

A.M.E. Zion Youth Meet In Mobile

Rev. G. L. Blackwell, Secretary, Christian Education Department of the A.M.E. Zion Church, with offices at 128 E. 58th Street, announced that the youth of the denomination will come to grips with many of the Baha'i Faith, opens to young and old today, when they meet at Mobile, Ala. December 27-29, in an interim meeting of the National Christian Council. The meeting is to be held at State Street A.M.E. Zion Church, 500 State Street.

Although they are meeting during the Christmas holidays, Rev. W. E. Carson, host-pastor, says that registration is running far ahead of expectations. This will be a warmup meeting which will extend over into the Christian Education Convocation, to be held at Livingstone College, Salisbury, N. C., August 1-7, 1970.
