

Out Of Bean Pot..... BOSTON, MASS.

BOSTON, Mass., Dec. 23—Mr. and Mrs. L. Caine of Windsor street returned on Monday from a ten days' visit with relatives and friends in Washington.

Miss Grace Brand of Camden street who was called to Philadelphia on business returned home Tuesday, accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Agnes Preston, who will spend an indefinite visit.

Mr. and Mrs. James Minor of Warwick street had as their guests at dinner on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. George Griffith of Ivy street, Cambridge.

C. M. Crampton of New York accompanied by his nephew, James Hinton, spent the week end with friends.

Miss Ruth Jackson of Charles street, Malden, left Saturday to visit her grandmother, in Oxford, N. C., before returning home, she will visit other relatives in Durham and Norfolk, Va., for a month.

Mrs. Laura Farnham of Columbus avenue, entertained friends at her home on Tuesday in celebration of her birthday. Cards, games and a delicious collation were enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. J. Kane, Mrs. L. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. T. Russell, F. Edwardson, Mr. and Mrs. G. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. E. Holmes, Miss S. Simmons, Samuel Greene, Mr. and Mrs. N. Corliss and A. Marshall.

Carl M. Phillips of Newark who was called here on business, spent a week here. He was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. James of West Springfield street.

The members of the Gables bridge club were the guests on Saturday of Mrs. Louise Ross of Harold street. The prize winners were Mrs. Marian Washington and Mrs. Ross.

Much success attended the prize card party sponsored by the members of the Imperial Art club, Thursday at the home of Mrs. Marguerite Benson of Walden street, North Cambridge. Among the prize winners were W. Campbell, Wilfred Bailey and Edward Diggs.

Mrs. Larrie Smith of New Rochelle spent a few days here last week on business.

HARRIET TUBMAN NOTES

The annual corporation and executive board meeting of the Harriet Tubman house was held on Friday with election and installing of the following officers: Mrs. Fannie Lonon, president; Dr. Minnie Cravath Simpson, vice president; Mrs. Lillian Moffett Eyles, treasurer; Miss Gladys Holmes, clerk; Mrs. Nora V. Sewall, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Susan Cox, assistant secretary and Irwin T. Dorch, attorney.

The directors are: Mesdames Jessie Johnson, Lillian Averett, Alice Scott, Mamie Crutchfield, Pritchett Jones, Mary Handy, Sadie Turner and Mable Dean; Misses Carrie Brown, Wilhelmina Cresson, Helen Smith, Carrie Donkers and Theresa Alexander.

Reports were received from the various committees, showing a successful and progressive year. A feature of the evening was the presentation of the film "The Open Door," by Stuart Rand from the Community Federation. A social hour closed the meeting.

The Octettes held their regular meeting. Members are Mrs. Corrine Powe, president; Harold Ford, vice president; Miss Mamie Logan, secretary; Mrs. Hilda Talbot, treasurer; William Warren, publicity chairman; Miss Agnes Correia, Henry Lattimer and Miss Georgia Leighton. Plans were completed for the drawing of a six-way floor lamp at the home of the publicity chairman, 108 Camden street, Thursday.

The receipts from the prize bridge, whist and beano party sponsored by the Wives of the Officers of the 372nd Battalion were divided between the Christmas fund of the Chronicle and the Ladies Auxiliary of the battalion.

The members of the Yadsendew bridge club were the guests Wednesday of Mrs. Alice Jones of Washington street. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Ethel Wayne, first; Mrs. Ruth Shelton, second and Mrs. Madeline Diggs, received the consolation prize.

POST DEBS

The Post Debs, Miss Ruth Jackson, Miss Kay Gaines and Miss Phyllis Derry, entertained a group of Post Debs and their escorts at a birthday dinner party given in honor of Peter W. Owens, of Everett, fiance of Miss Derry. The affair was held at the Charles street home of Miss Jackson of Malden, Sunday. The home was decorated with Christmas colorings and a Christmas tree.

Later in the evening, the group was entertained with an informal Christmas party at the home of Joe Wyche of Linden by Mr. and Mrs. J. Wyche. Among the guests attending both affairs were Misses Margaret "Peggy" Robinson, of Ohio; Ann Bullock of Henderson, N. C.; Clara Tanner, Mesdames Tessie Jordan, Esther Humphrey, George Johnson, Carl Harris, Messrs. Peter Owens, Parker Tanner, Frank Moses of Philadelphia, George Johnson, Joseph Wyche, Wallace Owens, Carl Harris, Frank Jones of New Jersey.

ANNIVERSARY DINNER

The members of the Dunbar Rangers of the Lincoln House, Inc., held their anniversary on Thursday evening at the house on Emerald street. Among those present were Mrs. Bessie Bankett, president; Mrs. Ursula King, vice president; Miss Annie King, secretary; James Broadard, treasurer; Joseph Webster, assistant treasurer; Mesdames Bertha White, Amelia Rice, Emma Green, Helen Hall, Susan Brown, Lily Randolph, Charlotte Lewis, Mabel Dean, Nora Sewall, Lella Howard, James Broadard and Gertrude Harris.

On Tuesday at the Williams Municipal building, the Rev. Francis L. Archdeacon, S. J., rector of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, lectured on "Christmas Day." The affair was sponsored by the South End committee of the Adult Recreation project. Music was furnished by the County Concert Orchestra, Osgood Marcellus, conductor, and there were movies as a prelude to Father Archdeacon's lecture.

The following persons made donations to the first annual paper shower given by the Co-workers for the Blind in Boston club; Mesdames N. S. Fountaine, B. Cooke, M. V. Ridgley, M. Cox, G. Taylor, A. Washington, L. A. Connolly; Mr. and Mrs. James Fletcher, Miss Gladys Fountaine, H. E. Bridgeforth and a hardware firm.

Miss Blanche Johnson of Albion street, Wellesly, is ill at the Boston City hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Alec Kimball of New York City, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Louise Kimball, spent the week end here with friends.

J. T. Plummer of Shawmut avenue, left the city on Monday to spend an indefinite visit with relatives and friends in Norfolk, Va.

Mrs. Mary Rogers of Humboldt avenue, who was called to Washington by the serious illness of her brother, returned home Tuesday leaving the patient much improved.

COLUMBUS AVENUE A. M. E. ZION CHURCH

The Rev. William D. Battie, pastor of the Columbus Avenue A. M. E. Zion church, occupied his pulpit at both services on Sunday. Musical selections were rendered by the Senior choir, directed by Dr. W. O. Taylor. At an afternoon service, the Rev. Richard Owens, pastor of the People's Baptist church, was the guest speaker at the dedication of the new heating plant.

Regular sessions of the church school, Bible classes and Varick Christian Endeavor were well attended.

RUSH A. M. E. ZION CHURCH, CAMBRIDGE

The Rev. J. A. Clements, pastor of the Rush A. M. E. Zion church, spoke at the morning services taking as his theme "The Great Reward;" at the evening service, the memorial annual sermon of the Pocahontas Lodge of Elks was delivered. On Friday the "Battle of Wits" test was held with the lucky winner the recipient of a cash prize. In celebration of the holiday, the church school and choir will have charge of the exercises Christmas Sunday. On the first Sunday in the new year, a memorial service will be held for the deceased members of the church, with a candle lit in their memory.

Mrs. Mary Tobias Dean of Cambridge left last week to spend the holidays with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Channing Tobias of New York. She was accompanied by her baby son, Channing Tobias Dean.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Snowden, Jr., of Harold street, left Thursday for Cheyney, Pa., where they will be the holiday guests of Mrs. Snowden's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Leslie Pinckney Hill. Other guests at the Hill home will be Otto P. Snowden of Washington and Herbert Tucker, Jr., of this city, who will join his wife, Mrs. Mary Hill Tucker of Lincoln hospital, New York.

TO PRESENT PLAY

On Thursday, December 22, the Outer South End Community theatre directed by James W. Henderson, will present "Christmas Destiny," a one-act drama by Dorothy Allen. Members of the cast are a newly formed group and include, Nurjahan Kahn, Victoria Greene, Agnes Howard, Alfred Tomlinson, John Howard and John Austin. Claudius Broadfield will direct the Outer South End Community Chorus and several selections will be played by the Outer South End Community Ensemble, conducted by William Wooten. An exhibit of arts and crafts by participants at the Robert Gould Shaw house will be on display. All are invited to attend this program at the Blessed Sacrament Auditorium at 60 Vernon street.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. McIntyre of Columbus avenue, entertained friends at dinner on Sunday, in celebration of Mrs. McIntyre's birthday. Covers were laid for twelve.

G. R. Allen of Munroe street, left the city for an indefinite visit in Chicago, where he will be the guest of his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Allen, Jr. Enroute he will visit his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. T. Collins of Brooklyn.

FUNERALS

William H. McFarlan, 43, husband of Mrs. Hattie McFarlan of 12 Gertrude street, died at the Boston City hospital, Friday. Services were held at the chapel of the J. B. Johnson funeral home, the Rev. W. D. Battie, pastor of the Columbus Avenue A. M. E. Zion church, officiating. Interment was on Monday at Mt. Hope cemetery.

Mrs. Jane Robinson, 58, wife of Nathaniel Robinson, of 2 Singleton street, died at the Boston City hospital, on Monday. Services were held Thursday with the Rev. Frank Stubbs, officiating. Mrs. Robinson also leaves a daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Pina. Interment in Mt. Hope cemetery.