

SPEAKS FOR HAMPTON INSTITUTE

The Chicago Defender (Big Weekend Edition) (1905-1966); Apr 28, 1917;
ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Chicago Defender
pg. 4

SPEAKS FOR HAMPTON INSTITUTE

Major Allen Washington, commandant, Hampton Institute, Hampton, Va., was in the city last week to speak in the interest of the school. He addressed the City club (white) in the "loop" and made an effective appeal for Hampton. He made an inspection of the new eighth armory and Captain Pinkney's company. He was elated with their drilling, rifle practice and maneuvering. Major Washington was given a theater party by Editor Robert S. Abbott and entertained at breakfast Saturday morning last before leaving at 3159 State Street.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.