spending some time in Lina, Tenn., with her mother, who is very ill.

Last Saturday the Chatter Bridge club was entertained at the Manse hotel as guests of Miss Mercedes Hopkins. The young women gave Mrs. Ruth Colley a handkerchief shower on her birthday, as is the custom of the club. The guest prizes of the afternoon were won by Mrs. Camille Cole and Miss Flora Brooks. Attorney Elsie Austin and Miss Helen Kerr won the club awards.

Miss Margaret Kinney is here to spend the spring vacation with her parents.

The Mother's club of the First Baptist church was hostess at a silver tea and musicale at the home of Mrs. Ha Goode of Myrtle Ave. on last Sunday afternoon. A pretty and successful affair is reported.

Alfred Thomas is here from Springfield, Ohio, for a week's stay with his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Stafford, of W. Eighth St.

Miss Myrtle Hale is able to be out again after several days illness at her home.

Mrs. Ha Anderson has returned home after a six weeks visit with relatives and friends in Atlanta, Ga., and several adjacent towns.

The O. D. Ts were guests on Thursday of Mrs. Elsie Hackney of Gilbert Ave. Mrs. Hackney served a splendid luncheon after which, at the end of the customary rounds of bridge, the lovely prizes were awarded to Mrs. Irene Moore, first; Mrs. Lillian Warren, second, and Mrs. Cynthia Harris, consolation.

Mrs. William J. Steele of Rockdale Ave. is spending about three weeks in Franklin, N. J., with her son, who is quite ill there.

Mrs. Lula Liggins of Kerper Ave. was hostess to the So Re Lits on Wednesday afternoon. Plans for rehearsals and presentation at an early date of three one-act plays which the committee has chosen were of primary importance.

Mrs. Heastella Bennett, Greene planned to join her husband, Henry Greene, in Linnville, Ky., last Wednesday.

The members of the Lucky Seven Card club were guests Wednesday evening of Mrs. Thomas Phillips, who en-